Bohlen Got Rosy Soviet Promises

Malenkov Said To Have Pledged Closer Moscow Envoy Ties

WASHINGTON (INS)—It was reliably reported Wednesday that Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov made rosy promises to U.S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen in Moscow Sunday and that these figured in the optimistic statement President Eisenhower made at his news conference Wednesday.

The reports were that Malenkov, in a long chat with Bohlen during the celebration of the 37th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution, made the following points

Malenkov

1. He had always favored close negotiations between the Soviets and the United States

2. He did not believe incidents should be permitted to get out of hand and lead the two countries into drastic action.

Apparently when they talked both Malenkov and Bohlen had received first reports that two Russian jet fighters had shot down an American RB-29 photo plane just north of Japan a few hours before, but it seemed that neither referred to the incident during their conversation.

Regular Talks

The important promise by Malenkov came when Bohlen pointed out that although the Russian leader said he wanted closer negotiations, it was virtually impossible for U.S. diplomats in Moscow to reach Soviet officials to conduct regular diplomatic talks.

Malenkov is reported to have replied that he was aware of the fact that American diplomats were kept isolated from the Russians in Moscow and that he was working on a plan to make it easier for the officials of the two countries to talk with each other.

At his news conference Mr Eisenhower said the Russian attitude toward the U. S. protest over the attack on the RB-29 seemed to be more conciliatory than in similar instances in the past.

He declined to explain the basis for his judgment because he said he had forgotten whether or not the note itself had been published

So far two notes have been made public in relation to the Sunday shooting They were the protest sent by Washington to Moscow and the protest the Russians sent to this country.

No Other Notes

Neither of these was mild nor conciliatory in its language. State Department spokesman Henry Suydan said he knew of no other notes on the incident so it was unclear just what message the President was talking about when he said the Russians appeared more conciliatory.

The President also cast some doubt on whether the American aircraft was over territory claimed by the Russians.

Earlier U.S. statements claimed the RB29 never came within 14 miles of any Soviet-held territory, including the Bahomai Islands that lie within two or three miles of the coast of Japan.

The President mentioned the Habomai group by name and said the incident took place right in that area. He also said that the U.S. never has recognized the Soviet right to the Habomai group but that the Russians are very jealous in keeping hold of it.

Solons Eye State Land Rent Basis

Attention Given Report Indicates Lively Session

The report on school lands Wednesday afternoon drew more attention from the outgoing Legislature than any other since the other lawmakers began meeting this week as a Legislative Council.

The Council's purpose is to formulate recommendations to the next session. All members of the outgoing Legislature participate

A committee headed by Sen John Beaver of Beemer advocated retention of the six per cent of appraised value rental basis.

Leaseholders Complain

Agitation to reduce the rental basis to three per cent developed when the Board of Educational Lands and Funds recently raised the appraised valuation to the level of the actual value of deeded land.

Leaseholders complained this doubled their rent.

Discussion preceding acceptance of the Beaver Committee report Wednesday indicated a lively session on school lands in the 1955 Unicameral.

Western senators, where most of the school land is, believe it would be wise to sell the land. Eastern senators do not accept this view.

Had Advantage

Sen John Aufenkamp of Julian, in southeastern Nebraska, asserted "School land leaseholders have certainly had the advantage over persons that had to lease from private owners."

But Sen. Monroe Bixler of Harrison, in the northwest corner of Nebraska, declared.

"Doubling the rent in many cases has worked a great hardship."

The state owns 1,600,000 acres of land given to it by the federal government when Nebraska was laid out, the income to go to support of the public schools.

Quick Attention

The school land question will come to the fore very early in the next session as the Legislature confronts the necessity of implementing the constitutional amendment approved by the voters last week.

The amendment provides for replacing the present ex officio board of lands and funds with an appointive board named by the governor.

The present set-up terminates when the new amendment becomes effective. It is up to the Legislature meanwhile to prescribe qualifications, tenure and compensation of members of the new board to be named by the governor.

Other reports approved by the legislative council Wednesday afternoon recommend

That psychiatric examinations be required of first offenders in sex cases, and that parole conditions for violators be tightened

That the need for possible regulation of groundwater resources be studied within two years.

The council recessed until Friday on account of the Veterans' day holiday Thursday.

Cops Saw Jail's Bar For Inmate

The only things a 72-year-old Lincolnite, booked for drunk at the city jail, got for his escape "attempt" Wednesday night were stitches on his nose and the back of his head And police are contemplating the use of "padded cells"

At about 8 p m. a fireman came into the station from next door and told Jailer Floyd Orr he had heard strange noises—it sounded like someone banging around on a window.

Orr investigated and found the old man wedged between the barred window and an inner solid window cover which was ajar Attempts to dislodge the inmate from his pretzel-like position were unsuccessful until Capt Orrin Graves sawed a bar which freed the twisted prisoner.

Officers took the prisoner to St. Elizabeth hospital for treatment after which he was returned to his cell.

Case Claims 'Abuse' In McCarthy Charge

Censure Backer Hints Joe Shows More Contempt In His Defense

WASHINGTON (AP)—A member of the Watkins committee, which has been accused by Sen. McCarthy of being a tool of Communists, hit back Wednesday with a declaration that senators doing their duty should not be subjected to "personal abuse."

Sen. Case (R-SD), a member of the committee which recommended censure of McCarthy, spoke out near the end of the Senate's first day of debate on the hotly controversial censure question

The day also saw McCarthy (R-Wis) swap accusations with Sen Watkins (R-Utah), committee chairman. McCarthy accused Watkins of twisting facts and the Utah legislator countered with a charge that McCarthy has violated his obligation—if not his oath—as a senator.

Watkins was referring to McCarthy's failure to appear before an investigating committee which looked into his affairs in 1952. This is the basis for one of the censure counts against him. The other charges he abused Brig. Gen Ralph W Zwicker when the general appeared before McCarthy's Investigations subcommittee.

'Personal Abuse'

Case, in cautioning against "personal abuse" of senators, was replying to McCarthy's statement that the Watkins committee acted as the "unwitting handmaiden" of the Communist party in making its censure recommendations.

McCarthy made the charge Tuesday in a speech he said he would deliver in the Senate Wednesday. As it turned out he didn't actually deliver it but put it into the Congressional Record—with Case and others insisting it be described there as a statement and not a speech.

Case declared, his voice rising: 'I don't want the senator from Wisconsin to prove unintentionally to the country that count one is right."

The first count in the two-count censure recommendation of the Watkins committee is that McCarthy showed contempt for another Senate committee.

Case said the Watkins group is trying to make it possible for senators to accept committee assignments in the future without laying themselves open to "personal abuse."

"We hope," he declared "to preserve for the Senate of the United States the right to serve on a committee, go into the facts and make a report without having (their motives impugned."

McCarthy told Case he never meant to suggest any of the six senators on the Watkins committee was sympathetic toward communism. But he continued to insist that the committee "unwittingly" served the Communist cause by proposing censure for him.

The debate frequently bogged down in technical details before the day was over.

The Democrats—what few of them turned out for the debate—mostly sat quiet Wednesday and let the Republicans do the arguing.

Lincoln Parade, Silence, Will Honor Veterans

After the sounding of the city's air raid sirens at 10 59 a m Thursday, Lincolnites will be called to pay a minute's silent tribute to America's war dead.

This will comprise part of the Veteran's Day observance—the day set aside to replace the Armistice day of the past—when honors are extended to veterans of all this nation's wars

A parade through downtown Lincoln will have representatives from the following groups, according to Walter I Black, program chairman

Boy Scouts, American Legion Drum Corps a Marine color guard, Legionnaires, various reserve units representatives of veterans' patriotic groups, a high school band, and a host of dignitaries.

The dignitaries include Gov. Robert Crosby, Gov-Elect Victor Anderson, Mayor Clark Jeary, the chancellors of two universities, and the commanding officers of the various service units here.

Black said the parade will assemble at 10:45 on 9th Street between O and P, when it will proceed to 12th and O for a short ceremony. Later, the route is east to 14th, south to N, west to 10th, north to P, and west to 9th.

Co-chairmen for the observance are Frank Landis, Legion Post 3 commander, Lt Col. Donald Penterman and Maj. Lloyd Solt of the Nebraska National Guard; Col. William Gillespie, commander of the Lincoln Air Force Base, and Col Joe Stenglein, University of Nebraska ROTC.

Reclamation Group Refuses To OK Ike's Policy

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The National Reclamation Association tabled Wednesday a resolution approving the Eisenhower administration's partnership policy of water and power development after being told it was "untimely"

Harry W. Horton, El Centro, Calif., resolutions committeeman, offered the proposal after explaining that earlier the resolutions committee had tabled a more detailed endorsement of the partnership policy.

Peterson

Opposition quickly was expressed by L. E Coles, Pineville, Ore., that the resolution was an "anti-climax" and that even though he favored the policy, many voters in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana had shown in last week's election that they did not

Glenn G. Saunders, Denver, Colorado's member of the resolutions committee, then told the convention he considered the proposal "untimely" and after saying he did not want to see it either adopted or defeated, he moved to table the motion to approve.

Vote 11 To 5

By a vote of 11 to 5, with one state not voting, the motion, and therefore the resolution was tabled

Tabling the resolution means in effect to kill it since it prevented further discussion at the current convention.

Dr. R. G. Gustavson president of resources for the Future, Inc., Washington, D C., told the association that notions first entertained that sources of atomic energy were limited "are being entirely dispelled"

He said that because of the large amount of energy found in uranium, and potentially in thorium, it is now calculated that it could be profitable to extract uranium and thorium from nearly all granites, even when found in a ration of only 20 parts per million.

Former NU Head

On the other hand, Dr. Gustavson, former chancellor of the University of Nebraska, said a still unsolved facet of the atomic energy operation is disposal of radioactive wastes

C. Petrus Peterson of Lincoln, Neb., was elected president of the association for a fourth term.

Big Round Lost By Democrats

Move To Bar Quick Signing Of Dixon-Yates Contract Beaten

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said Wednesday he does not believe it is in the best interests of the country to saddle the federal government with "a continuous and never-ending responsibility" to provide new public power.

He set forth his power philosophy in a letter urging the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee to allow swift execution of the Dixon-Yates private power contract if the committee finds its terms satisfactory.

The controversial contract is for plant at West Memphis, Ark., to pour private power into the lines of the Tennessee Valley Authority. The power would take the place of electricity TVA is furnishing to plants of the Atomic Energy Commission.

There had been proposals that plants to supply the extra power needed in the valley but Congress declined to underwrite this plan.

Letter To Rep. Cole

The President's letter, addressed to Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate-House Atomic energy committee, was released toward the end of a day in which Eisenhower forces won a big round in the Dixon-Yates fight. Democrats on the committee lost, 10-8, a move to bar immediate signing of the contract.

"It seems to me," the President wrote, 'that there has been a very great deal of talk and argument—much of it partisan—about issues that are really clear and simple.

"No one in this administration has any intention of destroying or damaging TVA or of diminishing its effectiveness in any way.

"But this is not the same thing as fastening on the federal government a continuing and never-ending responsibility which I frankly do not believe is logical nor, in the long run, in the best interests of the country."

Read in the context of the whole letter, it was clear that by "responsibility" Eisenhower meant responsibility to build generating plants and distribute public power.

Says One Truth Ignored

"It seems to me that all arguments for the construction by the federal government of the additional steam plants ignore this one and very important truth." the President wrote.

"If the federal government assumes responsibility in perpetuity for providing the TVA area with all the power it can accept, generated by any means whatsoever, it has a similar responsibility with respect to every other area and region and corner of the United States of America"

Eisenhower said he is convinced that "we have not been alert enough in making certain of this equality of treatment."

"...there must either be some reexamination of any plans which would call for the federal government to supply all the additional needed in the future in the Tennessee Valley, or logically we would have to begin plans for a gigantic power development to cover the entire nation equitably," he wrote.

If such a massive public power development is to be the national policy, Eisenhower said, "it is most certainly a project that demands earnest and prayerful study"

The first congressional reaction came from Sen. Gore (D-Tenn), an outspoken foe of the Dixon-Yates contract. After Cole read the President's letter to the committee, Gore commented that the document "makes it plain that the whole purpose of the Dixon-Yates contract is to alter the TVA plan."

Gore said he interpreted it as meaning that Eisenhower "is now saying emphatically that he opposes any further growth in generating facilities by the TVA" and offers the Dixon-Yates contract as a substitute.

The Democratic attempt to delay the signing of the contract was beaten on straight party lines. The vote came on a resolution by Sen. Pastore (D-RI) to ask the AEC to withhold its signature from the contract until the next Congress convenes in January.

Perjury Charge Dismissed

Dorris Defense Motion Granted

B. VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

A perjury charge against Joseph W Dorris, 27, of 1423 P, was dismissed by Lancaster District Judge Harry Spencer on a defense motion when the State's case was rested Tuesday in the jury trial

Defense Atty John McArthur moved for dismissal on grounds the state's evidence was not sufficient to establish the charge beyond a reasonable doubt. The motion was sustained by Judge Spencer.

In support of his motion, the attorney argued perjury cannot be proved merely by showing a defendant's unsworn statements were inconsistent with sworn statements made in court.

Four Witnesses

Dep. Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele called four witnesses in presentation of the state's case which alleged Dorris gave perjured testimony during his trial for negligent driving at Municipal Court on July 15.

Officer Ed Kringle and former City Prosecutor John Binning testified that Dorris testimony in the lower court was that his taxicab was at a complete stop and was backed into by another vehicle in a June 27 accident

Officer Kringle testified that in the accident investigation, Dorris told him that he was momentarily distracted by his passenger and had run into the rear of the other vehicle, stopped for a traffic signal

He also testified to observing four to six feet of skid marks extending from the rear of Dorris' taxicab.

Thrown Forward

Ed Ostergren, the passenger in Dorris's cab, testified he was thrown forward in the cab by the impact. He was uncertain in his testimony as to circumstances just prior to impact.

Municipal Court Clerk Edwin Towle identified court records in the lower court trial in which Dorris was convicted of negligent driving and fined $10.

Driver of the other vehicle in the accident was not produced by the state in the perjury trial.

The perjury charge was the first to be filed in this county for approximately six years.

Censure Backer Hints Joe Shows More Contempt In His Defense

WASHINGTON (AP)—A member of the Watkins committee, which has been accused by Sen. McCarthy of being a tool of Communists, hit back Wednesday with a declaration that senators doing their duty should not be subjected to "personal abuse."

Sen. Case (R-SD), a member of the committee which recommended censure of McCarthy, spoke out near the end of the Senate's first day of debate on the hotly controversial censure question.

The day also saw McCarthy (R-Wis) swap accusations with Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), committee chairman. McCarthy accused Watkins of twisting facts and the Utah legislator countered with a charge that McCarthy has violated his obligation—if not his oath—as a senator.

Watkins was referring to McCarthy's failure to appear before an investigating committee which looked into his affairs in 1952. This is the basis for one of the censure counts against him. This will comprise part of the Veteran's Day observance—the day set aside to replace the Armistice day of the past—when honors are extended to veterans of all this nation's wars.

A parade through downtown Lincoln will have representatives from the following groups, according to Walter I. Black, program chairman:

Boy Scouts, American Legion Drum Corps, a Marine color guard, Legionnaires, various reserve units, representatives of veterans' patriotic groups, a high school band, and a host of dignitaries.

The dignitaries include Gov. Robert Crosby, Gov.-Elect Victor Anderson, Mayor Clark Jeary, the chancellors of two universities, and the commanding officers of the various service units here.

Black said the parade will assemble at 10:45 on 9th Street between O and P, when it will proceed to 12th and O for a short ceremony. Later, the route is east to 14th, south to N, west to 10th, north to P, and west to 9th.

Co-chairmen for the observance are Frank Landis, Legion Post 3 commander; Lt. Col. Donald Penterman and Maj. Lloyd Solt of the Nebraska National Guard; Col. William Gillespie, commander of the Lincoln Air Force Base, and Col. Joe Stenglein, University of Nebraska ROTC.

Big Round Lost By Democrats

Move To Bar Quick Signing Of Dixon-Yates Contract Beaten

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said Wednesday he does not believe it is in the best interests of the country to saddle the federal government with "a continuous and never-ending responsibility" to provide new public power.

He set forth his power philosophy in a letter urging the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee to allow swift execution of the Dixon-Yates private power contract if the committee finds its terms satisfactory.

The controversial contract is for plant at West Memphis, Ark., to pour private power into the lines of the Tennessee Valley Authority. The power would take the place of electricity TVA is furnishing to plants of the Atomic Energy Commission.

There had been proposals that plants to supply the extra power needed in the valley but Congress declined to underwrite this plan.

Letter To Rep. Cole

The President's letter, addressed to Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate-House Atomic energy committee, was released toward the end of a day in which Eisenhower forces won a big round in the Dixon-Yates fight. Democrats on the committee lost, 10-8, a move to bar immediate signing of the contract.

"It seems to me," the President wrote, "that there has been a very great deal of talk and argument—much of it partisan—about issues that are really clear and simple.

"No one in this administration has any intention of destroying or damaging TVA or of diminishing its effectiveness in any way.

"But this is not the same thing as fastening on the federal government a continuing and never-ending responsibility which I frankly do not believe is logical nor, in the long run, in the best interests of the country."

Read in the context of the whole letter, it was clear that by "responsibility" Eisenhower meant responsibility to build enerating plants and distribute public power.

Says One Truth Ignored

"It seems to me that all arguments for the construction by the federal government of the additional steam plants ignore this one and very important truth:" the President wrote.

"If the federal government assumes responsibility in perpetuity for providing the TVA area with all the power it can accept, generated by any means whatsoever, it has a similar responsibility with respect to every other area and region and corner of the United States of America."

Eisenhower said he is convinced that "we have not been alert enough in making certain of this equality of treatment."

"...there must either be some reexamination of any plans which would call for the federal government to supply all the additional needed in the future in the Tennessee Valley, or logically we would have to begin plans for a gigantic power development to cover the entire nation equitably," he wrote.

If such a massive public power development is to be the national policy, Eisenhower said, "it is most certainly a project that demands earnest and prayerful study."

The first congressional reaction came from Sen. Gore (D-Tenn), an outspoken foe of the Dixon-Yates contract. After Cole read the President's letter to the committee, Gore commented that the document "makes it plain that the whole purpose of the Dixon-Yates contract is to alter the TVA plan."

Gore said he interpreted it as meaning that Eisenhower "is now saying emphatically that he opposes any further growth in generating facilities by the TVA" and offers the Dixon-Yates contract as a substitute.

The Democratic attempt to delay the signing of the contract was beaten on straight party lines. The vote came on a resolution by Sen. Pastore (D-RI) to ask the AEC to withhold its signature from the contract until the next Congress convenes in January.

Perjury Charge Dismissed

Dorris Defense Motion Granted

B. VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

A perjury charge against Joseph W. Dorris, 27, of 1423 P, was dismissed by Lancaster District Judge Harry Spencer on a defense motion when the State's case was rested Tuesday in the jury trial.

Defense Atty. John McArthur moved for dismissal on grounds the state's evidence was not sufficient to establish the charge beyond a reasonable doubt. The motion was sustained by Judge Spencer.

In support of his motion, the attorney argued perjury cannot be proved merely by showing a defendant's unsworn statements were inconsistent with sworn statements made in court.

Four Witnesses

Dep. Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele called four witnesses in presentation of the state's case which alleged Dorris gave perjured testimony during his trial for negligent driving at Municipal Court on July 15.

Officer Ed Kringle and former City Prosecutor John Binning testified that Dorris' testimony in the lower court was that his taxicab was at a complete stop and was backed into by another vehicle in a June 27 accident.

Officer Kringle testified that in the accident investigation, Dorris told him that he was momentarily distracted by his passenger and had run into the rear of the other vehicle, stopped for a traffic signal.

He also testified to observing four to six feet of skid marks extending from the rear of Dorris' taxicab.

Thrown Forward

Ed Ostergren, the passenger in Dorris's cab, testified he was thrown forward in the cab by the impact. He was uncertain in his testimony as to circumstances just prior to impact.

Municipal Court Clerk Edwin Towle identified court records in the lower court trial in which Dorris was convicted of negligent driving and fined $10.

Driver of the other vehicle in the accident was not produced by the state in the perjury trial.

The perjury charge was the first to be filed in this county for approximately six years.

Reclamation Group Refuses To OK Ike's Policy

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The National Reclamation Association tabled Wednesday a resolution approving the Eisenhower administration's partnership policy of water and power development after being told it was "untimely."

Peterson

Harry W. Horton, El Centro, Calif., resolutions committeeman, offered the proposal after explaining that earlier the resolutions tabled a more detailed endorsement of the partnership policy.

Opposition quickly was expressed by L. E. Coles, Pineville, Ore., that the resolution was an "anti-climax" and that even though he favored the policy, many voters in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana had shown in last week's election that they did not.

Glenn G. Saunders, Denver, Colorado's member of the resolutions committee, then told the convention he considered the proposal "untimely" and after saying he did not want to see it either adopted or defeated, he moved to table the motion to approve.

Vote 11 To 5

By a vote of 11 to 5, with one state not voting, the motion, and therefore the resolution was tabled.

Tabling the resolution means in effect to kill it since it prevented further discussion at the current convention.

Dr. R. G. Gustavson, president of resources for the Future, Inc., Washington, D. C., told the association that notions first entertained that sources of atomic energy were limited "are being entirely dispelled."

He said that because of the large amount of energy found in uranium, and potentially in thorium, it is now calculated that it could be profitable to extract uranium and thorium from nearly all granites, even when found in a ration of only 20 parts per million.

Former NU Head

On the other hand, Dr. Gustavson, former chancellor of the University of Nebraska, said a still unsolved facet of the atomic energy operation is disposal of radioactive wastes.

C. Petrus Peterson of Lincoln, Neb., was elected president of the association for a fourth term.

Cops Balk On Bremmer Case Story

SIOUX CITY (AP) — Sioux City police Wednesday night said they were "skeptical" that an escaped patient from the Mental Health Institute at Cherokee had killed young Jimmie Bremmer here this fall.

The patient, Lyle Walter Palmer, 36, was held in Portland, Ore., on a "Peeping Tom" conviction.

Detective Robert McKeown of the Portland Police Department said Palmer told him Wednesday that he killed the Bremmer boy and a woman at Sioux City.

Police here have no record of the woman's death.

Detective Chief Harry Gibbons said he had a telephone conversation with Palmer and McKeown and that there were several discrepencies in the story told by Palmer in connection with the Bremmer case.

Jimmie, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bremmer, disappeared from his home Aug. 31 and his body was found in a field outside of Sioux City on Sept. 29.

Gibbons said there was no plan to send a detective to Portland, but if Palmer was returned to Cherokee he would be questioned there.

Rumors Blasted

HYANNISPORT, Mass. (INS)—Joseph P. Kennedy, former ambassador to Great Britain, blasted Washington rumors that his son, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), will never resume his seat because of the seriousness of his illness.

The elder Kennedy issued a statement to the New Bedford Standard-Times in which he said: "My son, U.S. Senator John F. Kennedy, is making good progress after his recent operation and is in no danger."

Canvass Shows Bedford Won 23rd

GENEVA, Neb. (AP)—Official canvassed figures released Wednesday indicated Mervin V. Bedford, retired Geneva businessman and farm operator, has won the 23rd legislative district seat from Dr. C. C. Lillibridge, Crete.

Fillmore county clerk Willard H. Foster said official totals in his county and those reported by Joe Rippa, Saline County clerk, gave Bedford 4,251 votes to 4,238 for Lillibridge, the incumbent.

Four mail votes in Saline County have come in since the canvass and cannot be counted until next Friday. There is also a possibility of one additional mail vote in each county, Foster said. These, however, are not enough to change the result.

In Fillmore county, present official totals show Bedford received 2,281 votes there compared with 1,194 for Lillibridge. In Saline county, Lillibridge received 3,044 to 1,970 for Bedford.

Air Force Grounds F100 Jets

. . . 3 Crashes Probed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force said Wednesday it has grounded all F100 supersonic jet fighters as a result of three crashes, including one in which a British air officer was killed.

A spokesman said the grounding pending completion of thorough investigations" into the causes of the crashes.

Air Commodore Geoffrey D. Stephenson, commandant of the Central Fighter Establishment of the Royal Air Force and former aid de camp to Queen Elizabeth, was killed Monday at Eglin Air Force Base, Florida, when the F-100 he was flying crashed after going into a steep spiral.

Tuesday, the Air Force also said, another crash occurred at Edwards Air Force Base, California. The pilot of that plane, Maj. Frank N. Emory of Mount Vernon, Wash., parachuted with only minor injuries. This accident occurred while Emory was engaged in gunnery practice.

North American

The first of the series of crashes occurred on Oct. 12 when an F-100 flown by Chief Test Pilot George Welch of North American Aviation Co. crashed near Lancaster, Calif.

Welch was killed in the crash.

The F100 holds the accepted world's top speed record of 755.249 m.p.h., set by Lt. Col. F. K. (Pete) Everest at Salton Sea, Calif., Oct. 29, 1953.

The F100s are produced by North American.

The first deliveries on the 800 mile per hour jets, newest of the Air Force interceptor planes, began only last week. About a dozen were turned over then to a unit at George Air Force Base near Victorville, Calif.

The F100 is a large fighter, 45 feet long with 36 foot wing span. It is powered by a J57 engine.

The Air Force did not disclose how many of the F100s actually were involved in the grounding, although the number obviously was limited because deliveries had only begun. The Air Force is reported to be planning to buy about 1,000 of them.

Anderson Won't Have Time To Make Speeches

Don't look for much speech-making by Nebraska's Gov.Elect Victor E. Anderson — at least for a while.

"Budget hearings and other matters of state business will require my full time for at least the next few months," Anderson said.

"For this reason it will not be possible for me to accept speaking engagements at various meetings during this time.

"I believe the governor should devote the major part of his time to his office in the state capitol to look after the business of state.

"During this time I shall be glad to hear from all who are interested in public affairs and the common problems, progress and prosperity of Nebraska."

Anderson is sitting in on Gov. Robert Crosby's budget hearings which began this week and which are expected to last about six weeks.

Commission Favors 48th ZoningChange

The City Planning Commission, after a lengthy hearing, voted unanimously in favor of extending the local business zoning along 48th south of Normal clear to Van Dorn.

Petitions both for and against the zoning had been presented to the Commission. Applicants for the change, Mrs. Zillah D. Eden on the west side of 48th and Jennings B. Hagerty on the east side, were represented by Attorney Lloyd Marti.

Marti asserted that the proposed change was a natural business development. He showed plans for development of a small integrated shopping center on the east side of the street and for construction of a $250,000 to $350,000 Safeway store on the west side at Van Dorn.

The change was protested by Emil G. Glaser who lives on property he owns at the northeast corner of 48th and Van Dorn. While not a part of the application, Glaser's property was also zoned for business.

Glaser, who presented a petition in opposition to the change, asserted that the zoning would increase traffic hazards to children going and coming from school and would depreciate the value of surrounding residential property.

Other Commission action:

Requested change in zoning from B two-family to local commercial at the northwest corner of Touzalin and Adams, denied.

Requested change in zoning from rural and public use to highway commercial of property north of Cornhusker Hwy. and east of 33rd, approved.

Permit to use property at the southwest corner of 21st and L for off-street parking, approved.

Plat of Country Club Plaza addition from Stockwell to St. Thomas Dr. west of Bonacum Ave., approved.

'Fixing' Probed

NEW YORK (AP) — A policeman was suspended and held in high bail along with four other men as authorities cracked down on a clever traffic ticket fixing racket said to involve at least 100 cops.

One of those held as material witnesses was found to have bank accounts and other assets amounting to nearly $100,000, Asst. Dist. Atty. Julius Helfand said.

Rumors Blasted

HYANNISPORT, Mass. (INS)— Joseph P. Kennedy, former ambassador to Great Britain, blasted Washington rumors that his son, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), will never resume his seat because of the seriousness of his illness.

The elder Kennedy issued a statement to the New Bedford Standard-Times in which he said: "My son, U.S. Senator John F. Kennedy, is making good progress after his recent operation and is in no danger."

Canvass Shows Bedford Won 23rd

GENEVA, Neb. (AP)—Official canvassed figures released Wednesday indicated Mervin V. Bedford, retired Geneva businessman and farm operator, has won the 23rd legislative district seat from Dr. C. C. Lillibridge, Crete.

Fillmore county clerk Willard H. Foster said official totals in his county and those reported by Joe Rippa, Saline County clerk, gave Bedford 4,251 votes to 4,238 for Lillibridge, the incumbent.

Four mail votes in Saline County have come in since the canvass and cannot be counted until next Friday. There is also a possibility of one additional mail vote in each county, Foster said. These, however, are not enough to change the result.

In Fillmore county, present official totals show Bedford received 2,281 votes there compared with 1,194 for Lillibridge. In Saline county, Lillibridge received 3,044 to 1,970 for Bedford.

Air Force Grounds F100 Jets

. . . 3 Crashes Probed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force said Wednesday it has grounded all F100 supersonic jet fighters as a result of three crashes, including one in which a British air officer was killed.

A spokesman said the grounding pending completion of thorough investigations" into the causes of the crashes.

Air Commodore Geoffrey D. Stephenson, commandant of the Central Fighter Establishment of the Royal Air Force and former aid de camp to Queen Elizabeth, was killed Monday at Eglin Air Force Base, Florida, when the F-100 he was flying crashed after going into a steep spiral.

Tuesday, the Air Force also said, another crash occurred at Edwards Air Force Base, California. The pilot of that plane, Maj. Frank N. Emory of Mount Vernon, Wash., parachuted with only minor injuries. This accident occurred while Emory was engaged in gunnery practice.

North American

The first of the series of crashes occurred on Oct. 12 when an F-100 flown by Chief Test Pilot George Welch of North American Aviation Co. crashed near Lancaster, Calif.

Welch was killed in the crash.

The F100 holds the accepted world's top speed record of 755.249 m.p.h., set by Lt. Col. F. K. (Pete) Everest at Salton Sea, Calif., Oct. 29, 1953.

The F100s are produced by North American.

The first deliveries on the 800 mile per hour jets, newest of the Air Force interceptor planes, began only last week. About a dozen were turned over then to a unit at George Air Force Base near Victorville, Calif.

The F100 is a large fighter, 45 feet long with 36 foot wing span. It is powered by a J57 engine.

The Air Force did not disclose how many of the F100s actually were involved in the grounding, although the number obviously was limited because deliveries had only begun. The Air Force is reported to be planning to buy about 1,000 of them.

Anderson Won't Have Time To Make Speeches

Don't look for much speechmaking by Nebraska's Gov.Elect Victor E. Anderson — at least for a while.

"Budget hearings and other matters of state business will require my full time for at least the next few months," Anderson said.

"For this reason it will not be possible for me to accept speaking engagements at various meetings during this time.

"I believe the governor should devote the major part of his time to his office in the state capitol to look after the business of state.

"During this time I shall be glad to hear from all who are interested in public affairs and the common problems, progress and prosperity of Nebraska."

Anderson is sitting in on Gov. Robert Crosby's budget hearings which began this week and which are expected to last about six weeks.

Commission Favors 48th ZoningChange

The City Planning Commission, after a lengthy hearing, voted unanimously in favor of extending the local business zoning along 48th south of Normal clear to Van Dorn.

Petitions both for and against the zoning had been presented to the Commission. Applicants for the change, Mrs. Zillah D. Eden on the west side of 48th and Jennings B. Hagerty on the east side, were represented by Attorney Lloyd Marti.

Marti asserted that the proposed change was a natural business development. He showed plans for development of a small integrated shopping center on the east side of the street and for construction of a $250,000 to $350,000 Safeway store on the west side at Van Dorn.

The change was protested by Emil G. Glaser who lives on property he owns at the northeast corner of 48th and Van Dorn. While not a part of the application, Glaser's property was also zoned for business.

Glaser, who presented a petition in opposition to the change, asserted that the zoning would increase traffic hazards to children going and coming from school and would depreciate the value of surrounding residential property.

Other Commission action:

Requested change in zoning from B two-family to local commercial at the northwest corner of Touzalin and Adams, denied.

Requested change in zoning from rural and public use to highway commercial of property north of Cornhusker Hwy. and east of 33rd, approved.

Permit to use property at the southwest corner of 21st and L for off-street parking, approved.

Plat of Country Club Plaza addition from Stockwell to St. Thomas Dr. west of Bonacum Ave., approved.

Vacation of the north-south alley from Touzalin to 60th, Judson to Gladstone, approved.

Highlight of the evening was the cutting of the cake and reading of the annual message from the commandant, Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd Jr.

Lt. Col. C. E. Kollman cut and offered the first piece of cake to the oldest Marine present, Master Sergeant T. O. Merchant Jr., who's served in the Corps for 18½ years.

Capt. Roger Barnard read the birthday message.

Colonel Warns Jets To Add 'Noise Factor' To Lincoln

Col. William F. Coleman, new commander of the 98th Bomb Wing at the Lincoln Air Force Base Tuesday warned that his jet aircrift will add a noise factor to Lincoln life.

But he offered assurance that "this problem" and others affecting personnel, equipment and community safety and convenience would be minimized in a spirit of full co-operation.

Col. Coleman referred to the approaching arrival of the wing's 45 new B-47's which will be in full action by next March while the 98th goes forward in a full combat readiness program.

More Noise

"There can be no use denying," he said, "that jet aircraft, especially those as large as the B-47's have a greater noise factor than propellor driven planes.

But he added that it would be reduced by plans to divert takeoffs from over city routes and to fly over Lincoln only when necessary. He said, too, that such flights as were required to pass over Lincoln would be at considerable altitude.

Col. Coleman said the air base's new north-south runway will move the traffic pattern farther away from Lincoln.

He complimented Lincoln for its gratifying interest in the base and its operation and said he felt assured that any joint problems that arise will be solved in the same spirit of co-operation that has been shown heretofore.

The 98th Wing, moving by stages from Yakota, Japan, to Lincoln, and converting from B-29's to B-47's en route, will converge on Lincoln from various flight training centers early in December.

In addition, according to Col. Coleman, the 98th Air Refueling Squadron is combat ready, the 307th still in training and will remain in control of the 98th until personnel of the 307th Bomb Wing arrive and assume control.

Prior to assuming command of the 98th Wing here this week, Col. Coleman was deputy commander of the 22nd Bomb Wing at March AFB, California.

Miss McNeal Is Champeen Sity Speler

A grueling half hour verbal battle was haited on the word "abscess."

And then Margery McNeal of the Union College Academy spelled it and without the slightest bit of nervousness she spelled "psychology" to capture the Lincoln intra-city spelling bee crown. The runner-up was Dolores Booth of Cathedral High School who stood up to Miss McNeal for a half hour after 10 other contestants failed on some tough words.

The winner will receive a portable typewriter and the second place award winner received a table model radio.

The entire contest was finished in one hour and a quarter as spelling master Glenn Turner, county superintendent of schools shot the words at the contestants.

Only One Boy

A lone boy was represented from entries at six schools. He was David Young of Northeast High School who placed ninth.

More than 100 persons attended the contest at the Lincoln High School.

Some of the words which confounded the high school spellers were specimen, liquefy, optimist, receptacle, endeavor, irritable, hydrogen, indefinite, and monastery.

STAMFORD, Conn. (AP)—Excited office workers in a downtown building reported to police that a woman was about to jump from a nearby roof. Emergency vehicles screeched to the scene. Crowds gathered. Hann Gets Praised By Sheriff Tesar

WILBER, Neb.—Saline County Sheriff John Tesar has written a letter to State Sen. Thomas Dredla praising the operation of the Penitentiary under Warden Herbert Hann.

Hann's administration of the prison has come under fire from a special committee investigating state institutions at the request of Gov. Robert Crosby.

Sheriff Tesar said: "You (Dredla) have been county attorney in my county, you know what you have sent to the Penitentiary. I know what I have hauled into there in the past 12 years. Hook, Line And Sinker

One of the staff men of the Christian Science Monitor, Harlan Strout, eyeing the Midwest since the congressional election, comes to the conclusion that contrary to the widespread general interpretation of the vote in rural areas, the Midwest farmer did not swallow the Benson farm program hook, line and sinker.

This Midwest farmer, Strout concludes, is only marking time and the real decisive hour in his political thinking will come in the next two years.

Strout may be right. In Minnesota and Wisconsin, for example, the farm vote reflected a deep concern over the farmer's economic position. There dairying and poultry figured largely. Likewise upstate New York, traditionally and staunchly Republican, did not come up with its customary majorities and the defection there could be attributed to some extent to the same factor. Even in Indiana, Ohio and Illinois, the normal rural vote offsetting a traditional Democratic victory in the big cities, failed to measure up to snuff.

It was only in Iowa and in the states to the west of the Missouri where the farm issue failed to show any clearcut opposition to the Benson program. Here in these states, some of the experts insist, the real test will arise in 1955 and 1956 in the trend of farm prices and in other developments affecting the farm home.

$300 An Acre

What is the importance of irrigation to rural Nebraska?

Recently there appeared in the news columns a story telling of the sale of a Phelps County quarter section of land a mile east and seven miles north of Holdrege for $47,000, just under $300 per acre. The entire farm is eligible for irrigation water, and only 27 of the 160 acres is not under irrigation at the present time.

The sale price is the highest ever known to have been paid for Phelps County land. It comes close to the peak of farm land prices in Nebraska throughout the state's history, even during the "boom-and-bust period of the 'twenties when the speculative fever got out of control.

Here, however, is something entirely different.

A price of $300 an acre for a farm, the entire acreage eligible for irrigation water and all but 27 acres of it now under irrigation, is not a gamble or a speculation. Thanks to irrigation, there is the assurance that, come rain or shine, deluge or heat and drought, that farm will produce a maximum harvest year after year. The more we expand irrigation in this state, not only in the central and western portions but in the eastern counties as well where irrigation is feasible, we add tremendously to the value of farm land. The purchaser in this case was a Ft. Collins man, a resident of a magnificently irrigated region with a full knowledge of what irrigation actually means in this western country.

There is the assurance year after year of a dependable harvest. There is the added insurance that through the application of water at least some time during the growing season, average acre yields will be increased substantially. There is the opportunity for greater diversification of the farm program. Finally, in the trend towards larger and larger farming operations, irrigation serves as a counter-force to reverse the current trend and to return farming to what is called the family-size farm. Any farmer has his hands full in taking care of 160 acres of irrigated land with the help of his sturdy sons.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

At least two of the 96 members of the United States Senate were in rare form when that august body began consideration of a recommendation that Sen. Joe McCarthy should be censured. One was Sen. McCarthy himself. Hardly had the revised resolution of censure and condemnation been filed with the Senate than the fiery Wisconsin legislator struck back with the charge that the Senate committee which had drafted the resolution was an "unwitting handmaiden" of the Communist party.

★

It would seem, again unwittingly, that the first time McCarthy opened his mouth, he provided his countrymen with a measure of his stature. There are limitations to Senate debate. It must observe the most decorous, gentlemanly language. Reduced to the utmost simplicity, what McCarthy was telling his colleagues is that the "six boys" who served on that committee did not know what it was all about, did not know the time of day, and because of their complete ignorance of the struggle between the free and slave worlds, had become the unconscious stooges of Moscow. In effect, Joe was saying to his colleagues—the members of the Watkins committee and such members of the Senate, long-suffering and patient, who had a different view of things from McCarthy himself. "You guys are out of step!" If additional evidence was needed that McCarthy in his own thinking had established himself as prosecutor, judge and jury in this matter of patriotism and loyalty, conscious or unconscious, the poorly-veiled contempt in which he held the committee's findings furnished it.

Everybody Out Of Step

Scarcely less startling was the quick comeback of Utah's Republican Sen. Watkins, chairman of the committee. He told Sen. McCarthy that if a neutral were to be found to pass upon censure, that individual would have to be "deaf, dumb, blind and moronic." Fascinating as all this may be in the form of classic repartee, possibly the time has arrived for the vice president, presiding over the Senate deliberations, to bang the gavel and cry out in stern tone: "Gentlemen! Gentlemen!"

★

What the United States Senate may need in the next few days in addition to a serious sense of responsibility is a refreshing sense of humor. In that opening barrage. Brother McCarthy came very close to shooting the works. Here is one sentence taken from the Associated Press report: "Describing himself 'as the symbol of resistance to Communist subversion.' McCarthy asserted that 'the nation's fate is in some respects tied' to his own fate." If that be true, then upon what a slender reed we lean! Imagine it! Here is a powerful nation of 160 million men, women and children, the richest nation in the world, equipped with the greatest industrial plant the world has known, boasting of the greatest agriculture, a nation whose fate is tied to the issue of whether Sen. McCarthy is censured or not. It is not to decry or to minimize the importance of what is taking place in the Senate of the United States at this time. Obviously what is taking place is much more important than Sen. McCarthy recognizes. And this controversy as to whether to censure him or not was an inevitable struggle if conceptions of the rights of free men long rooted in this country were to continue to endure. By his own statement to his colleagues, we have it straight from the horse's mouth that the issue before the Senate concerns the fate of one indispensable man in this country.

Destiny Rides With Joe

It is uncertain how much of the country's valuable time and energy will be consumed with this kind of stuff. We have the notion that most of the American people, the overwhelming majority of them, will go quietly about their daily tasks in common-sense spirit and with their feet solidly on the ground. Sen. McCarthy has nursed upon the public's emotions about as long as nature permits.

Refresher Course

Washington University, St. Louis, has set aside four days next February, including the birthdate of the nation's first President, for a convocation of world leaders. The theme will be the blessings of liberty. Nothing could be more timely. At a moment in history when new instruments have been placed in man's hands for the greatest advance in both freedom and liberty, the very instruments themselves, ill-used, can easily destroy both. Nothing could be more useful under such critical circumstances than a profound refresher courses on how to proceed and exactly why.

Unused Facilities

America is proud of and clings to its traditions of free education. They aim high and have brought the country along famously.

But the Denver Post, turning its editorial attention to the current observance of National Education Week, raises the question of the continuing validity of some of the most deeply seated traditions.

It specifically questions the good sense of the nine-month school year and the five-day week, noting that the "American people have invested billions of dollars in facilities that are unused approximately 40 per cnet of the time, not counting Sundays and holidays."

The Post is thinking about the expected 43 per cent increase in students in the next six years which will require an additional investment of $171 million in buildings by 1960 if these children are to be accommodated, traditional school schedules being continued. It is asking whether it would not be prudent to employ some of the present 40 per cent time and facility loss—run schools 12 months a year, six days a week with attendance dovetailed in to fit.

Colorado's problem of educational growth exists in Nebraska as it does in every other state in this growing nation. The Post's suggestion obviously is not a piece of finished thinking. But, nevertheless, it is a piece of nontraditional thinking and warrants detailed attention before it is waved away.

UNIVAC Flunked

Of all the successful and unsuccessful candidates for fame in the recent election, there was one that ran unopposed, and was defeated, and almost ignored afterward, albeit unopposed defeat is really news.

It was UNIVAC, the electronic brain, the brightest child of science and this bright new atomic age, the cold precise thinker—old never-miss.

UNIVAC with all of its flashing colored lights, its chattering mechanism, tripped through heaps of election figures and tossed out prophecies right and left—missing on nearly every one of them. It was outguessed even by precinct amateurs.

Our guess is that UNIVAC is suffering the same handicap that plagues human minds, namely the necessity of processing what is fed into it whether it belongs or not—a matter of feeding hamburger in and getting hamburger out—not chicken pie. The parsdox is that if we learn how to feed the right evidence into UNIVAC, we won't need it. Under such circumstances the human brain, which is still the best in the business, will do a better job much faster.

Republicans Wooing Like-Minded Demos

WASHINGTON — The Democrats may have a harder time keeping their hairbreadth majority in the Senate than anyone realizes.

When the Senate reconvened for the special McCarthy censure session, Charles E. Daniel, interim Democratic senator from South Carolina, a close friend of Ike's friend, Jimmie Byrnes, was having his picture taken with vice president Nixon.

"I want you to know," he beamed, "that you can count on me. I want to work with you in every way possible.

"And the man who's coming up to succeed me is the same way," he added, referring to senator-elect Strom Thurmond."

"You can work with him, too."

"That's fine," enthused Nixon. "When he comes, you send him around to me. We'll give him a royal welcome."

New Citizens

Two hundred and fifty new American citizens gather in the inter-department auditorium in Washington today to take what for them is a momentous oath. To millions of others it will pass by unnoticed. But to these 250, plus other groups around the U.S.A., it will be one of their most important steps since birth.

For they will renounce their allegiance to one country and take an oath of allegiance to a new. Today they become citizens of the United States.

This ceremony takes place about once a month without most native Americans paying much attention to it. In New York today, 8,000 new citizens take the oath; other groups in other cities.

And while it will attract no headlines, the Women's Bar Association, the Advertising Council, the Sertoma clubs, and other public-spirited organizations are co-operating to solemnify the occasion and welcome these new Americans.

Today, for instance, the Advertising Council in Washington will present each new citizen with Arthur Goodfriend's stirring book "What is America?" while the Sertoma Club (service to mankind) will present copies of the Declaration of Independence. Unfortunately, funds were not available to make a similar presentation to the 8,000 taking the oath of citizenship in New York.

On previous occasions, the DAR, B'Nai B'rith and other groups have entertained the new citizens at small receptions immediately after the naturalization ceremony in a quiet, unpublicized, constructive type of citizenship which will prevent Communism far more than the witch-hunting scaremongering of Joe McCarthy.

And Then Dignity Lost Its Balance

Dignity is a quality which some men and all pouter pigeons possess.

It is not a quality for which my family is noteworthy. Of course I myself attempt to maintain a certain innate, stately dignity at all times, setting an example for my wife and children, but the odds against me would drive a weaker man to complete breakdown. I get by with just bruises.

The bruises are not my fault at all. I keep telling Mrs. F. that they are the shameful result of a complete lack of dignity by members of the household, notably herself. My scolding makes no impression whatever. She argues that heroism is better than dignity. I do not have the heart to tell her that it was not heroism—it was just the inability to get my feet moving.

What happened was that we were going to the motion picture theater, and decided to walk because the evening was so brisk, clear and invigorating. It was also cold. Our daughter and son Merilee and Lee, walked ahead of us. They were in high good spirits. Teenage high spirits and dignity do not go together.

Merilee hopped up on a retaining wall and balanced her way along it, arms waving like a railroad signal. Lee skittered back and forth across the sidewalk, looking for icy spots to slide on. I slowed my steps, and by necessity so did Mrs. F., to drop back so that we would not look like we all belonged together. It did no good. Lee and Merilee just slowed down, too.

I summoned my best dignity.

"You children must stop that," I declared. "The neighbors will think we're all a lot of wild Indians!"

"Gosh," Merrilee protested, "this is fun!"

"Do you want people to think your mother and I haven't taught you any dignity at all?" I demanded. Then I caught sight of Mrs. F., to whom for the moment I had not been paying attention.

☆ ☆ ☆

She was tiptoeing precariously along the six-inch rim of the retaining wall, arms flailing for balance.

"I haven't done this for a long time," she chortled. "Bet you can't do it!"

I summoned all the dignity I possess for a scathing reply. I said, "No, and I do not intend to try it! A woman your age - - -! And besides, you're liable to hit an icy spot—"

She did. Her feet skidded, her arms waved and her balance disappeared. She seemed to do a sort of somersault in the air. When she came down, it was where I stood. I couldn't dodge fast enough.

The neighbors came out of their front door just then. Mrs. F. beamed at them and said, "It's a nice night for skating, isn't it?" I said nothing. It is not a time for conversation when you are flat on the sidewalk and your wife is sitting on your stomach.

When the cards are stacked against you like that, you wonder sometimes if dignity is worth the effort. Or if it is even possible.

Dixon-Yates-TVA Issue A Major One

WASHINGTON—Republican politicians with an eye on 1956 have moved into the Dixon-Yates picture. They are warning the White House that the controversial private power contract proved to be pay dirt for the Democrats during the last campaign and that the end is not in sight.

This was the situation behind the scenes as public hearings of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy continued to furnish a forum for opponents of the contract.

Technically the contract is not before the committee and cannot be until after it has been signed by the Atomic Energy Commission and representatives of the Dixon-Yates interests. The congressional committee has asked for the signed contract and has been put off from day to day.

The commissioners have the power to sign the contract. All that is required now is for them and for the President to summon up the nerve to go on with it in view of the consequences that may ensue.

What has been added since Nov. 2 last is the sure knowledge now being urged on the White House that it is an effective political issue. The most striking evidence comes from Oregon where Richard Neuberger beat the veteran incumbent, Sen. Guy Cordon, who as chairman of the Interior Department Appropriations Subcommittee had channeled huge sums of federal money into the development of the Northwest.

But what surprised the campaigning politicians is that Dixon-Yates registered as an issue in areas apart from those where public power dams have been built. In their own discussions they suggest that the big trouble is no no one has come forward to claim authorship of the plan. It is not, politicians believe, what was attempted but how it was attempted that is chiefly at fault.

It may be, too, that new headlines about the arguments within the Atomic Energy Commission will attract President Eisenhower's attention. They are based on the public testimony of Commissioner Thomas Murray that AEC is being distracted from its sober and critical primary mission by being drawn into the Dixon-Yates fray.

This same point was made in a letter to the budget director last spring, signed by Commissioners Smythe and Zuckert, both now resigned. There is grave doubt that this letter reached the President as he stated at a press conference that he did not accept the premise that a commission majority opposes the contract last spring.

It is an argument to which responsible members of Congress and the public must pay attention, whatever their feelings about public power and the future of TVA.

Democrats are not at all sure they can stop the contract if the President determines to proceed with it. They think they might be able to pass legislation to stop it but should the President veto that, they would expect Republicans to rally behind him and make it impossible to get the two-thirds majority necessary to pass a bill over a presidential veto.

What they might try to do is to increase TVA appropriations so it could build new steam plants and run competition to Dixon-Yates.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Tired Turkey-Watcher Retires

By ALLEN EDEE
Star Staff Writer

Reformatory guards and inmates have one common like—a fat, lazy tan and white hound called Bowser.

Everyone feeds him and in return—well, Bowser does nothing.

Five years ago for some reason Bowser gave up watching turkeys on a turkey farm west of the reformatory. It evidently was too much trouble to get up with the turkeys and listen all day long to their gobbledy-gook.

Bowser's reformatory life has become routine. He will await each lineup for prisoner chow line by the metal door and watch the inmates pass, hoping for a pat or a friendly word.

Then he will transfer his broad allegiance to a guard by following him around. And when the thought of exercise perchance overtakes him, he will go out into the fenced-in yard and play with the inmates.

The canine makes it clear that he knows no tricks, has no intention of learning any, and just wants to eat and sleep.

When evening comes, Bowser will head for the front office at the reformatory. There he will start his nightly sleep.

The Stay-At-Home

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The type of individual mentioned in the following verse may be found in all walks of life. His name is "Grouch," the know-all, yet accomplishes nothing. He is the embodiment of arrogance and self-righteousness.

I met a man the other morn,
With scowling face and all forlorn
Said I, "My friend, why so glum?"
Quick came the answer, "Are you dumb?"

"Perhaps you have not heard the news,
Enough to give the world the blues,
The Democrats have won again,
That's what I call a downright shame."

Said I, "My friend, how did you vote?
And how much thought did you devote
Before you hit the ballot trail
To halt the cause you now bewail?"

"Alas," said he, "I hate to say
I stayed at home election day
And now my cup is filled with gall
Because I did not vote at all."

And so, my friends, my story's told.
Not new, of course, but somewhat old,
The man who has the most to say
Lacks action on life's great highway.

Who Will Buy It?

Hastings, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: There is one thing that stands out like a wart on a man's nose—the utter failure of Eisenhower and Nixon to impress the voter with his bounden duty to elect a Republican Congress. The billingsgate of Nixon that the election of a Democratic Congress would mean the reinstatement of Communists on governmental payrolls failed to alarm anybody.

But the giveaways of our national resources have come to an end. The raiding hands of predatory interests under the cry of "free enterprise" have been paralyzed in the election of a Democratic Congress. Nebraskans have had no part in staying those hands. Those resources could be spirited away so far as the Nebraska electorate is concerned.

But the Nebraska farmer who was lifted up out of the morass of despair where Franklin D. Roosevelt found him has forgotten those days. Charlie Bryan could best describe him as the fellow who "never voted a Democratic ticket until he faced bankruptcy." That farmer has been placed beyond the helping hand of any Democratic Congress. No matter now to what depths his parity payments may fall, the Democratic Congress cannot help him, for there stands Eisenhower with his veto. The Benson plan has but one great purpose—that of weeding out a million small farmers. What to do with them? One answer is to "send them to town to learn furniture making." Considering the way they vote, maybe that is where they belong. But with a million fewer farmers on the farm to buy furniture and a million more hands making it, where will we find a market for the furniture?

A Correction

Axtell, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: My thanks to The Star for the write-ups on me as senator-elect from the 31st District. May I correct one inaccuracy for the record. A phone interview is not the most satisfactory, especially with a poor connection and a country party line such as ours, so perhaps the misunderstanding was mutual.

My campaign promise was an open mind and fair consideration of all questions, my opinion being that more people are needed who will give consideration to all matters. I have said on numerous occasions that I do not intend to introduce "bill after bill." I have no ax to grind. This should not be construed to mean that I will introduce no bills. I reserve the right to introduce any bills that will seem necessary according to my responsibilities toward my district, but I feel reasonably sure that the total number will be considerably fewer than the number introduced by most senators.

I did have some complications from the mistake made (and corrected) stating that I was a Democrat. Many people did not read the correction.

A Difficult Job

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: It seems since our territorial days that the average tenure of office of the warden of the State Penitentiary is less than four years, with the exception of the distinguished Billy Fenton.

About so long and the wolf pack of headline hunters and conniving politicians are after the warden's scalp, and they get it, too. Qualified and able men have left the job branded as incapable, inefficient and sometimes branded as crooks. This isn't a Sunday school superintendent's job and the pressure is on 24 hours a day seven days a week, operating on a tight-fisted budget where 70 and 75-year-old guards are in the majority, which also adds to the pressure. Then every flare-up is spread across the state's newspapers. These things are bound to occur in any well-regulated prison. The best that can be done is to keep them at a minimum. Surrounding states have had much worse conditions this year, especially Missouri.

The writer operated the prison dining room in the early "forties and has a good inside picture of the warden's almost impossible job, and knows what all this publicity does to prison morale.

Let's support him and give him co-operation to make it a better institution.

Hook, Line And Sinker

One of the staff men of the Christian Science Monitor, Harlan Strout, eyeing the Midwest since the congressional election, comes to the conclusion that contrary to the widespread general interpretation of the vote in rural areas, the Midwest farmer did not swallow the Benson farm program hook, line and sinker.

This Midwest farmer, Strout concludes, is only marking time and the real decisive hour in his political thinking will come in the next two years.

Strout may be right. In Minnesota and Wisconsin, for example, the farm vote reflected a deep concern over the farmer's economic position. There dairying and poultry figured largely. Likewise upstate New York, traditionally and staunchly Republican, did not come up with its customary majorities and the defection there could be attributed to some extent to the same factor. America is proud of and clings to its traditions of free education. They aim high and have brought the country along famously.

But the Denver Post, turning its editorial attention to the current observance of National Education Week, raises the question of the continuing validity of some of the most deeply seated traditions.

It specifically questions the good sense of the nine-month school year and the five-day week, noting that the "American people have invested billions of dollars in facilities that are unused approximately 40 per cnet of the time, not counting Sundays and holidays."

The Post is thinking about the expected 43 per cent increase in students in the next six years which will require an additional investment of $171 million in buildings by 1960 if these children are to be accommodated, traditional school schedules being continued. It is asking whether it would not be prudent to employ some of the present 40 per cent time and facility loss—run schools 12 months a year, six days a week with attendance dovetailed in to fit.

Colorado's problem of educational growth exists in Nebraska as it does in every other state in this growing nation. The Post's suggestion obviously is not a piece of finished thinking. But, nevertheless, it is a piece of non-traditional thinking and warrants detailed attention before it is waved away.

UNIVAC Flunked

Of all the successful and unsuccessful candidates for fame in the recent election, there was one that ran unopposed, and was defeated, and almost ignored afterward, albeit unopposed defeat is really news.

It was UNIVAC, the electronic brain, the brightest child of science and this bright new atomic age, the cold precise thinker—old never-miss.

UNIVAC with all of its flashing colored lights, its chattering mechanism, tripped through heaps of election figures and tossed out prophecies right and left—missing on nearly every one of them. It was outguessed even by precinct amateurs.

Our guess is that UNIVAC is suffering the same handicap that plagues human minds, namely the necessity of processing what is fed into it whether it belongs or not—a matter of feeding hamburger in and getting hamburger out—not chicken pie. The parsdox is that if we learn how to feed the right evidence into UNIVAC, we won't need it. Under such circumstances the human brain, which is still the best in the business, will do a better job much faster.

Republicans Wooing Like-Minded Demos

WASHINGTON — The Democrats may have a harder time keeping their hairbreadth majority in the Senate than anyone realizes.

When the Senate reconvened for the special McCarthy censure session, Charles E. Daniel, interim Democratic senator from South Carolina, a close friend of Ike's friend, Jimmie Byrnes, was having his picture taken with vice president Nixon.

"I want you to know," he beamed, "that you can count on me. I want to work with you in every way possible.

"And the man who's coming up to succeed me is the same way," he added, referring to senator-elect Strom Thurmond."

"You can work with him, too."

"That's fine," enthused Nixon. "When he comes, you send him around to me. We'll give him a royal welcome."

New Citizens

Two hundred and fifty new American citizens gather in the inter-department auditorium in Washington today to take what for them is a momentous oath. To millions of others it will pass by unnoticed. But to these 250, plus other groups around the U.S.A., it will be one of their most important steps since birth.

For they will renounce their allegiance to one country and take an oath of allegiance to a new. Today they become citizens of the United States.

This ceremony takes place about once a month without most native Americans paying much attention to it. In New York today, 8,000 new citizens take the oath; other groups in other cities.

And while it will attract no headlines, the Women's Bar Association, the Advertising Council, the Sertoma clubs, and other public-spirited organizations are co-operating to solemnify the occasion and welcome these new Americans.

Today, for instance, the Advertising Council in Washington will present each new citizen with Arthur Goodfriend's stirring book "What is America?" while the Sertoma Club (service to mankind) will present copies of the Declaration of Independence. Unfortunately, funds were not available to make a similar presentation to the 8,000 taking the oath of citizenship in New York.

On previous occasions, the DAR, B'Nai B'rith and other groups have entertained the new citizens at small receptions immediately after the naturalization ceremony in a quiet, unpublicized, constructive type of citizenship which will prevent Communism far more than the witch-hunting scaremongering of Joe McCarthy.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Tired Turkey-Watcher Retires

By ALLEN EDEE
Star Staff Writer

Reformatory guards and inmates have one common like—a fat, lazy tan and white hound called Bowser.

Everyone feeds him and in return—well, Bowser does nothing.

Five years ago for some reason Bowser gave up watching turkeys on a turkey farm west of the reformatory. It evidently was too much trouble to get up with the turkeys and listen all day long to their gobbledy-gook.

Bowser's reformatory life has become routine. He will await each lineup for prisoner chow line by the metal door and watch the inmates pass, hoping for a pat or a friendly word.

Then he will transfer his broad allegiance to a guard by following him around. And when the thought of exercise perchance overtakes him, he will go out into the fenced-in yard and play with the inmates.

☆ ☆ ☆

The canine makes it clear that he knows no tricks, has no intention of learning any, and just wants to eat and sleep.

When evening comes, Bowser will head for the front office at the reformatory. There he will start his nightly sleep.

GUARD MAC HUNT AND BOWSER
. . . an institution at an institution . . .

The 12 to 15 guards who also attend classes at the University of Nebraska and Nebraska Wesleyan University all look upon the dog as a great hunk of hound with a good-natured heart and a very easy life.

As Mac Hunt, of 4140 Washington, a reformatory guard says, pointing to Bowser, "he looks as old as the institution."

And Then Dignity Lost Its Balance

Dignity is a quality which some men and all pouter pigeons possess.

It is not a quality for which my family is noteworthy. Of course I myself attempt to maintain a certain innate, stately dignity at all times, setting an example for my wife and children, but the odds against me would drive a weaker man to complete breakdown. I get by with just bruises.

The bruises are not my fault at all. I keep telling Mrs. F. that they are the shameful result of a complete lack of dignity by members of the household, notably herself. My scolding makes no impression whatever. She argues that heroism is better than dignity. I do not have the heart to tell her that it was not heroism—it was just the inability to get my feet moving.

What happened was that we were going to the motion picture theater, and decided to walk because the evening was so brisk, clear and invigorating. It was also cold. Our daughter and son Merilee and Lee, walked ahead of us. They were in high good spirits. Teenage high spirits and dignity do not go together.

Merilee hopped up on a retaining wall and balanced her way along it, arms waving like a railroad signal. Lee skittered back and forth across the sidewalk, looking for icy spots to slide on. I slowed my steps, and by necessity so did Mrs. F., to drop back so that we would not look like we all belonged together. It did no good. Lee and Merilee just slowed down, too.

I summoned my best dignity.

"You children must stop that," I declared. "The neighbors will think we're all a lot of wild Indians!"

"Gosh," Merrilee protested, "this is fun!"

"Do you want people to think your mother and I haven't taught you any dignity at all?" I demanded. Then I caught sight of Mrs. F., to whom for the moment I had not been paying attention.

☆ ☆ ☆

She was tiptoeing precariously along the six-inch rim of the retaining wall, arms flailing for balance.

"I haven't done this for a long time," she chortled. "Bet you can't do it!"

I summoned all the dignity I possess for a scathing reply. I said, "No, and I do not intend to try it! A woman your age - - -! And besides, you're liable to hit an icy spot—"

She did. Her feet skidded, her arms waved and her balance disappeared. She seemed to do a sort of somersault in the air. When she came down, it was where I stood. I couldn't dodge fast enough.

The neighbors came out of their front door just then. Mrs. F. beamed at them and said, "It's a nice night for skating, isn't it?" I said nothing. It is not a time for conversation when you are flat on the sidewalk and your wife is sitting on your stomach.

When the cards are stacked against you like that, you wonder sometimes if dignity is worth the effort. Or if it is even possible.

Dixon-Yates-TVA Issue A Major One

WASHINGTON—Republican politicians with an eye on 1956 have moved into the Dixon-Yates picture. They are warning the White House that the controversial private power contract proved to be pay dirt for the Democrats during the last campaign and that the end is not in sight.

This was the situation behind the scenes as public hearings of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy continued to furnish a forum for opponents of the contract.

Technically the contract is not before the committee and cannot be until after it has been signed by the Atomic Energy Commission and representatives of the Dixon-Yates interests. The congressional committee has asked for the signed contract and has been put off from day to day.

The commissioners have the power to sign the contract. All that is required now is for them and for the President to summon up the nerve to go on with it in view of the consequences that may ensue.

What has been added since Nov. 2 last is the sure knowledge now being urged on the White House that it is an effective political issue. The most striking evidence comes from Oregon where Richard Neuberger beat the veteran incumbent, Sen. Guy Cordon, who as chairman of the Interior Department Appropriations Subcommittee had channeled huge sums of federal money into the development of the Northwest.

But what surprised the campaigning politicians is that Dixon-Yates registered as an issue in areas apart from those where public power dams have been built. In their own discussions they suggest that the big trouble is no no one has come forward to claim authorship of the plan. It is not, politicians believe, what was attempted but how it was attempted that is chiefly at fault.

It may be, too, that new headlines about the arguments within the Atomic Energy Commission will attract President Eisenhower's attention. They are based on the public testimony of Commissioner Thomas Murray that AEC is being distracted from its sober and critical primary mission by being drawn into the Dixon-Yates fray.

This same point was made in a letter to the budget director last spring, signed by Commissioners Smythe and Zuckert, both now resigned. There is grave doubt that this letter reached the President as he stated at a press conference that he did not accept the premise that a commission majority opposed the contract last spring.

It is an argument to which responsible members of Congress and the public must pay attention, whatever their feelings about public power and the future of TVA.

Democrats are not at all sure they can stop the contract if the President determines to proceed with it. They think they might be able to pass legislation to stop it but should the President veto that, they would expect Republicans to rally behind him and make it impossible to get the two-thirds majority necessary to pass a bill over a presidential veto.

What they might try to do is to increase TVA appropriations so it could build new steam plants and run competition to Dixon-Yates.

The Stay-At-Home

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The type of individual mentioned in the following verse may be found in all walks of life. His name is "Grouch," the know-all, yet accomplishes nothing. He is the embodiment of arrogance and self-righteousness.

I met a man the other morn,
With scowling face and all forlorn
Said I, "My friend, why so glum?"
Quick came the answer, "Are you dumb?"

"Perhaps you have not heard the news,
Enough to give the world the blues,
The Democrats have won again,
That's what I call a downright shame."

Said I, "My friend, how did you vote?
And how much thought did you devote
Before you hit the ballot trail
To halt the cause you now bewail?"

"Alas," said he, "I hate to say
I stayed at home election day
And now my cup is filled with gall
Because I did not vote at all."

And so, my friends, my story's told.
Not new, of course, but somewhat old,
The man who has the most to say
Lacks action on life's great highway.

Hastings, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: There is one thing that stands out like a wart on a man's nose—the utter failure of Eisenhower and Nixon to impress the voter with his bounden duty to elect a Republican Congress. The billingsgate of Nixon that the election of a Democratic Congress would mean the reinstatement of Communists on governmental payrolls failed to alarm anybody.

But the giveaways of our national resources have come to an end. The raiding hands of predatory interests under the cry of "free enterprise" have been paralyzed in the election of a Democratic Congress. Nebraskans have had no part in staying those hands. Those resources could be spirited away so far as the Nebraska electorate is concerned.

But the Nebraska farmer who was lifted up out of the morass of despair where Franklin D. Roosevelt found him has forgotten those days. Charlie Bryan could best describe him as the fellow who "never voted a Democratic ticket until he faced bankruptcy." That farmer has been placed beyond the helping hand of any Democratic Congress. No matter now to what depths his parity payments may fall, the Democratic Congress cannot help him, for there stands Eisenhower with his veto. The Benson plan has but one great purpose—that of weeding out a million small farmers. What to do with them? One answer is to "send them to town to learn furniture making." Considering the way they vote, maybe that is where they belong. But with a million fewer farmers on the farm to buy furniture and a million more hands making it, where will we find a market for the furniture?

A Correction

Axtell, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: My thanks to The Star for the write-ups on me as senator-elect from the 31st District. May I correct one inaccuracy for the record. A phone interview is not the most satisfactory, especially with a poor connection and a country party line such as ours, so perhaps the misunderstanding was mutual.

My campaign promise was an open mind and fair consideration of all questions, my opinion being that more people are needed who will give consideration to all matters. I have said on numerous occasions that I do not intend to introduce "bill after bill." I have no ax to grind. This should not be construed to mean that I will introduce no bills. I reserve the right to introduce any bills that will seem necessary according to my responsibilities toward my district, but I feel reasonably sure that the total number will be considerably fewer than the number introduced by most senators.

I did have some complications from the mistake made (and corrected) stating that I was a Democrat. Many people did not read the correction.

A Difficult Job

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: It seems since our territorial days that the average tenure of office of the warden of the State Penitentiary is less than four years, with the exception of the distinguished Billy Fenton.

About so long and the wolf pack of headline hunters and conniving politicians are after the warden's scalp, and they get it, too. Qualified and able men have left the job branded as incapable, inefficient and sometimes branded as crooks. This isn't a Sunday school superintendent's job and the pressure is on 24 hours a day seven days a week, operating on a tight-fisted budget where 70 and 75-year-old guards are in the majority, which also adds to the pressure. Then every flare-up is spread across the state's newspapers. These things are bound to occur in any well-regulated prison. The best that can be done is to keep them at a minimum. Surrounding states have had much worse conditions this year, especially Missouri.

The writer operated the prison dining room in the early "forties and has a good inside picture of the warden's almost impossible job, and knows what all this publicity does to prison morale.

Let's support him and give him co-operation to make it a better institution.

President Returns To Abilene

. . . He'll Dedicate Memorial Today

ABILENE, Kan. (AP) — President Eisenhower came back to this prairie land hometown of his youth Wednesday night and the folks gave him a warm welcome, complete with brass band.

The President traveled from Washington for a family reunion and—primarily—to dedicate the $325,000 Eisenhower Memorial Museum at Veterans Day ceremonies Thursday.

The museum, housing many of the chief executive's mementos and trophies, is adjacent to the home where he lived as a boy. It is kept as a shrine—just as it was at the time of death of the President's mother in 1946.

The President and his party flew into Salina, Kan., 23 miles to the west, at 5:53 p.m., and then drove to Abilene.

K. C. Stop

He was accompanied from Washington by Mrs. Eisenhower and by his youngest brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Pennsylvania State University.

The President's private plane, the Columbine, stopped briefly in Kansas City, Kan., to take aboard his three grandchildren—David 6, Barbara Anne, 5, and Susan 2—and their parents, Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower.

The major, the President's son, is stationed at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

On hand to greet the President at Abilene was another brother, Earl, a newspaper publisher who lives in La Grange, Ill.

On the outskirts of Abilene a big "Welcome Home, Mr. President" sign greeted the chief executive. And on the way along residential Third Street the townsfolk stood in front of modest homes and called greetings to the President as the caravan rolled by.

Brass Band

He waved in return and smiled broadly in enjoyment at being back home.

There was a brass band playing away in front of a gas station across the street when Eisenhower arrived at the Sunflower Hotel, where he and other members of the family are staying.

A few minutes after entering the hotel, the President stepped out on the marquee from a second story window and waved to the crowd. With him were grandchildren David—toting a toy cap pistol—and Barbara Anne.

The President went to his sixth floor suite for a family dinner. He and the others were joined there by Mrs. Roy Eisenhower of Junction City, Kan., widow of another brother of the chief executive; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fagen, also of Junction City. Mrs. Fagen is the daughter of Mrs. Roy Eisenhower.

Fairmont License Request Denied

The State Liquor Commission Wednesday reported denial of the application of E. E. Mumby of Fairmont for a license to sell beer for consumption off the premises.

The commission noted the Fairmont City Council had recommended denial of the application.

Evidence at the Nov. 4 hearing failed to disclose the action of the council was in any manner arbitrary or capricious, the commission said.

The commission suspended the Class "C" license of Maury E. Lazer of 2524 "Q" Street, Omaha, for 14 days, effective at closing time Nov. 16, for sale at retail on credit.

'Infiltration'

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—The Argentine General Confederation of Labor called on its membership to be on guard against what it said was "infiltration" by priests.

The statement from the confederation's high command capped a 10-day campaign in La Prensa, the labor organization's newspaper, against what the paper said was an attempt by the Roman Catholic clergy to gain control of the labor movement.

Hormel Faces Trial

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — George Hormel II, the meat-packing heir, was ordered to stand trial on Jan. 4 on narcotics possession charges. He pleaded not guilty. Hormel was arrested Sept. 19 after officers discovered a dozen marijuana cigarets in the meat packing heir's automobile.

Capitol Murals Presentation To Be Friday

The first of the murals for the rotunda of the Capitol will be presented to the public at the Capitol in ceremonies at 2 p.m. Friday, Nov. 12.

One of three such murals to be done, this first painting, "The Works of the Hand," is the product of Kenneth Evett, professor of art, Cornell University. While seating space will be limited, the public is invited to the ceremony.

The program will feature short addressses by Gov. Robert B. Crosby, Edna Basten Donald, representing the Murals Commission and the women of Nebraska, and James E. Lawrence, president of the State Historical Society. The invocation will be given by Dr. C. Vin White, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, and the benediction by The Most Reverend Louis B. Kucera, Catholic bishop of the Lincoln diocese.

Master of ceremonies will be Col. Harry F. Cunningham, member of the Commission and professional advisor.

Soviets Open Fire On Freedom Balloons

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Police sources here said freedom balloons carrying anti-Communist leaflets are being fired upon by Soviet occupation troops in Austria.

The balloon campaign was started by the privately financed Free Europe Committee of the Crusade for Freedom to encourage resistance in Communist-led countries. For the past six days, the police sources said, Soviet anti-aircraft batteries have been shooting the balloons down along the Austro-Czech frontier and in Burgenland province bordering on Hungary.

Navy Chief Confident U.S. Could Control The Seas

BERLIN (INS)—U.S. Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas is confident America's Naval Forces could deal effectively today with Soviet submarine strength and "keep the sea lanes open" in the event of war.

Secretary Thomas made known his views in an interview with International News Service when he was in Berlin on a current European tour.

In a series of questions and answers, Thomas gave a picture of a U.S. Navy that is being constantly strengthened and today is ahead of Russia in scientific techniques.

He expects, however, he said, that if a war erupted in the near future the naval phase of it would be fought primarily with "so-called present day conventional weapons."

The Navy secretary's views were expressed as follows:

Q. To what degree, or generally in what ways, have the United States Naval Forces increased their effectiveness in the last 12 months?

A. "I would say that we have materially increased the effectiveness of the United States Naval Forces during the past 12 months. This has been done through the development of newer and more modern equipment, conversions and modernization of present equipment and better training techniques.

Q. Could the American today—or in the very near future—keep sea lanes open to our Allies in event of war?

A. "In my opinion, the American navy could keep the sea lanes open to our Allies in the event of war."

Q. What is your opinion of the "submarine menace" which the Soviet Union reportedly possesses?

A. "We fully recognize the Soviet submarine menace. It is a very potent one, but, we have what we expect to be very effective counter-measures.

Q. Who is leading in the race to develop new techniques and scientific equipment — for naval warfare: the United States or the Soviet Union? Why?

A. "It would be my guess that the United States is leading in the race to develop new techniques and scientific equipment.

Q. With the equipping of American naval vessels with guided missiles and pilotless planes, are we rapidly approaching a new era of "push-button" naval warfare techniques? What are the main obstacles to such development?

A. "I would say we are approaching a new era of so called 'push button' naval warfare and techniques. The degree of this progress is open to some question. In the event of another war, in reasonably the near future, it is my opinion that it would be fought primarily by the so called present day conventional weapons."

Elys File Appeal

The State Supreme Court Wednesday received the transcript in the appeal of Harold and Faye Ely from a Hall County District Court judgment for $56,055 in favor of Helen M. Schroeder.

The Elys were sued originally for $36,403 allegedly due for money advanced to them for construction of a motel, plus $6,983 claimed for services and interest.

Power Proposal Loses At Curtis

CURTIS, Neb. (AP) — Curtis voters have turned down a proposal to buy power from the McCook Public Power District to meet the city's expanding needs.

There were two propositions on the ballot in a special election. One, to build a transmission line and buy from the McCook district, was beaten 332 to 41, and the other, to issue $55,000 in bonds to pay for the line, lost 291 to 64.

The city is now expected to go ahead and expand the production of the city owned plant by purchasing a new turbine engine.

School Board OKs 48th Zone Change

The Board of Education has approved a resolution requesting the City Council to change the local business zoning along the west side of 48th from Cleveland to Adams back to residential.

The Board action is in harmony with the school district's policy in opposition to any business zoning within a block and one-half of school property. Huntington school is on 47th between Cleveland and Adams.

The City Council recently denied a requested change from residential to local business at the northwest corner of 48th and Adams.

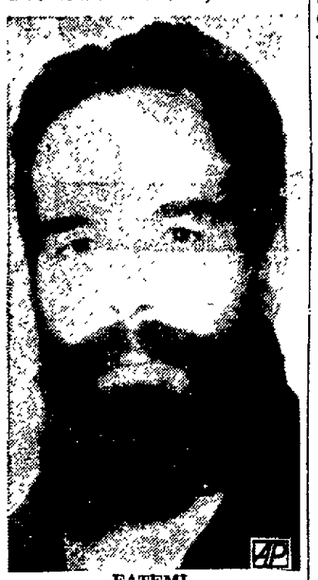
Fatemi, Lashed To Stake, Riddled With 16 Bullets

TEHERAN, Iran (AP) — They lashed Hossein Fatemi to a stake before a mud wall Wednesday and riddled him with 16 bullets for being a traitor to the Shah.

Thus ended on a windswept barracks rifle range the life of the fiery pint-sized ex-foreign minister who had been the right hand man of former Premier Mohammed Mossadegh.

He was executed in secret by a four-man squad just before dawn. Gen. Teimour Bakhtiar, Teheran's military governor, a witness, said the blindfolded Fatemi shouted as he stood tied to the stake:

"May God protect you" !



FATEMI
. . . 'May God protect you!'

'Britain's Work'

Other army witnesses said he cried out "This is Britain's work!" and "The British are murdering me!" before four volleys ended his life.

Fatemi was an uncompromising supporter of Mossadegh's extreme nationalist policy under which the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. was nationalized in 1951.

Fatemi, 40, was sentenced to death by a military court a month ago for his part in plotting to overthrow Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi in August, 1953. His old boss, the aged and ailing Mossadegh, now is serving three years in solitary confinement for the same offense.

He Didn't Tremble

Bakhtiar said Fatemi had spent the last pre-dawn hours before the execution writing his will and addressing messages to his family.

Then he was driven in a heavily guarded army car to the rifle range at Ghasr Barracks. He walked to the stake without trembling. The four-man firing squad shot four volleys.

"Fatemi had more blood than a cow," Bakhtiar said.

The body was taken to a public graveyard for the Moslem washing ceremony. Then it was delivered to Fatemi's family by army authorities. Weeping relatives buried Fatemi at the nearby shrine of Ibneh Baboieh.

Fatemi's execution was as unexpected as it was secret. Twenty security officers and one civilian convicted of helping a Red military spy ring have been executed publicly in recent weeks. Sources at the royal court had said the Shah and army authorities favored postponing Fatemi's execution until he was fully recovered from a stomach ailment that had kept him in bed during most of his imprisonment and trial.

Strong elements among the armed forces said the populace were said to feel that executions were too heavyhanded a method for silencing the opposition in a country where politics long has been considered a game. But any effort to unseat the American-supported regime of Premier Fazollah Zahedi as other Iranian governments have been toppled in the past would lead almost certainly to a major bloodbath throughout the country. The government appears to have things well under control.

STAN DELAPLANE'S POSTCARD

The first lady soldier I ever saw was down by Sentani Strip at Hollandia in New Guinea. She was sitting in a muddy tent, filling out forms on GI clothing. And vice versa you might say.

After I got over the shock, I asked her if she would be interviewed.

She said she could be interviewed after 6 o'clock. And that she must be interviewed with another girl and another gentleman present. And we must have a jeep and be armed.

"Madam," I said gallantly, "I need not pack a .45. For I trust you."

"It is not against us, it is against the enemy," she said. Since there was no enemy within several hundred miles, I have often wondered. But, oh well—.

☆ ☆ ☆

Well, I simply thought we should speak of the Armed Forces this Armistice Day. The best part of the Armed Forces is that they include ladies.

If Picasso would draw me a dove, I have a terrific idea for world peace. Make all armies all women.

If all armies were all women, there would be very little war. Mostly things would be fashion parades.

We would put our Mainbocher models up against Red Square entries.

Instead of jungle greens our lady soldiers would wear jungle prints.

The helmet would be redesigned into something useless. The present helmet is pretty useless. But this would be even more so. Like a lady's hat. You would not be able to wash your socks in it anymore.

Oh, this will be a brave new warless world. When Joanna comes marching home again, hurrah. Hurrah.

War correspondents will put in their apprenticeship on Vogue. And if you think we are going to keep the Fleet that horrid gray that simply doesn't go with anything, you are wrong.

The hangar decks will be refloored. For dancing, what else?

Hashmarks must go. Why tell your age when you know you look young as a draftee. Under the candlelight we are putting in the mess hall.

Close order drill will be overhauled.

"Right dress." Means straighten the seams in your stockings.

"Eyes right." Your mascara is slipping honey.

"Attention." Stomach in, chest out. That man with the Cadillac is driving by again.

"At ease." He's gone.

"Parade rest." One knee dipped forward and in a little. It really gives you a much better hipline.

"Rest." You can take off your girdle now.

☆ ☆ ☆

I do not look for much fighting in the New Army. A little bickering, maybe. But mostly among ourselves. Why pick on these kids across the sea when there are so many cats right here?

Free tickets to all movies starring Marlon Brando.

At least two divisions will be attached at all times to the Embassy in Paris.

Only girls who like the outdoors type will be stationed in Alaska.

The Korean command is hereby closed.

A men's auxiliary to the Regular Army is hereby created. It will be known as the MACs. Enlistments are limited to gentlemen who are young, handsome and rich. Any MAC who is unmarried after a year's enlistment shall be discharged.

Any MAC who marries outside the regular army shall have his buttons cut off and be drummed off the post. With everybody standing around sneering.

Lady soldiers who have had an unhappy love affair or get a "Dear Joanna" letter, shall get a free trip to Hawaii and a Purple Heart.

In this war, there shall be no Armistice. Who ever had it so good?

Rock Island To Use Video As Watchman

The television camera will soon replace the old grade-crossing watchman in railroad operation, D. B. Jenks, executive vice-president of the Rock Island Railroad said here.

Jenks, speaking to a conference of the Central Western Shippers Advisory Board, said the railroad will adopt the technique "very soon."

Use of this method will allow crossing gates on several streets to be manually controlled from a central location where a view of the crossings is obtained by an arrangement of television cameras and receivers.

Among other modernization moves for railroads, Jenks said he looks for the time when "practically all employes in a railroad yard will have two-way wrist or pocket radios which will almost entirely do away with the use of hand signals."

Looking Further

While auto manufacturers have designs completed for ten years hence, the railroads "are looking much further than that," he said.

Another example of this progress was the new grain freight car or display here, converted after Rock Island officials got the idea when they saw a "mothballing" process performed on army-owned diesel engines.

It amounts to the reconditioning of a standard grain car by coating its interior with alternate layers of a plastic cement and fiberglass. The finished product hardens quickly and resists the actions of scoop shovels as well as mechanical grain unloaders, according to D. W. Dotson, local Rock Island traffic manager.

This "mothballing" or "cocooning" process is an adaption of the methods used by the government in storing planes and ships over long periods of time.

Perhaps the most revolutionary aspect, said Dotson, is the cost. Where it took $75-$125 to process a car by "conventional" means, the new method costs about $20 a car.

Nebraska Has Cool, Rather Wet October

Cool and rather wet.

That was October weather in Nebraska, the Lincoln Weather Bureau reported Wednesday in its monthly climatic summary.

Temperatures ranged from 96 at Cambridge down to 9 above zero at Ft. Robinson.

Temperatures averaged 1.8 degrees below the 50.3 normal average for the month.

Rainfall was heavy in the east and over the Platte Valley in the central part of the state, where many stations received more than twice the normal. Southern and Central portions of the Panhandle, however, were very dry, with most stations in this region receiving only a third to a little more than a half inch of moisture.

The first killing frost of the season didn't come until Oct. 16 over most of the western half of the state, and until the last few days of the month in the east.

The first snow of the season came to the higher regions of the Panhandle, with depths ranging upward to 7 inches (at Harrison).

Drying of the corn crop was slowed by the late frost, frequent rains and high humidity during the month. Harvest of grain sorghum was similarly delayed but the winter wheat crop did well in the central and east.

Points receiving above normal precipitation during the month included Auburn 3.93 inches, Beatrice 4.53, Creighton 1.87, Fairbury 2.35, Fairmont 1.99, Falls City 2.76, Fremont 4.22, Hastings 1.83, Lincoln 2.50, Norfolk 2.46, Oakdale 2.66, Omaha 3.12, Tekamah 2.78, Wakefield 2.63, Cambridge 1.79, Holdrege 1.84, Kearney 2.43, Lexington 2.82, North Loup 2.44, North Platte 1.13, O'Neill 1.64, Ravenna 1.94, Culbertson 1.70, Hay Springs 1.32.

Columbus received 1.64 inch, exactly normal.

Below normal precipitation was received by Grand Island 1.25 inch, St. Paul 1.50, Valentine .79, Alliance .45, Dalton .48, Harrison 1.06, Kimball .58, Scottsbluff .32 and Sidney .40.

Rock Island To Use Video As Watchman

The television camera will soon replace the old grade-crossing watchman in railroad operation, D. B. Jenks, executive vice-president of the Rock Island Railroad said here.

Jenks, speaking to a conference of the Central Western Shippers Advisory Board, said the railroad will adopt the technique "very soon."

Use of this method will allow crossing gates on several streets to be manually controlled from a central location where a view of the crossings is obtained by an arrangement of television cameras and receivers.

Among other modernization moves for railroads, Jenks said he looks for the time when "practically all employes in a railroad yard will have two-way wrist or pocket radios which will almost entirely do away with the use of hand signals."

Looking Further

While auto manufacturers have designs completed for ten years hence, the railroads "are looking much further than that," he said.

Another example of this progress was the new grain freight car on display here, converted after Rock Island officials got the idea when they saw a "mothballing" process performed on army-owned diesel engines.

It amounts to the reconditioning of a standard grain car by coating its interior with alternate layers of a plastic cement and fiberglass. The finished product hardens quickly and resists the actions of scoop shovels as well as mechanical grain unloaders, according to D. W. Dotson, local Rock Island traffic manager.

This "mothballing" or "cocooning" process is an adaption of the methods used by the government in storing planes and ships over long periods of time.

Perhaps the most revolutionary aspect, said Dotson, is the cost. Where it took $75-$125 to process a car by "conventional" means, the new method costs about $20 a car.

Nebraska Has Cool, Rather Wet October

Cool and rather wet.

That was October weather in Nebraska, the Lincoln Weather Bureau reported Wednesday in its monthly climatic summary.

Temperatures averaged 1.8 degrees below the 50.3 normal average for the month.

Rainfall was heavy in the east and over the Platte Valley in the central part of the state, where many stations received more than twice the normal. Southern and Central portions of the Panhandle, however, were very dry, with most stations in this region receiving only a third to a little more than a half inch of moisture.

The first killing frost of the season didn't come until Oct. 16 over most of the western half of the state, and until the last few days of the month in the east.

The first snow of the season came to the higher regions of the Panhandle, with depths ranging upward to 7 inches (at Harrison).

Drying of the corn crop was slowed by the late frost, frequent rains and high humidity during the month. Harvest of grain sorghum was similarly delaved but the winter wheat crop did well in the central and east.

Points receiving above normal precipitation during the month included Auburn 3.93 inches, Beatrice 4.53, Creighton 1.87, Fairbury 2.35, Fairmont 1.90, Falls City 3.78, Fremont 4.22, Hastings 1.83, Lincoln 2.50, Norfolk 2.46, Oakdale 2.08, Omaha 3.12, Tekamah 2.78, Wakefield 2.68, Cambridge 1.79, Holdrege 1.84, Kearney 2.43, Lexington 2.82, North Loup 2.44, North Platte 1.18, O'Neill 1.64, Ravenna 1.94, Culbertson 1.70, Hay Springs 1.32.

Columbus received 1.64 inch, exactly normal.

Below normal precipitation was received by Grand Island 1.25 inch, St. Paul 1.50, Valentine .78, Alliance .45, Dalton .48, Harrison 1.06, Kimball .58, Scottsbluff .32 and Sidney .40.

40 years ago Samuel Nefsky founded The Hub, a store devoted to serving Lincoln and its great trading area with perfect quality Men's apparel from America's leading manufacturers at saving prices.

In 1930 his two sons Joe and Duke took over the active management never failing thru the years to carry out the founders famous slogan "NOBODY BUT NOBODY UNDERSELLS THE HUB".

Vets Day Parades, Talks Set

North Platte Plans Annual Bean Feed

By The Associated Press

Nebraskans have the same variety of plans for observing the first Veterans Day that they did its predecessor, Armistice Day.

There will be parades and speeches in some communities Thursday while others have few special plans.

Governmental offices including those in the statehouse will be closed.

Simmons at Fremont

At North Platte the Veterans of Foreign Wars will stage ist annual bean feed at noon with VFW Department Commander F. M. Jack Parker of Kearney as speaker.

A program at the city auditorium in Fremont will feature Chief Justice Robert Simmons of the State Supreme Court as speaker.

Former State Legion Commander James Green will address the annual Veterans Day banquet at Fairbury.

Norfolk Dance

At Norfolk Rep. Robert D. Harrison of Norfolk will speak at the city auditorium following a parade. Veterans organizations there are sponsoring a public dance in the evening.

Bob Feller, Cleveland Indians pitching great, will be the speaker at Legion Post No. 1 in Omaha Thursday evening.

The Omaha livestock market will close Thursday but the grain exchange and banks will remain open.

An afternoon football game will match the University of Omaha and Doane College.

In another Veterans Day game, Luther will play at McCook Junior College.

Judge White Is Administrative Group Chairman

Gov. Robert Crosby Wednesday announced that formation of the conference on administrative procedure is now complete.

District Judge Paul White of Lincoln is chairman.

The conference was formed pursuant to a resolution passed by the Nebraska State Bar Association committee on administrative agencies.

The purpose is to study procedures of administrative agencies under state government with a view toward achieving more uniformity.

Working Members

Working members of the conference include:

District Judge John Kuns, Kimball; Sen. Earl Lee, Fremont; Daniel Stubbs, Alliance.

Edward Sklenicka, Jack W. Marer, Raymond M. Crossman Jr., and George Holdrege, all of Omaha.

"The success of this conference is assured by a membership composed of such outstanding lawyers in Nebraska who are unselfishly donating their time and effort to this important project," Gov. Crosby commented.

Help Us Celebrate

We are well pleased with the results of our first three years of business and with the way in which the people of Lincoln and vicinity have accepted our efforts. This is really a wonderful community. People here appreciate pianos and organs as an advantage in the art of living, and we are trying to serve them in a way that would contribute to their best interests. It has been a marvelous three years for us, and we look forward to the many, many years ahead to serving the people of Lincoln. We are deeply grateful to everyone who has been considerate of what we are trying to do.

We at McCabe's say "Thank You" and cordially invite you to come in on Thursday, November 11th, and help us celebrate. It really is your day and we will be deeply honored to have your presence and to be able to say "Hello". There will be gifts and souvenirs for everyone.

Nebraska Corn Crop Will Reach 191,912,000 Bus.; 28 Per Acre

By The Associated Press

Department of Agriculture crop forecasters Wednesday estimated that Nebraska's corn crop, more than three-quarters of it already harvested, will average out at 28 bushels an acre.

That would be one bushel less than the estimate of a month ago.

The total crop as of Nov. 1, said the forecasters, was 191,912,000 bushels. The Oct. 1 guess had been 198,766,000.

Though Wednesday's estimate was some 14 million bushels less than the September figure, it was far above Aug. 1 figure of 171,350,000.

Revised In September

The late summer drought had brought the drastic cutback. Substantial rain in September brought a dramatic revival.

No new estimates will be made for wheat and most other grain crops until mid-December.

In Lincoln, state-federal crop statistician A. E. Anderson said the surveys on which Washington's new corn estimates were based were made just before Nov. 1 — at a time when only about half of the crop had been harvested.

More survey work will be done before the final corn report is made in December.

Anderson said corn borer and ear worm damage may have contributed to the whittling of the corn estimate.

The sorghum crop is a record for Nebraska, he noted. The crop matured before frost could hurt it and yields have been extremely good. Only some fields of drilled sorghum (as opposed to sorghum planted in rows) turned out below par because of heat and drought damage in July.

Dry bean yields in the North Platte valley of western Nebraska also have turned out better than expected, he noted.

Colder Weather In The Offing

Showers are expected Thursday over north Pacific states, north central Lakes region, eastern sections of Florida peninsula and along southern limits of Arizona. Occasional rain is in store for northern and central California. A few snow flurries are slated for northern portion of Wyoming while snow probably mixed with rain is foreseen for northern sector of Minnesota. There will be warmer trend over much of eastern third of U.S. with colder weather over northern Plains. (AP Wirephoto Map.)

Man Is Wounded By Stray Bullet

NORFOLK, Neb. (AP) — Herman Hosner, 65, of Norfolk was reported in satisfactory condition at a hospital Wednesday with a wound inflicted by a rifle bullet that ricocheted a full city block.

The attending physician said the bullet struck Hosner in the back between the shoulder blades, went through his lung and collapsed it and lodged in his upper chest muscles.

Police Chief Irvin Ferris said Hosner, who was in his back yard, was struck by a rifle bullet fired at the ground a block away by Jerry Miller, 16, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Harold Miller.

Young Miller was in his yard at the time.

Old Friends Get Together

When old friends get together, as they did on Wednesday when Mrs. J. H. Lehnhoff was a luncheon hostess at her home, we are reasonably certain that every moment is devoted to reminiscing—especially when the honoree is a former Lincoln resident.

Mrs. Lehnhoff's party was in courtesy to her house guest, Miss Nelle Cave of San Diego, Calif., a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and a former faculty member of the School of Music's piano department.

It goes without saying that the guest list included musicians, all old friends of Miss Cave's, and in the picture we find—

TOWN TALK

THIS really isn't just another Thursday—it's Armistice Day, still gallant in spite of the fact that some of its glory hangs in shreds — It's still parade day for the veterans — the bugle will sound its muted taps, the sun will touch the ribbons, the medals, and the purple hearts, and at the last roll of the drums it will sink into a crimson sea to make way for the stars on a field of blue—

* * *

BUT even as the town pauses for Veterans' Day ceremonies it makes ready for the surge of homecoming activities — We've mentioned many of the guests for the homecoming week-end, but we still have more—

For instance, we just learned that Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Potter of Fremont will come to Lincoln on Saturday to spend the week-end as the guests of Mrs. O. W. Everett.

Mr. Potter, by the way, was quarterback on the team that is to be honored at Saturday's game.

* * *

SOMEONE told us this morning that Mrs. Alfred DuTeau returned home Wednesday from New York City where she, and Mrs. D. B. Porter of Omaha, spent the past two weeks.

* * *

LEAVING tomorrow to return to Larson Air Force Base, Moses Lake, Wash., will be Lt. James Munger who has been spending the past few days as the guest of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Munger. Lt. Munger has just completed his training in atomic warfare at Langley Air Force Base, Virginia.

* * *

THERE'S a courtesy on the day's calendar for Miss Sarah Fulton who is to marry William Ginn of Omaha in December—Miss Fulton was complimented at a luncheon for which Mrs. Charles Ganz of Alvo, and her sister, Mrs. Ernest Gotchall of Atkinson, were hostesses when they entertained at the home of their mother, Mrs. Earl Carter. Sixteen guests were invited for the luncheon and a kitchen shower.

* * *

SPEAKING of courtesies — Mrs. Larry A. Becker was a coffee hostess at her home on Wednesday morning when she entertained in farewell courtesy to Mrs. C. P. Henderson who, with her family, leaves soon to reside in Chicago. The guest list included a small group of Mrs. Henderson's close friends.

Hostess chairman was Mrs. Richard Joy who was assisted by Mrs. Victor Jouvenat, Mrs. Harold Bookstrom, Mrs. William Wiese, Mrs. William Beachly and Mrs. O. J. King.

The Alpha Phi Alumnae will entertain Thursday morning at a coffee to be held at the chapter house honoring their national and district officers who are visiting in Lincoln.

Pictured with their guests (left to right) are Miss Barbara Beck, president of the Alpha Phi active chapter; Mrs. James Ellis, president of the Lincoln Alumnae Club; Mrs. W. F. Gregson of Chicago, past national president of the sorority; and Mrs. D. J. Robertson of Grand Forks, S. D., district governor.

Mrs. Gregson was the guest speaker Wednesday evening at the annual banquet of the University of Nebraska Panhellenic Association, and Mrs. Robertson is making her annual official visit with the members of the active chapter.

Bride At Wednesday Ceremony

MRS. JAMES E. LIGHTBODY

At a candlelight service which was solemnized early Wednesday evening, Nov. 10, Miss Donna Lee Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Martin of David City, became the bride of James Edgar Lightbody, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Lightbody of Nebraska City. Pedestal arrangements of white chrysanthemums and woodwardia, and groups of tall, lighted candles, appointed the chancel of St. Luke's Methodist Church at David City for the ceremony.

The lines of the service were read by the Rev. Mearl Smith assisted by the Rev. Homer L. Dickerson of Columbus, and Bill Gilbert of David City, organist, played the wedding music. Mr. Gilbert also accompanied the vocal soloist, Mrs. Elgin Tonniges of Columbus, sister of the bride.

As her sister's maid of honor, Miss Maxine Martin appeared in a frock of blue iridescent taffeta fashioned with a fitted, tucked bodice, and full, pleated skirt. She carried an arrangement of pink chrysanthemums. Wearing identical ensembles in rose iridescent taffeta were Miss Eva Welker of Holdrege, Miss Jackie Martin and Mrs. Herman Hansen, both sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Gary Widle, all of David City, who carried blue-tinted carnations. Lighting the candles were Mrs. Bruce Link of Omaha, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Ted Groulik of Schuyler, the bride's sister.

White brocaded taffeta was chosen by the bride for her wedding gown. Shallow scallops of the taffeta edged the portrait neckline, and long, fitted sleeves completed the molded bodice, beneath which the skirt flared into fullness and ended in a cathedral train. Her illusion veil was held by a cap of tucked illusion trimmed with seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of crimson and white roses.

Paul Lightbody served his brother as best man, and seating the guests were Bruce Link and Tom Waring of Omaha, William Benney of Lincoln and Jerry Kroeger of David City.

A reception for 250 guests was held in the church parlors.

A June graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan University, where he is a member of "W" Club, Psi Chi and Theta Chi, the bridegroom is serving with the Army and is stationed at Ft. Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex. Mrs. Lightbody, who will continue teaching in the David City Schools, also attended Nebraska Wesleyan University and is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Old Friends Get Together

When old friends get together, as they did on Wednesday when Mrs. J. H. Lehnhoff was a luncheon hostess at her home, we are reasonably certain that every moment is devoted to reminiscing—especially when the honoree is a former Lincoln resident.

Mrs. Lehnhoff's party was in courtesy to her house guest, Miss Nelle Cave of San Diego, Calif., a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and a former faculty member of the School of Music's piano department.

It goes without saying that the guest list included musicians, all old friends of Miss Cave's, and in the picture we find—

Bride At Wednesday Ceremony

MRS JAMES E. LIGHTBODY

At a candlelight service which was solemnized early Wednesday evening, Nov. 10, Miss Donna Lee Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H Martin of David City, became the bride of James Edgar Lightbody, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Lightbody of Nebraska City Pedestal arrangements of white chrysanthemums and woodwardia, and groups of tall, lighted candles, appointed the chancel of St. Luke's Methodist Church at David City for the ceremony.

The lines of the service were read by the Rev. Mearl Smith assisted by the Rev Homer L. Dickerson of Columbus, and Bill Gilbert of David City, organist, played the wedding music. Mr. Gilbert also accompanied the vocal soloist, Mrs Elgin Tonniges of Columbus, sister of the bride.

As her sister's maid of honor, Miss Maxine Martin appeared in a frock of blue iridescent taffeta fashioned with a fitted, tucked bodice, and full, pleated skirt. She carried an arrangement of pink chrysanthemums. Wearing identical ensembles in rose iridescent taffeta were Miss Eva Welker of Holdrege, Miss Jackie Martin and Mrs Herman Hansen, both sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Gary Widle, all of David City, who carried blue-tinted carnations Lighting the candles were Mrs Bruce Link of Omaha, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Ted Groulik of Schuyler, the bride's sister

White brocaded taffeta was chosen by the bride for her wedding gown. Shallow scallops of the taffeta edged the portrait neckline, and long, fitted sleeves completed the molded bodice, beneath which the skirt flared into fullness and ended in a cathedral train. Her illusion veil was held by a cap of tucked illusion trimmed with seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of crimson and white roses.

Paul Lightbody served his brother as best man, and seating the guests were Bruce Link and Tom Waring of Omaha, William Benney of Lincoln and Jerry Kroeger of David City.

A reception for 250 guests was held in the church parlors.

A June graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan University, where he is a member of "W" Club, Psi Chi and Theta Chi, the bridegroom is serving with the Army and is stationed at Ft Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex. Mrs. Lightbody, who will continue teaching in the David City Schools, also attended Nebraska Wesleyan University and is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta.

TOWN TALK

THIS really isn't just another Thursday—it's Armistice Day, still gallant in spite of the fact that some of its glory hangs in shreds — It's still parade day for the veterans — the bugle will sound its muted taps, the sun will touch the ribbons, the medals, and the purple hearts, and at the last roll of the drums it will sink into a crimson sea to make way for the stars on a field of blue—

* * *

BUT even as the town pauses for Veterans' Day ceremonies it makes ready for the surge of homecoming activities — We've mentioned many of the guests for the homecoming week-end, but we still have more—

For instance, we just learned that Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Potter of Fremont will come to Lincoln on Saturday to spend the week-end as the guests of Mrs. O. W. Everett.

Mr. Potter, by the way, was quarterback on the team that is to be honored at Saturday's game.

* * *

SOMEONE told us this morning that Mrs. Alfred DuTeau returned home Wednesday from New York City where she, and Mrs D. B. Porter of Omaha, spent the past two weeks.

* * *

LEAVING tomorrow to return to Larson Air Force Base, Moses Lake, Wash., will be Lt. James Munger who has been spending the past few days as the guest of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Munger. Lt. Munger has just completed his training in atomic warfare at Langley Air Force Base, Virginia.

* * *

THERE'S a courtesy on the day's calendar for Miss Sarah Fulton who is to marry William Ginn of Omaha in December—Miss Fulton was complimented at a luncheon for which Mrs. Charles Ganz of Alvo, and her sister, Mrs. Ernest Gotchall of Atkinson, were hostesses when they entertained at the home of their mother, Mrs. Earl Carter. Sixteen guests were invited for the luncheon and a kitchen shower.

* * *

SPEAKING of courtesies — Mrs. Larry A. Becker was a coffee hostess at her home on Wednesday morning when she entertained in farewell courtesy to Mrs. C. P. Henderson who, with her family, leaves soon to reside in Chicago. The guest list included a small group of Mrs. Henderson's close friends.

Club Hears Guest Speaker

The regular luncheon-meeting of the WRPC Club was held recently with Mrs. W. L. Detrich, Mrs. C. C. Campbell and Mrs. J. G. Bennett as hostesses. Following the business meeting, a talk was given by John Hartnett, an exchange student from England.

Miss Runty Is Speaker

A talk and demonstration on table decorations for the holiday season was given by Miss Frances Runty, Lancaster County Home Extension agent, at the Wednesday evening meeting of the Mrs. JayCees, held at the Chamber of Commerce.

Following the program, Mrs. Julius Ross, president, conducted a short business meeting and refreshments were served by the hostesses including Mrs. Herman Hempel, Mrs. E. V. Lawson and Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson.

Group To Meet

The State Mental Health Association will hold a 6 30 o'clock dinner, Tuesday evening, at the Lincoln State Hospital. Anyone who is interested in attending is asked to call 4-1439 for reservations by Friday.

Following the dinner, a tour of the hospital has been planned.

Hears Speaker

A lesson on pronunciation and diction for correct speaking was presented by a member of Irving Junior High School faculty at the meeting of Lambda Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Monday evening. In charge of the program were Miss LaRene Pierce and Mrs Robert Stoner.

Sorority Alumnae Entertain

Honoring Mrs. Clifford Hardin, a member of the sorority and wife of the University of Nebraska chancellor, the Lincoln Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi entertained at a coffee Wednesday morning at the chapter house with active and alumnae members of the sorority and the Pi Phi Mothers Club as guests.

Hostess chairman was Mrs. Richard Joy who was assisted by Mrs. Victor Jouvenat, Mrs. Harold Bookstrom, Mrs. William Wiese, Mrs. William Beachly and Mrs. O. J. King.

Pictured with their guests (left to right) are Miss Barbara Beck, president of the Alpha Phi active chapter; Mrs. James Ellis, president of the Lincoln Alumnae Club; Mrs. W. F. Gregson of Chicago, past national president of the sorority; and Mrs D. J. Robertson of Grand Forks, S D, district governor.

Mrs. Gregson was the guest speaker Wednesday evening at the annual banquet of the University of Nebraska Panhellenic Association, and Mrs. Robertson is making her annual official visit with the members of the active chapter.

Entertains At Breakfast

Mrs. F. T. Hopka entertained at a neighborhood breakfast Wednesday morning honoring Mr and Mrs William Ferguson and their children who recently have moved into their new home on Calvert.

The breakfast was held in the patio of the John Mason home and included among the guests were Mr. and Mrs Dan Jett and children, Mr and Mrs Leo Beck and children, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Magee and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. John Mason and children.

The Star Greets New Neighbors

There's no dust on the welcome mat this morning — we shined it up fit to kill in order that we might usher in some brand new Lincoln residents — As usual, some of them will be with us for a mere three or four years, but there are others who have chosen Lincoln as a permanent home.

There are the Mark Fielders, for instance — Mr. and Mrs. Fielder and four of their five children recently arrived from Franklin — and that means, of course, that they really aren't strangers and that we need not call their attention to our beautiful Indian summer—

Mr. Fielder has joined a contracting firm in Lincoln, and the new family residence is at 2836 F St., where Mrs. Fielder has been extremely busy getting her family settled. The family, by the way, includes Miss Delores Fielder who right now, is attending Hastings College; Jim, who is at Lincoln High School; Richard, who is a student at Irving Junior High, and Fred and Al, both at Elliott.

Uncle Sam, it seems, gave Lt. David Duncan time to complete his college work, and then grabbed him for the Air Force — The Duncans have come to Lincoln from Sacramento, Calif. and have become practically all settled in their home at 4710 Calvert. Lt. Duncan, however, was not permitted to enjoy his new home long — No sooner did he arrive in Lincoln than he was sent to the B-47 school at Wichita, Kan. So, Mrs. Duncan and the very young Zoe Scott Duncan, just five months old, are keeping the home fires burning until the Air Force officer returns home.

Mrs. Duncan, by the way, was a career woman before she traded business for domesticity —she was a commercial artist.

And from Meridian, Miss., have come Dr. and Mrs. Murray K. Simon and their two daughters, Vita Ann, who already is making friends in her new school—and 17 months-old Debra Ann, who now are residing at 1480 So. 21st St.

The Simons are included among our permanent neighbors since Dr. Simon, an optometrist, has opened offices

MR. AND MRS. GENE H. DYER

West Coast Wedding

The marriage of Miss Joyce Emily Vig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Vig of Ketchikan, Alaska, to Gene Harlan Dyer of Richland, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Earl Dyer of Nebraska City, took place on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 2, at the Richland Lutheran Church, Richland, Wash. The Rev. C. Kenneth Peisker solemnized the 4 o'clock service before a background of pink and white gladioli, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. G. L. Heldeson, organist, who also accompanied the vocal soloist, Calvin Welsch.

Mrs. Milton T. Hefty of Portland, Ore., wearing a daytime frock of copper-toned silk was her sister's matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. John L. Hall of Ketchikan, Alaska, twin sister of the bride, and Miss Barbara Johnson of Richland, who appeared in alike silk frocks in the rose shade. Each of the attendants wore a tiara of white blossoms and carried a bouquet of pink and white gladioli.

Dr. J. Lee Dyer of Omaha served his brother as best man, and the ushers included Jerry Dyer of Pasco, Wash., also a brother of the bridegroom, and Charles A. Munro.

The bride appeared in a gown of white lace and net over satin. The long-sleeved fitted bodice of lace was designed with a bateau neckline contoured with a bertha of lace, and the wide skirt, fashioned of froths of net was floor length. Her veil of bridal illusion was held to the head with a Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of Talisman roses and stephanotis.

Mr. Dyer is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry.

Club Lesson On Painting

Members of the Bethany Mothers Club will meet at 1:15 o'clock Thursday afternoon in Fellowship Hall of Bethany Christian Church. A lesson on textile painting will be a feature of the program, and hostesses will be Mrs. Francis Pinkerton, Mrs. Paul Hood and Mrs. William Teter.

Shine On, Shine On Harvest Moon

The Harvest Moon came in mighty handy Tuesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Russell Loerch entertained a group of guests at a barbecue party at the home of Mrs. Loerch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Requartte —It seems that a fuse considered itself overworked and blew itself out, leaving the picnic party without lights—However, by the light of the moon—and a few candles—the steaks were done to everyone's liking, and the lack of electricity in no way handicapped the party. Later, we understand, all lights were in working order, giving a blazing finale to the evening—and to autumn picnics, as far as this group is concerned.

At the left, in the picture, we find hostess Mrs. Russell Loerch —and giving her steak a careful scrutiny as it broils is Mrs. Bill Hastings—At the party, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Loerch and Mr. and Mrs. Hastings, were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ettinger, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Loerch, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mapes, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Cubbison, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Spohn, Mr. and Mrs. Denny Cochran and Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Vallicott.

Plans Party

Members of Beta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will meet Thursday evening at the chapter rooms when the program will be under the direction of Miss Norma Schneider. The program topic, "Poetry," will be presented by Mrs. Harry Eichler and Miss Merna Furrer.

The group also will complete plans for a homecoming party to be held at 8 o'clock, Saturday evening, at the American Forward Hall, when husbands of the members will be special guests.

Kenneth Peisker solemnized the 4 o'clock service before a background of pink and white gladioli, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. G. L. Heldeson, organist, who also accompanied the vocal soloist, Calvin Welsch.

Mrs Milton T Hefty of Portland, Ore , wearing a daytime frock of copper-toned silk was her sister's matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. John L. Hall of Ketchikan, Alaska, twin sister of the bride, and Miss Barbara Johnson of Richland, who appeared in alike silk frocks in the rose shade. Each of the attendants wore a tiara of white blossoms and carried a bouquet of pink and white gladioli.

Dr. J. Lee Dyer of Omaha served his brother as best man, and the ushers included Jerry Dyer of Pasco, Wash., also a brother of the bridegroom, and Charles A. Munro.

The bride appeared in a gown of white lace and net over satin. The long-sleeved fitted bodice of lace was designed with a bateau neckline contoured with a bertha of lace, and the wide skirt, fashioned of froths of net was floor length. Her veil of bridal illusion was held to the head with a Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of Talisman roses and stephanotis.

Mr. Dyer is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry.

'Sam Knew Head Injury Hardest To Evaluate'

By ARTHUR EVERETT

CLEVELAND (AP) — The state, seeking to knock down Dr. Samuel Sheppard's alibi in his wife's slaying, drew from a woman witness Wednesday that he knew a head injury "was the hardest to evaluate."

The implication, in the state's own words, was that he knew how to "pretend" such an injury.

The osteopath is being tried in the July 4 slaying of his pregnant wife, Marilyn, 31. He claims she was killed by a stranger who knocked him out and seriously injured his head and neck.

'Very Trivial'

It is the state's claim that any injuries Sheppard suffered that night were very trivial — although he wore his neck in a brace for weeks afterwards.

Mrs. Esther Houk, a Sheppard family friend, testified as a state witness that a sister of hers was in an accident last spring. The sister's auto was damaged but she was unhurt. The sister's insurance did not completely cover the damage.

She said she discussed the situation with Sheppard, and Asst. Prosecutor Saul Danaceau asked:

"Did he participate in a conversation with the subject of which was how to pretend a head injury?"

"He said that, as a doctor, he knew a head injury was the hardest to evaluate," replied Mrs. Houk over strong defense objections. "It pertained to the insurance in the case of an accident and, where there was no obvious injury, a head injury might be easily claimed as far as the insurance was concerned.

"Dr. Sam said in that particular case he knew as a doctor a head injury could very easily be claimed."

Mrs. Houk, a thin-faced, nervous witness, testified that Sheppard and his hazel-eyed wife quarreled occasionally—about cars he bought and about a dishwasher she installed when he was out of town.

Pictures Identified

Mrs. Houk's husband is mayor of Bay Village, the suburban community 12 miles west of here where the Sheppards lived. She was followed to the witness stand by Patrolman Fred F. Frenkhan, one of the village's seven-member police force. He was the first policeman on the scene of the murder.

Drenkhan identified two black and white pictures of Marilyn's battered body on her blood soaked bed. Then the trial recessed over the Veterans Day holiday until Friday. The jury went home with the vivid horror of the pictures as the final impression on their minds.

Mrs. Houk was the first person definitely known to have viewed the body of Marilyn in her bedroom after she was murdered.

'Didn't Look Real'

In a low voice, twisting her handkerchief, she told the jury, "there was so much blood it didn't look real."

Her husband, Mayor J. Spencer Houk, had preceded her on the stand. He testified he once appealed to Dr. Sheppard to confess the slaying if he was the murderer.

"I figure if it was done by you, it was done in bitter rage," Houk said he told Sheppard after the murder. "Sam replied that he couldn't have done it, hadn't done it."

Simple Solution

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS) —South Africa credited its scientists with developing an ingenious method of speedy transport of dangerously radioactive atomic materials—flying them on the wing tips of airplanes. Union Delegate W. C. Du Plessis told the U. N. Political Committee that the heavy protective shielding needed for such materials had prevented economical transport by air until the new method was developed.

Young Diller Trucker Dies

OMAHA (AP)—Art Weage, 19, of Diller, Neb., died at an Omaha hospital Wednesday of injuries suffered Monday in a two-truck accident two miles east of Louisville on State Highway 132.

Cass County Sheriff Tom Solomon said Weage was driving a truck loaded with about six tons of rock. He was going west. The sheriff said the young man's truck struck the rear end of a truck driven by Earl Albert of Louisville.

Albert was turning his truck, loaded with soybeans, into his driveway.

Top Sheared Off

The load of rock on Weage's truck piled forward after the collision, shearing the top off the truck and splitting the frame of the vehicle. Weage was pinned in the wreckage by the steering wheel.

Albert suffered bruises when his truck went into a ditch and turned onto its side.

The death raised Nebraska's 1954 traffic fatality total to 272, compared with 294 at this time last year.

Burglars' Favorite

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP) — While most firms have inventory once or twice a year, the Battle Creek Iron and Metal Co., checks each morning. Co-owner Herman Ginsberg says the office has been broken into by burglars so often—at least 20 times in the past year—that he has lost count. "It's getting so we come in every morning and look around to see what is missing. We even keep our safe door ajar so they won't batter it up or blow it open," he said.

W. E. Pratt Honored

CHICAGO (INS) — Wallace E. Pratt, internationally-known geologist, author and philosopher of Carlsbad, N. M., was awarded the American Petroleum Institute gold medal Wednesday for his "lifelong contributions to the nation through petroleum work." The 69-year-old scientist in response lauded the petroleum industry for having contributed more than any other source to the science of geology.

Accept no substitutes!

You can test floor polishes exactly the way the experts do it at Johnson's Wax famous Research Tower. Apply Hard Gloss Glo-Coat to half a kitchen floor and put any substitute brand on the other half.

Accept no substitutes!

You can test floor polishes exactly the way the experts do it at Johnson's Wax famous Research Tower. Apply Hard Gloss Glo-Coat to half a kitchen floor and put any substitute brand on the other half.

A dozen kitchen parties won't give your floor the rugged wear the Johnson's Wax test floor gets daily. For six weeks, hundreds walk on it and it's regularly damp-mopped. Then comes the Gloss Meter test . . .

'We Always Have A Chance'--Faurot

Fight Game Should Be A Business, Court Told

By HERB ALTSCHULL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government told the Supreme Court Wednesday boxing promoters have become so involved in nationwide television shows that the fight game should be officially declared to be a business within the meaning of the nation's antitrust laws.

This line of argument was taken by Philip Elman, special assistant to the Attorney General, in asking the high tribunal to order a lower court to bring to trial the government's civil suit that claims boxing violates the country's laws against monopolies.

Elman said the court's previous decisions exempting baseball from the antitrust laws should not be applied to boxing.

Frankfurter Suggests

And, spurred by a suggestion from Justice Felix Frankfurter, Elman told the court it shouldn't be "capricious" in dealing with the comparison between baseball and boxing. The two activities simply are not the same thing, Elman said.

Whitney North Seymour, New York attorney representing the International Boxing Club, challenged this statement directly. He said baseball and boxing are "precisely analagous."

And, Seymour said, the court must use its baseball decisions as a precedent for throwing out the government's claim and declaring boxing to be outside the scope of the antitrust laws.

Yes and No

The argument appeared to boil down to these questions:

1. Does the widespread use of radio, television and motion picture contracts by boxing promoters put them in interstate commerce?

2. Does the structure of boxing differ substantially from the structure of baseball?

3. When Congress declared baseball to be outside the scope of antitrust laws, was it tacitly putting boxing within those laws?

"Yes," said the government; "No," said the boxing people.

The Supreme Court will weigh these issues before coming up with a decision, which is not likely to be forthcoming for several months.

Elman said boxing promoters make so much of their money from television that "fights might just as well be put on in television studios."

More TV Money to Baseball

Seymour replied that baseball club owners make more money from television than fight promoters — "by 10 to 1."

Elman said that after the Supreme Court declared baseball outside the antitrust laws in 1922, the game developed its structure and controversial "reserve clause" with the understanding it wouldn't get involved in federal hassles.

For this reason, Elman said, to declare baseball to be in interstate commerce would force it to revolutionize its structure. But, he added, a court ruling in the government's favor here wouldn't force boxing to change any of its laws.

All Sports Exempted

Seymour and his fellow attorney, Charles H. Watson of Chicago, said congress and the court were well aware of the existence of boxing in 1922 and that boxing also used that 32-year-old ruling as the basis of its development.

Watson said congress could not have "closed its eyes" on boxing when it exempted baseball from interstate commerce. "If it exempted one sport," he said, "it exempted them all."

Intensive Pass Attack Work Marks Pitt Drill

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Intensive work on a passing attack marked a rugged practice session of the University of Pittsburgh's football team Wednesday.

At the same time, Capt. Tom Hamilton, Pitt's interim coach, gave close attention to option plays. His star quarterback, Corny Salvaterra, has shown to advantage with sparkling runs since Pitt hit the victory trail and won three straight games before bowing to Ohio State 26-0 last week.

Hamilton nominated 35 players to make the plane trip to Lincoln, for Saturday's encounter with Nebraska. The squad will leave Friday morning and will work out at Omaha University in the afternoon.

Coach Murray Warmath again drilled the 190-pound line smasher at both fullback and right half. McNamara played it both ways two weeks ago against Michigan State but was a fullback exclusively last Saturday against Oregon State.

The Gophers polished their offense again and then gave some attention to Iowa's so-called "sucker shift." Minnesota will be in peak physical condition for the struggle.

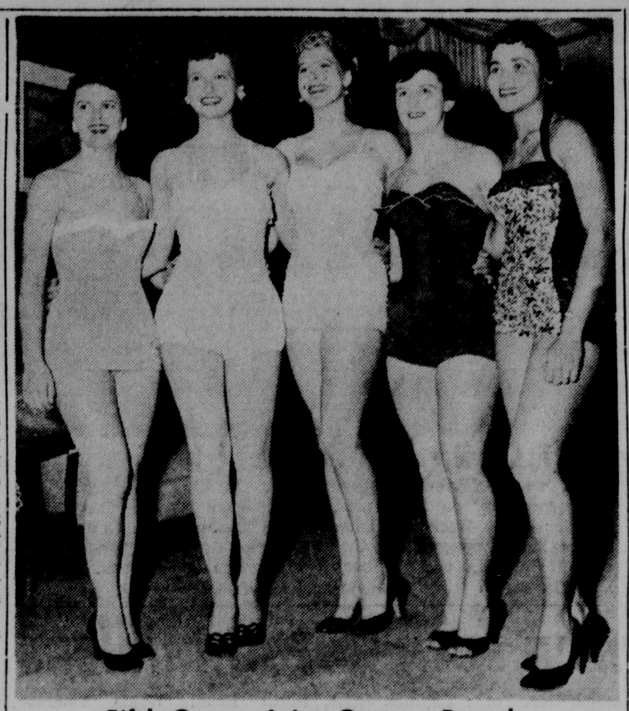
McNamara Primed

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota appeared to be priming galloping Bob McNamara Wednesday for another dual backfield role against Iowa in the teams' sellout battle here Saturday.

Buffs End Scrimmage

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—The Colorado Buffaloes had a final session of hard scrimmage Wednesday before meeting Utah at Salt Lake City Saturday.

Three reserves who were injured in practice, and Gerald Leahay, tackle Henry Smith and halfback Ron Campbell, probably will be out of Saturday's action.



Fifth Queen Joins Orange Parade

Tide Gains Undisputed Lead In Grid Defense

NEW YORK (AP)—By playing two consecutive scoreless ties, Alabama's football team has taken the undisputed lead in major college defense. They're the only scoreless ties in major competition this season, and it is the first time since 1938 any major team has played two in a row.

As a result of its 0-0 games with Georgia and Tulane, Alabama ranks first in total defense, pass defense, fewest points allowed and fewest points per game, NCAA Service Bureau statistics showed Wednesday.

In eight games, the Crimson Tide has yielded only 33 points, or 4.1 a game. It has allowed an overall average of 165.1 yards a game and 39.3 yards a game by passing. Bama has been notably efficient at knocking down enemy passes, letting only 29.8 per cent be completed.

Alabama A Natural Leader

In view of the scoreless games, its natural that Alabama should have such defensive statistics and just as natural that it should be absent from the offensive leaders.

Free-wheeling Army leads in total offense and rushing and Purdue in passing.

The one important defensive category where Alabama doesn't show among the top 10 is rushing defense. There Clemson vaulted into first place from sixth while Yale, the former leader, dropped to seventh.

Yale started its game with Army with a 62.2 yard average, which it couldn't match for even one play. Army's first try was a 64-yard touchdown run. Now Yale's average is 98.9.

Clemson Smothers Enemy

Clemson held Furman to 15 yards on the ground and brought its average down to 77—seven yards a game yielded. Penn State turned in the season's best ground defense job last Saturday, stopping Holy Cross with minus 32 yards rushing, taking over ninth place.

Right on Alabama's defensive heels comes Boston College with a total average of 166.4 yards yielded per game and 44.6 yards by passing. B. C. has allowed 30.3 per cent completions and third-place Richmond 32.4 per cent.

From another viewpoint, the most devastating pass defense is Navy's. The Midshipmen, picking off seven Duke passes last Saturday, now have intercepted 24 of 113 passes thrown at them, going ahead of UCLA, which has intercepted 23 of 193.

UCLA Tops All Around

UCLA, second in "scoring" defense with only five opposition points a game, also is the top scoring team with 41.6—a spread of 36.6 points.

New Mexico, whose Fullback A. L. Terpening is the individual leader, has the best punting average, 43.1 yards for 35 kicks.

Letter, Wire Drive Started By Omahans

OMAHA (AP)—Telegrams and letters by the bucketful are going out from Omaha to President Ed Doherty of the American Association baseball league urging the league to put a team in Omaha, replacing the city's Western League entry.

Chairman Al Sorensen of the Omaha Civic Baseball Committee said Doherty had telephoned to say he was "impressed" by the flood of telegrams and letters and that "naturally we want to go where we are wanted—and you are making it plain to us that Omaha wants in the Association."

Association owners are to meet next week to talk over their situation now that Kansas City is entering the American League.

Doherty did not indicate to Sorensen what he thought Omaha's chances are to enter the Association, but, Sorensen said, did comment that Omaha was "high on the list."

Tiger Coach Optimistic Over Opportunity Upset Oklahoma

By BOB GALLIMORE

COLUMBIA, Mo., (AP)—"We always figure we have a chance to win until its proven otherwise," says Coach Don Faurot of Missouri's prospects Saturday against third-ranked Oklahoma.

This despite the fact his Tigers haven't beaten the Sooners in eight seasons—not since their 14-6 victory in 1945.

"We've always got a chance," Faurot reiterated Wednesday, making it plain that he approaches every game with the idea of winning and Oklahoma will be no exception.

"It's the toughest game on our schedule," he said, "and we'll have to play the best ball of the season to win." The squad realizes that, he said.

Tigers Pointing

Are the Tigers "pointing" for this one?

"We point for all of them."

Well, what about scoring, in view of the fact that Oklahoma has allowed only one Big Seven opponent to score against it? (Colorado) Do you think Missouri can penetrate Oklahoma's defense?

"Scoring will be tough, but we hope to do some. We'll have to, to win."

You got the idea that he wasn't entertaining the thought of defeat, although Missouri's record this season is so-so at 3-3-1.

So how does Faurot expect to beat the Sooners? Something special in the way of plays, maybe?

"We'll depend on our regular offensive plays," the coach said, adding that if he did have something special cooked up he would not talk about it.

Sooners Tough on Defense

It's a sure bet, however, that Faurot is giving plenty of attention to the problem of piercing Oklahoma's rock - hard defense against rushing. The Sooners held Kansas to 37 yards on the ground, Kansas State never got closer to the Oklahoma goal than the 28, and Iowa State was blanked.

Physically, Faurot says his squad is in fair shape. Tackle Charles Gentry is on the doubtful list with a sore knee and halfback Ray Detring, a 200-pound junior, has withdrawn from school. But Faurot expects others who have been on his injured list to see at least limited action.

Giant Goliath To Appear On Birthday Card

The Old Professor is one week away from a birthday, and it's going to be a big one—perhaps one which will bring back memories of his early days in the wrestling ring.

Prof. Adam Krieger, Lincoln wrestling promoter, will be 58 Tuesday, Nov. 16. Since that's wrestling night, he has a special card lined up.

The Mighty Goliath, a 7-foot 2-inch, 302-pound Polish giant, will head the card. The big Pole, reputedly the tallest wrestler in the world, played the part of Goliath in the movie "David and Bathsheba" two years ago.

His opponent has not been named but the Professor is busy finding one now. He has wired Tiger John Pesek of Ravenna — now retired from active competition except for an occasional guest appearance—in an attempt to sign him as an opponent for Goliath.

"I've wired others," Krieger said Wednesday, "but I prefer John. He always used to say 'The bigger they are, the harder they fall.'"

The rest of the birthday program and Goliath's opponent will be announced later.

Huskers Favored Over Pittsburgh

'They're Nuts,' Says Glassford When Told Of 5½-Point Margin

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

Nebraska has been established as a 5½ point favorite over Pittsburgh in Saturday's Homecoming extravaganza at Memorial Stadium and Coach Bill Glassford has established the bookies as idiots.

"They're NUTS," Glassford fumed Wednesday afternoon before his legions went through a brief scrimmage session.

"There are no such things as odds in football and there is absolutely no possible way anyone in their right mind could figure us favorites over Pittsburgh," Bill added.

However, the smart money boys have stated their point price and the Huskers will have to assume the role of the favorite despite the fact that three of a not-too-deep end squad will definitely be watching from the bleachers.

Two More Out

It had already been announced that Jack Braley's chest infection — which is on the mend — would cause him to miss the game, but Wednesday Glassford announced that LeRoy Butherus and Dean Lux would also not be ready. The latter two are due to shed their casts—both suffered aikle sprains at Kansas—Saturday, but they will not be able to play.

Butherus and Lux are definitely expected to be ready for Oklahoma next week, while Braley stands a good chance of rounding into shape for the Sooners, but his status is still shaky.

Also definitely slated for duty Saturday are Charley Bryant, game captain and All-Big Seven candidate, and Bill Taylor, guards who were banged up at KU.

Wednesday's rough stuff consisted of defensive drills for the new ends—Jon McWilliams and Sylvester Harris—as well as the other ends. Harris and McWilliams can fit in at either left or right end.

The Huskers have also been "working very hard on passing" this week, but just how much stress will be put on the aerial game will probably depend on how Nebraska's dangerous and hard-running backs make out against the big Pitt line.

Rex Fischer, Oakland junior, is currently operating as the No. 3 unit quarterback in scrimmage sessions. His return to action adds depth to the quarterback post and Glassford would like to be able to use him more. In his first try at carrying the ball this year last week at Kansas he ran 47 yards on a keeper play and almost scored a last-second TD.

Frosh Are Pitt

Nebraska freshmen footballers aer playing the part of the Pittsburgh Panthers in practice sessions this week.

Glassford, after watching the frosh run Pitt plays against the varsity, said he was very pleased at the promise shown.

"We've got some pretty good boys on this freshman team and they should help us a lot in the future," Bill said.

16 Seniors

Sixteen University of Nebraska seniors will play their last home game here Saturday in the Pitt-Husker contest.

The list includes: Bill Giles of Alliance and Andy Loehr of Turtle Creek, Pa., ends; Pev Evans of Rapid City, S. D., Don Glantz of Central City, Bill Holloran of Schuyler and Ken Kunes of Maywood, Ill., tackles; Charles Bryant of Omaha, Tom Kripal of Omaha and Bob Wagner of Lincoln, guards; Bob Oberlin of West Allis, Wis., center; Dan Brown of Sioux Falls, S. D., quarterback; Ron Clark of Ravenna, left halfback; Dennis Korinek of Ulysses and Dirkes Rolston of Forsyth, Mont., right halfbacks; Ken Moore, Mt. Vernon, Ia., and Bob Smith of Grand Island, fullbacks.

Class Of 1914

The University of Nebraska football team of 1914 will hold its 40th reunion during the Homecoming week end which features the Pittsburgh-Nebraska football game Saturday.

Lettermen of the 1914 squad include H. H. (Tim) Corey, B. Guy Chamberlin, E. C. Fouts, John Gross, G. M. Porter, M. R. Selzer, P. L. Shields, E. L. Abbott, R. F. Cameron, Warren Howard, Earl Hawkins, Vic Halligan, Herbert Potter and R. E. Rutherford.

Halligan, who was captain of the team, has been handling the arrangements. Now a North Platte attorney, Mr. Halligan said there would be between 16 and 17 here, some of them not lettermen but members of the squad.

They will be seated in a special section. The reunions were begun a year ago with the 1913 squad.

Blaik Will Miss Army-Penn Tangle

WEST POINT, N. Y. (AP) — The Army disclosed Wednesday night that football Coach Earl (Red) Blaik has pneumonia and will miss the Army-Penn game at Philadelphia Saturday.

It will be the first time in his career as a head coach that Blaik has failed to be on hand for a game played by his team.

Col. Douglas Kendrick, the post surgeon, said Blaik will remain in the hospital another week but should be well in time to plan strategy for the Navy game.

Capt. Bobby Dobbs, defensive backfield coach, will direct the team against Penn.

Visit Pays Off

BRAZZAVILLE, French Africa (AP)—Mal Whitfield's recent goodwill visit here already is paying dividends.

For years soccer players and bicycle riders among the local African population have taken the names of great French champions in these sports for nicknames.

Now every runner in town is calling himself "Whitfield."

An Orphan Comes Home . . .

The month is November and the Nebraska prep football season is almost in the books, but one of the best teams in the state will be bowing before Cornhusker fans for the first time Friday night.

Boys Town is the team and Creighton Stadium is the place as the once-defeated Cowboys of the heavy line meet the swift Jays of the sudden attack.

Nobody knows the ability of Boys Town and no one will until the game is over Friday, but in a state where the Class A football generally is poor the acceptance of a consistently strong team probably cannot hurt the development of the Cornhusker fall sport.

Boys Town has played before 69,500 fans while winning seven and losing one this fall. North Catholic of Pittsburg, Pa. beat the Cowboys with a fourth-quarter passing attack at Forbes Field after Boys Town had built a 27-0 lead.

So the Cowboys don't seem invincible. Merely able. Jim Cook, the best basketball player the Cowboys had that night in the Coliseum when Al Graves wrecked B. T. with 40 points in the state tournament last spring, is a regular Boys Town end at 185 pounds.

Rich Badillo is the leading scorer as a 185-pound fullback off the T. Center Frank Curry (225 pounds) almost charged Boys Town to victory over Prep last fall.

Big Ten Conference scoring champion this season is Kearney High's Mal Dohrman, a pounding fullback who scored 81 points and outpointed the 1953 king, Clair Boroff of Grand Island.

Dohrman has a heavy backer for state honors in Chuck Eisenmann of the Kearney Hub. He rates the Bearcat back with the best he has seen in the Nebraska College Conference this fall.

At Eagle the 6-man cheers are for Lowell Umland, a 175-pound runner who has scored 22 touchdowns and led the Cass County team in tackling this fall. His supporters include coaches, officials and fans.

Big Larry Cook of Chester will be backed heavily for 6-man all-state honors according to the talk rising out of southern Nebraska. The tall and husky Chester back plunges well and throws a smooth ball.

The Bulldog who receives the most praise on the Talmage 6-man club is Gene Meyer, a 6-0 halfback who has run wild in southeast Nebr. on 180 pounds this season.

Most harried officials in the state last week? May have been the three who worked the Blair-Holy Name game. The Omaha team won and the refs felt heavy pressure from the fans.

Big Bob (Moon) Mullen of N. U. scraps roused the Blair faithful when he penalized the home team 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct. Seems a Blair back persisted in throwing the ball to the ground following the ref's whistle. The ball bounced down-field and delayed the game so Moon bucked the fans and called the penalty.

Lincoln, Houston Midgets Tabbed

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Houston, Tex., and Lincoln, Neb., were picked Wednesday for the Santa Claus Bowl football games for small boys.

Two other teams will be picked later. There will be two preliminary games here Dec. 28, and the winners will play for the championship the following night.

The Lakeland Chamber of Commerce and the Pop Warner Foundation sponsor the games, limited to boys under 110 pounds and under 13 years old.

Royals Beat Hawks

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Rookie Bob Pettit, former Louisiana State All-America, scored 25 points Wednesday night as the Rochester Royals defeated the Milwaukee Hawks 90-86. The defeat was the fifth straight for the Hawks in the National Basketball Assn.

Andrews Racks Up Win Over Varona

CHICAGO (AP) — Rugged Al Andrews, his nose bleeding freely from the fifth round on, Wednesday night pounded out a 10-round decision over fast-punching Chico Varona of Havana, Cuba, in a non-televised headliner at Chicago Stadium.

A crowd of about 7,000 booed the decision lustily. Referee Frank Gilmer scored it 97-94 for Andrews. Judge Ed Hintz favored the Superior, Wis., youth 95-92. Judge Lou Capparelli called it a 95-95 draw.

1954 Links Speediest—And Scoringest

By RON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Member

Two more superlatives have been applied to Lincoln High's 1954 state football champions, already acclaimed one of the best Lincoln teams in history.

Bill Pfeiff says it's the fastest team he's had since coming to Lincoln as head coach in 1946. And a check of the records showed it was the scoringest team in Lincoln's long football history.

The Links, whose 60-point burst against Northeast in the season finale boosted their season scoring total to 387, set a one-year record. Their total eclipsed by 10 points the old season record of 377 set by the 1925 Lincoln.

This Lincoln crew was Pfeiff's third undefeated Lincoln team. Others were in 1951 and 1952, when the Links won state championships. The 1954 team compares favorably with those teams, the undefeated 1941 eleven, and the fine teams of 1929 and 1925.

One of the outstanding features of the 1954 crew was its overall speed. Backs like Roger Krhounek (109 points), Ron Galois (66 points) and Mike Lee (65 points), all breakaway threats, added greatly to the team speed but the "zoom" wasn't concentrated in the backfield.

There was plenty of zip in Ed Schwartzkopf's starting line. For example, ends Gary Smith and Cliff Hardesty, who weigh 135 and 144 pounds respectively, were light and extremely quick.

Bill Pfeiff Ed Schwartzkopf

Jack Duffeck, a converted end, and Ken Peterson were unusually fast for high school tackles. Guards Gene Hruza and Gail Baum—watchcharm types for sure—were sure and speedy blockers. Sophomore center Dwight Meierhenry was one of the slower linemen but he and his pivot partner, Craig Callen, had the knack of being in the right place at the right time.

Lincoln's good depth—the 27-man squad was fairly well balanced—was also a factor as Lincoln averaged 43 points per game in nine games. The Links' defense average was eight points allowed per game. In its last two games, Lincoln allowed Omaha Tech and Northeast a combined total of only 15 yards rushing.

All 27 men who finished the season were awarded letters at an honors assembly Wednesday. Of the 27 letter winners, eight will return next season. The lettermen (lettermen who will return in 1955 listed in blackface type):

Fight Game Should Be A Business, Court Told

By HERB ALTSCHULL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government told the Supreme Court Wednesday boxing promoters have become so involved in nationwide television shows that the fight game should be officially declared to be a business within the meaning of the nation's antitrust laws.

This line of argument was taken by Philip Elman, special assistant to the Attorney General, in asking the high tribunal to order a lower court to bring to trial the government's civil suit that claims boxing violates the country's laws against monopolies.

Elman said the court's previous decisions exempting baseball from the antitrust laws should not be applied to boxing.

Frankfurter Suggests

And, spurred by a suggestion from Justice Felix Frankfurter, Elman told the court it shouldn't be "capricious" in dealing with the comparison between baseball and boxing. The two activities simply are not the same thing, Elman said.

Whitney North Seymour, New York attorney representing the International Boxing Club, challenged this statement directly. He said baseball and boxing are "precisely analagous."

And, Seymour said, the court must use its baseball decisions as a precedent for throwing out the government's claim and declaring boxing to be outside the scope of the antitrust laws.

Yes and No

The argument appeared to boil down to these questions:

1. Does the widespread use of radio, television and motion picture contracts by boxing promoters put them in interstate commerce?

2. Does the structure of boxing differ substantially from the structure of baseball?

3. When Congress declared baseball to be outside the scope of antitrust laws, was it tacitly putting boxing within those laws?

"Yes," said the government; "No," said the boxing people.

The Supreme Court will weigh these issues before coming up with a decision, which is not likely to be forthcoming for several months.

Elman said boxing promoters make so much of their money from television that "fights might just as well be put on in television studios."

More TV Money to Baseball

Seymour replied that baseball club owners make more money from television than fight promoters — "by 10 to 1."

Elman said that after the Supreme Court declared baseball outside the antitrust laws in 1922, the game developed its structure and controversial "reserve clause" with the understanding it wouldn't get involved in federal hassles.

For this reason, Elman said, to declare baseball to be in interstate commerce would force it to revolutionize its structure. But, he added, a court ruling in the government's favor here wouldn't force boxing to change any of its laws.

All Sports Exempted

Seymour and his fellow attorney, Charles H. Watson of Chicago, said congress and the court were well aware of the existence of boxing in 1922 and that boxing also used that 32-year-old ruling as the basis of its development.

Watson said congress could not have "closed its eyes" on boxing when it exempted baseball from interstate commerce. "If it exempted one sport," he said, "it exempted them all."

Fifth Queen Joins Orange Parade

Intensive Pass Attack Work Marks Pitt Drill

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Intensive work on a passing attack marked a rugged practice session of the University of Pittsburgh's football team Wednesday.

At the same time, Capt. Tom Hamilton, Pitt's interim coach, gave close attention to option plays. His star quarterback, Corny Salvaterra, has shown to advantage with sparkling runs since Pitt hit the victory trail and won three straight games before bowing to Ohio State 26-0 last week.

Hamilton nominated 35 players to make the plane trip to Lincoln, for Saturday's encounter with Nebraska. The squad will leave Friday morning and will work out at Omaha University in the afternoon.

Coach Murray Warmath again drilled the 190-pound line smasher at both fullback and right half. McNamara played it both ways two weeks ago against Michigan State but was a fullback exclusively last Saturday against Oregon State.

The Gophers polished their offense again and then gave some attention to Iowa's so-called "sucker shift." Minnesota will be in peak physical condition for the struggle.

Buffs End Scrimmage

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—The Colorado Buffaloes had a final session of hard scrimmage Wednesday before meeting Utah at Salt Lake City Saturday.

Three reserves who were injured in practice, and Gerald Leahay, tackle Henry Smith and halfback Ron Campbell, probably will be out of Saturday's action.

McNamara Primed

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota appeared to be priming galloping Bob McNamara Wednesday for another dual backfield role against Iowa in the teams' sellout battle here Saturday.

Tide Gains Undisputed Lead In Grid Defense

NEW YORK (AP)—By playing two consecutive scoreless ties, Alabama's football team has taken the undisputed lead in major college defense. They're the only scoreless ties in major competition this season, and it is the first time since 1938 any major team has played two in a row.

As a result of its 0-0 games with Georgia and Tulane, Alabama ranks first in total defense, pass defense, fewest points allowed and fewest points per game, NCAA Service Bureau statistics showed Wednesday.

In eight games, the Crimson Tide has yielded only 33 points, or 4.1 a game. It has allowed an overall average of 165.1 yards a game and 39.3 yards a game by passing. Bama has been notably efficient at knocking down enemy passes, letting only 29.8 per cent be completed.

Alabama A Natural Leader

In view of the scoreless games, its natural that Alabama should have such defensive statistics and just as natural that it should be absent from the offensive leaders.

Free-wheeling Army leads in total offense and rushing and Purdue in passing.

The one important defensive category where Alabama doesn't show among the top 10 is rushing defense. There Clemson vaulted into first place from sixth while Yale, the former leader, dropped to seventh.

Yale started its game with Army with a 62.2 yard average, which it couldn't match for even one play. Army's first try was a 64-yard touchdown run. Now Yale's average is 98.9.

Clemson Smothers Enemy

Clemson held Furman to 15 yards on the ground and brought its average down to 77—seven yards a game yielded. Penn State turned in the season's best ground defense job last Saturday, stopping Holy Cross with minus 32 yards rushing, taking over ninth place.

Right on Alabama's defensive heels comes Boston College with a total average of 166.4 yards yielded per game and 44.6 yards by passing. B. C. has allowed 30.3 per cent completions and third-place Richmond 32.4 per cent.

From another viewpoint, the most devastating pass defense is Navy's. The Midshipmen, picking off seven Duke passes last Saturday, now have intercepted 24 of 113 passes thrown at them, going ahead of UCLA, which has intercepted 23 of 193.

UCLA Tops All Around

UCLA, second in "scoring" defense with only five opposition points a game, also is the top scoring team with 41.6—a spread of 36.6 points.

New Mexico, whose Fullback A. L. Terpening is the individual leader, has the best punting average, 43.1 yards for 35 kicks.

Letter, Wire Drive Started By Omahans

OMAHA (AP)—Telegrams and letters by the bucketful are going out from Omaha to President Ed Doherty of the American Association baseball league urging the league to put a team in Omaha, replacing the city's Western League entry.

Chairman Al Sorensen of the Omaha Civic Baseball Committee said Doherty had telephoned to say he was "impressed" by the flood of telegrams and letters and that "naturally we want to go where we are wanted—and you are making it plain to us that Omaha wants in the Association."

Association owners are to meet next week to talk over their situation now that Kansas City is entering the American League.

Doherty did not indicate to Sorensen what he thought Omaha's chances are to enter the Association, but, Sorensen said, did comment that Omaha was "high on the list."

Tiger Coach Optimistic Over Opportunity Upset Oklahoma

By BOB GALLIMORE

COLUMBIA, Mo., (AP)—"We always figure we have a chance to win until its proven otherwise," says Coach Don Faurot of Missouri's prospects Saturday against third-ranked Oklahoma.

This despite the fact his Tigers haven't beaten the Sooners in eight seasons—not since their 14-6 victory in 1945.

"We've always got a chance," Faurot reiterated Wednesday, making it plain that he approaches every game with the idea of winning and Oklahoma will be no exception.

"It's the toughest game on our schedule," he said, "and we'll have to play the best ball of the season to win." The squad realizes that, he said.

Tigers Pointing

Are the Tigers "pointing" for this one?

"We point for all of them."

Well, what about scoring, in view of the fact that Oklahoma has allowed only one Big Seven opponent to score against it? (Colorado) Do you think Missouri can penetrate Oklahoma's defense?

"Scoring will be tough, but we hope to do some. We'll have to, to win."

You got the idea that he wasn't entertaining the thought of defeat, although Missouri's record this season is so-so at 3-3-1.

So how does Faurot expect to beat the Sooners? Something special in the way of plays, maybe?

"We'll depend on our regular offensive plays," the coach said, adding that if he did have something special cooked up he would not talk about it.

Sooners Tough on Defense

It's a sure bet, however, that Faurot is giving plenty of attention to the problem of piercing Oklahoma's rock - hard defense against rushing. The Sooners held Kansas to 37 yards on the ground, Kansas State never got closer to the Oklahoma goal than the 28, and Iowa State was blanked.

Physically, Faurot says his squad is in fair shape. Tackle Charles Gentry is on the doubtful list with a sore knee and halfback Ray Detring, a 200-pound junior, has withdrawn from school. But Faurot expects others who have been on his injured list to see at least limited action.

Giant Goliath To Appear On Birthday Card

The Old Professor is one week away from a birthday, and it's going to be a big one—perhaps one which will bring back memories of his early days in the wrestling ring.

Prof. Adam Krieger, Lincoln wrestling promoter, will be 58 Tuesday, Nov. 16. Since that's wrestling night, he has a special card lined up.

The Mighty Goliath, a 7-foot 2-inch, 302-pound Polish giant, will head the card. The big Pole, reputedly the tallest wrestler in the world, played the part of Goliath in the movie "David and Bathsheba" two years ago.

His opponent has not been named but the Professor is busy finding one now. He has wired Tiger John Pesek of Ravenna — now retired from active competition except for an occasional guest appearance—in an attempt to sign him as an opponent for Goliath.

"I've wired others," Krieger said Wednesday, "but I prefer John. He always used to say 'The bigger they are, the harder they fall.'"

The rest of the birthday program and Goliath's opponent will be announced later.

Huskers Favored Over Pittsburgh

'They're Nuts,' Says Glassford When Told Of 5½-Point Margin

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

Nebraska has been established as a 5½ point favorite over Pittsburgh in Saturday's Homecoming extravaganza at Memorial Stadium and Coach Bill Glassford has established the bookies as idiots.

"They're NUTS," Glassford fumed Wednesday afternoon before his legions went through a brief scrimmage session.

"There are no such things as odds in football and there is absolutely no possible way anyone in their right mind could figure us favorites over Pittsburgh," Bill added.

However, the smart money boys have stated their point price and the Huskers will have to assume the role of the favorite despite the fact that three of a not-too-deep end squad will definitely be watching from the bleachers.

Two More Out

It had already been announced that Jack Braley's chest infection — which is on the mend — would cause him to miss the game, but Wednesday Glassford announced that LeRoy Butherus and Dean Lux would also not be ready. The latter two are due to shed their casts—both suffered aikle sprains at Kansas—Saturday, but they will not be able to play.

Butherus and Lux are definitely expected to be ready for Oklahoma next week, while Braley stands a good chance of rounding into shape for the Sooners, but his status is still shaky.

Also definitely slated for duty Saturday are Charley Bryant, game captain and All-Big Seven candidate, and Bill Taylor, guards who were banged up at KU.

Wednesday's rough stuff consisted of defensive drills for the new ends—Jon McWilliams and Sylvester Harris—as well as the other ends. Harris and McWilliams can fit in at either left or right end.

The Huskers have also been "working very hard on passing" this week, but just how much stress will be put on the aerial game will probably depend on how Nebraska's dangerous and hard-running backs make out against the big Pitt line.

Rex Fischer, Oakland junior, is currently operating as the No. 3 unit quarterback in scrimmage sessions. His return to action adds depth to the quarterback post and Glassford would like to be able to use him more. In his first try at carrying the ball this year last week at Kansas he ran 47 yards on a keeper play and almost scored a last-second TD.

Frosh Are Pitt

Nebraska freshmen footballers aer playing the part of the Pittsburgh Panthers in practice sessions this week.

Glassford, after watching the frosh run Pitt plays against the varsity, said he was very pleased at the promise shown.

"We've got some pretty good boys on this freshman team and they should help us a lot in the future," Bill said.

16 Seniors

Sixteen University of Nebraska seniors will play their last home game here Saturday in the Pitt-Husker contest.

The list includes: Bill Giles of Alliance and Andy Loehr of Turtle Creek, Pa., ends; Pev Evans of Rapid City, S. D., Don Glantz of Central City, Bill Holloran of Schuyler and Ken Kunes of Maywood, Ill., tackles; Charles Bryant of Omaha, Tom Kripal of Omaha and Bob Wagner of Lincoln, guards; Bob Oberlin of West Allis, Wis., center; Dan Brown of Sioux Falls, S. D., quarterback; Ron Clark of Ravenna, left halfback; Dennis Korinek of Ulysses and Dirkes Rolston of Forsyth, Mont., right halfbacks; Ken Moore, Mt. Vernon, Ia., and Bob Smith of Grand Island, fullbacks.

Class Of 1914

The University of Nebraska football team of 1914 will hold its 40th reunion during the Homecoming week end which features the Pittsburgh-Nebraska football game Saturday.

Lettermen of the 1914 squad include H. H. (Tim) Corey, B. Guy Chamberlin, E. C. Fouts, John Gross, G. M. Porter, M. R. Selzer, P. L. Shields, E. L. Abbott, R. F. Cameron, Warren Howard, Earl Hawkins, Vic Halligan, Herbert Potter and R. E. Rutherford.

Halligan, who was captain of the team, has been handling the arrangements. Now a North Platte attorney, Mr. Halligan said there would be between 16 and 17 here, some of them not lettermen but members of the squad.

They will be seated in a special section. The reunions were begun a year ago with the 1913 squad.

Blaik Will Miss Army-Penn Tangle

WEST POINT, N. Y. (AP)—The Army disclosed Wednesday night that football Coach Earl (Red) Blaik has pneumonia and will miss the Army-Penn game at Philadelphia Saturday.

It will be the first time in his career as a head coach that Blaik has failed to be on hand for a game played by his team.

Col. Douglas Kendrick, the post surgeon, said Blaik will remain in the hospital another week but should be well in time to plan strategy for the Navy game.

Capt. Bobby Dobbs, defensive backfield coach, will direct the team against Penn.

Visit Pays Off

BRAZZAVILLE, French Africa (AP)—Mal Whitfield's recent goodwill visit here already is paying dividends.

For years soccer players and bicycle riders among the local African population have taken the names of great French champions in these sports for nicknames.

Now every runner in town is calling himself "Whitfield."

Army-Navy Battle Will Oppose 2 'Great' Ends

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP) — Two great ends, probably the best in the East, if not the entire nation, and two outstanding quarterbacks will oppose one another when Army and Navy meet in their annual football match at Philadelphia, Nov. 27.

And at this stage there's little doubt that the crowd of 90,000, plus countless television watchers, will see two teams that are the East's very best in a fitting windup to the 1954 season. It already shapes up as the kind of game every fan hopes to see when he shells out hard-earned money for a hard-to-get ticket.

The teams are alike in so many ways that even the members of Lou Little's "club" of coaches who have taken unmerciful beatings from one or both service teams can't decide between them.

One More Warmup

Each team has one more game next Saturday before starting final preparations for their annual meeting. Navy takes on Columbia, already beaten 67-12 by Army, and Army meets Penn, a 52-6 victim of Navy. Their scores against two other common opponents this season look as if they had been trying to outdo each other.

Chunky Eddie Erdelazt who deserted pro football in 1950 to become Navy coach, unhesitatingly calls this his best Navy team. Army's Earl (Red) Blaik says his Cadets are "a good offensive team." Statistics show Blaik is guilty of understatement. Army teams in total offense and rushing.

One Arm, One End

Army's mainstays are quarterback Pete Vann, as smooth and deceptive a ball handler as you'll see anywhere and a strong-armed passer, and Don Holleder, a tall end.

Navy's glamor boy is end Ronnie Beagle, touted as an All-America candidate, but quarterback George Welsh, who almost lost his job to Dick Echard earlier, has been a very important factor in recent games.

Erdelatz gives his enthusiasm free rein when he talks about Beagle and most observers agree. "He's a good pass receiver, a good tackler, a good blocker—he's even good during the week in practice," Eddie raves. Army's end coach, Paul Amen, tabs Holleder as the best pass receiver he has coached, but Don's specialty is downfield blocking.

He's a Blaik Boy

Vann, as a senior, handles the ball with that superb deception that is the mark of the best Blaik-coached quarterbacks. His long passes are good and receivers like Holleder sometimes have made his bad pitches look good.

Against Notre Dame Welsh came into his own as a quarterback, passing repeatedly to Beagle to threaten the Irish. In the 40-7 rout of Duke he used mainly a ground game, tossing occasionally to the halfbacks to keep the Duke defenders honest.

The two teams have strong assets in common, quickness and desire—qualities nearly every coach seeks in a football team. Their linemen take off so fast when the ball is snapped that there usually is a big hole in the opposing line when the backs come through. And they're always trying to throw that extra block or to pursue and gang tackle the ball carriers, even at the expense of penalties.

Elm Street Tigers Conduct Business With More Dignity Than A's–Martin

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK (AP)—We're still waiting for some one to say "positively," but right now it looks like the Athletics' franchise which has been leap-frogging back and forth between Philadelphia and Kansas City has finally come to rest in the western metropolis.

The Elm Street Tigers voting on a prospective new member in the shack back of Stinky Stover's house probably would go about their business with stately dignity compared to the manner the American League has handled the transfer of the erstwhile Mack empire.

More than one business man, following the in-again-out-again negotiations in some bewilderment, has wondered out loud how baseball can prosper at all considering the confusion that accompanies what on the surface would seem to be a routine transaction.

Maybe routine isn't the right word, as there are far-flung complications which an ordinary buying and selling deal does not have.

For one thing, it is something of an A, B, C situation, although not as simple as ABC by any means. That is, the moving of a franchise into the territory of a league of lesser classification means that the club in the city thus invaded must seek a home in another city in a league of still lesser classification.

And so it is a 10-pin situation, with the action of the major league affecting leagues all the way down the line through D, if each of the towns which now has a club wants to stay in baseball and each of the leagues wants to maintain its present strength. The little league is safe, the last we heard.

There is no way of estimating accurately right now the number of lives which will be affected by the Kansas City shift, but it probably will run into four figures.

It takes quite a staff to operate a major league franchise, even when it is operated on a shoestring. Many of the employees rely on their wages for their livings. Others augment their incomes by part time work at the park.

Former Pitt Star Dies

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Dr. Robert G. Hogan, 43-year-old dentist who starred at quarterback for the University of Pittsburgh's powerhouse 1932 football team, died Wednesday in Meadville City Hospital.

'Forward March,' Says Liska As Seer Picks Several Upsets

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — The football season is waning, a good thing for the Midwest Seer whose crystal ball seems to have blown a fuse. Two underdogs, Miami of Ohio and Boston College, and relentless Ohio State upset us last Saturday. Oh well, forward march with the accent on the shorteenders:

PURDUE 19, OHIO STATE 14—We've been waiting all season for the "automatic" loser which perennially plagues Ohio State. . . . This is it, provided Len Dawson is on target and a good Boilermaker line is at its best. . . . The game is at old Purdue, feared by many since the days of Stagg. . . . Ohio State is a 7-point favorite.

MINNESOTA 14, IOWA 7 — Iowa's last two sparkling triumphs over Wisconsin and Purdue were at Iowa City. . . . College footballers like that home hollering, so we'll string with the Gophers, whose only loss in seven games was at Michigan. . . . It should be a crackling battle between two well-drilled clubs. . . . Iowa is a 5½ point choice.

WISCONSIN 20, ILLINOIS 7 — Alan (The Horse) Ameche should be the difference. . . . However, the Illini may be keyed for revenge against the Badgers who last year withered Illinois' Rose Bowl and undisputed Big Ten title chance. . . . Even in good health, J. C. Caroline was halted by Wisconsin last fall.

MICHIGAN STATE 14, MICHIGAN 13—This hot intrastate rivalry finds the Spartans approaching their old form in time to hang a second Big-Ten loss on the Rose Bowl-hopeful Wolverines. . . . The neighborhood fuss will pack 97,000 into Michigan's huge deep-rooted stadium.

INDIANA 7, NORTHWESTERN 6—Injuries have pared the buffeted Wildcats down to one quarterback, sophomore Dale Pienta, and even he is lame. . . . This one is for the Big-Ten fumbling championship with Northwestern owning 38 bobbles for the season and the Hoosiers 27.

NOTRE DAME 21, NORTH CAROLINA 7—Without injured center Dick Syzmanski, the Irish won't make this the runaway it might have been. . . . In fact, it may be quite a debate. . . . The Tar Heels showed plenty of life last Saturday in downing South Carolina which handed Army its only loss.

MARQUETTE 21, COLLEGE OF PACIFIC 20 — Maybe this time something will go right for the Warriors . . . COP is favored by seven points.

Hastings Accepts Mineral Bowl Bid

The Elm Street Tigers voting on a prospective new member in the shack back of Stinky Stover's house probably would go about their business with stately dignity compared to the manner the American League has handled the transfer of the erstwhile Mack empire.

More than one business man, following the in-again-out-again negotiations in some bewilderment, has wondered out loud how baseball can prosper at all considering the confusion that accompanies what on the surface would seem to be a routine transaction.

Maybe routine isn't the right word, as there are far-flung complications which an ordinary buying and selling deal does not have.

For one thing, it is something of an A, B, C situation, although not as simple as ABC by any means. That is, the moving of a franchise into the territory of a league of lesser classification means that the club in the city thus invaded must seek a home in another city in a league of still lesser classification.

And so it is a 10-pin situation, with the action of the major league affecting leagues all the way down the line through D, if each of the towns which now has a club wants to stay in baseball and each of the leagues wants to maintain its present strength. The little league is safe, the last we heard.

There is no way of estimating accurately right now the number of lives which will be affected by the Kansas City shift, but it probably will run into four figures.

It takes quite a staff to operate a major league franchise, even when it is operated on a shoestring. Many of the employees rely on their wages for their livings. Others augment their incomes by part time work at the park.

Former Pitt Star Dies

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Dr. Robert G. Hogan, 43-year-old dentist who starred at quarterback for the University of Pittsburgh's powerhouse 1932 football team, died Wednesday in Meadville City Hospital.

Kurt Burris, stalwart center for the University of Oklahoma football team, is majoring in geology.

'Forward March,' Says Liska As Seer Picks Several Upsets

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — The football season is waning, a good thing for the Midwest Seer whose crystal ball seems to have blown a fuse. Two underdogs, Miami of Ohio and Boston College, and relentless Ohio State upset us last Saturday. Oh well, forward march with the accent on the shortenders:

PURDUE 19, OHIO STATE 14—We've been waiting all season for the "automatic" loser which perennially plagues Ohio State. . . . This is it, provided Len Dawson is on target and a good Boilermaker line is at its best. . . . The game is at old Purdue, feared by many since the days of Stagg. . . . Ohio State is a 7-point favorite.

MINNESOTA 14, IOWA 7 — Iowa's last two sparkling triumphs over Wisconsin and Purdue were at Iowa City. . . . College footballers like that home hollering, so we'll string with the Gophers, whose only loss in seven games was at Michigan. . . . It should be a crackling battle between two well-drilled clubs. . . . Iowa is a 5½ point choice.

WISCONSIN 20, ILLINOIS 7 — Alan (The Horse) Ameche should be the difference. . . . However, the Illini may be keyed for revenge against the Badgers who last year withered Illinois' Rose Bowl and undisputed Big Ten title chance. . . . Even in good health, J. C. Caroline was halted by Wisconsin last fall.

MICHIGAN STATE 14, MICHIGAN 13—This hot intrastate rivalry finds the Spartans approaching their old form in time to hang a second Big-Ten loss on the Rose Bowl-hopeful Wolverines. . . . The neighborhood fuss will pack 97,000 into Michigan's huge deep-rooted stadium.

INDIANA 7, NORTHWESTERN 6—Injuries have pared the buffeted Wildcats down to one quarterback, sophomore Dale Pienta, and even he is lame. . . . This one is for the Big-Ten fumbling championship with Northwestern owning 38 bobbles for the season and the Hoosiers 27.

NOTRE DAME 21, NORTH CAROLINA 7—Without injured center Dick Syzmanski, the Irish won't make this the runaway it might have been. . . . In fact, it may be quite a debate. . . . The Tar Heels showed plenty of life last Saturday in downing South Carolina which handed Army its only loss.

MARQUETTE 21, COLLEGE OF PACIFIC 20 — Maybe this time something will go right for the Warriors . . . COP is favored by seven points.

Hastings Accepts Mineral Bowl Bid

HASTINGS (AP) — Hastings College Wednesday accepted a bid to play in the Mineral Bowl at Excelsior Springs, Mo., Thanksgiving Day.

The Hastings team went through the football season unbeaten and untied.

North Platte, Islanders Clash Today; Prep, Boys Town Friday

By BILL FITZGERALD
Star Sports Staff Member

Three conference playoffs, a battle between two small-town rivals and the annual collision of Boys Town and Creighton Prep put life into the last prep football slate of the state season this week.

Grand Island's determination to repeat its Big Ten Conference championship seize of 1953 makes the Islander clash with North Platte at G.I. Thursday a big affair.

The Islanders and Bulldogs tied without a score a month ago but G.I. figures to take N.P. Veterans Day afternoon in a repeat of the title it won last November at McCook.

Strong Seward will travel to Ord to seek a second Central Ten championship in as many seasons. The Bluejays beat a surprisingly strong Fullerton team in the playoff last fall and will meet greater strength in big Ord Thursday.

Both are rated well in The Star's Top Ten for Class B.

Blair may be the site of the best game of the Veterans Day schedule. There the host team will meet imponderable Tekamah, a squad which has blown over eight straight opponents and may be one of the strong Class B squads of the state.

Tekamah has not been tested seriously, but the Tigers are coached by Boss Darrell Mudra and Assistant Buck Wilson of Peru State fame and the story is that they are a high class outfit which can handle the slick Blair team.

Omaha may catch the record crowd of the season when Boys Town goes into Creighton Stadium Friday night in possibly the biggest game of the Class A season.

The Cowboys are strong—as always—and Prep stands as the Class A squad with the longest victory streak in Nebraska. Boys Town is described as a club of big strength, especially in the line, but the Jays are expected to win in the air with the talented Mike Dugan throwing like a champ in his high school curtain call.

The schedule is light, but the show should be good. Here is the complete program:

Their Job's Not Done

U.S. Marines Give Their Iwo-Scene Monument To The Nation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States Marines, proud possessors of a heroic past, gave to the nation Wednesday a giant memorial to their fallen comrades.

President Eisenhower attended the ceremony paying respect to the memory of all Leathernecks who have paid the last full measure of devotion to their country, from the Revolutionary War to Korea.

Vice President Nixon said in dedicating the memorial on the banks of the Potomac that it stands as "a great challenge" to Americans to find a way to peace and freedom that will require no further sacrifices on the field of battle.

Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd Jr. Marine Corps commandant, said in presenting the memorial to the people of the country that it is not "just a monument to a departed past. It is a graphic message to the future.

Symbol Of Courage

"May it stand for ages yet to come as a symbol of American courage and determination, of indestructible faith and unity of purpose."

The memorial, which was dedicated on the 179th anniversary of the birth of the Marine Corps, depicts one of the most glorious moments in the history of the Leathernecks: The raising of the Stars and Stripes above the World War II Pacific battleground of Iwo Jima.

The scene was recorded for posterity in February 1945 in a photograph by Joe Rosenthal, then of The Associated Press and now of the San Francisco Chronicle. It was recreated by Felix de Weldon, an Austrian-born sculptor.

Nixon recalled to the audience of 6,000 that the casualty rate among the six flag raisers was 50 per cent and said the monument is a tribute to "the tremendous sacrifices" of the Marines as well as to their "esprit de corps and great history."

But, he added, "it is something more. It symbolizes the hopes and dreams of all Americans and it is dedicated to a great fundamental principle."

This principle, he said, was best summarized by "a great war president, Woodrow Wilson," who in 1912 told a gathering in Philadelphia that the American flag "represents hope and liberty" to all peoples of the world.

The monument, which stands a few hundred yards from the Tomb of The Unknown Soldier, is the largest bronze casting ever created. The figures of the six straining flag raisers are each 32 feet high and are raised above a 40-foot block of black Swedish granite.

Around the girth of the base is carved a chronological list of Marine Corps military engagements since the birth of the country. Below them is inscribed the corps motto "Semper Fidelis," and the salute Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz gave them for their fighting at Iwo Jima:

"Uncommon valor was a common virtue."

Service Head Resigns — Harold Peterson, manager of Nebraska Poultry and Egg Market News service since its founding last winter, is resigning Monday to become an agricultural statistician with the Bureau of the Census at Pittsburgh, Kan. He will be succeeded by Dale Filkins of Fremont, who received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture last June. The Poultry and Egg service was set up by the 1953 legislature and currently is in an 18-month trial period. Half of the cost of operations comes from the federal government, the remainder from contributions from the industry.

Plans Board OKs Pool In Eastridge

Construction of a neighborhood swimming pool in Eastridge Addition has been approved by the City Planning Commission.

Plans for the cooperative neighborhood venture were presented to the Commission by Bill Golding, chairman of the overall planning committee. The pool will be financed, he said, by sale of annual memberships.

Memberships will be limited to persons living in Eastridge, he said, and only those with memberships cards will be permitted to use the facility. A fan shaped pool will be constructed about a block south of Randolph on Sunrise Rd.

'Spies' Charged

BERLIN (AP) — The Communist East German government opened four separate trials of 22 East Germans accused of spying in the Soviet zone for the United States and West Germany.

Ten were charged with being directly in the employ of the "American Secret Service," the usual Communist name for the U.S. intelligence network.

Administration Completes Loyalty Check In State Department

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration has virtually completed a sweeping new loyalty and security check of the State Department's 10,600 employees.

Informed officials reported that 90 per cent of the total, about 9,500, have been cleared and found to be good security risks.

Investigations of the remaining 10 per cent are nearly over with prospects their cases will be completed by the end of the year.

Far-Flung Review

R. W. Scott McLeod, the department's controversial security chief, has directed the far-flung review into the loyalty and security of all diplomats and Civil Service employes.

For the past 18 months, McLeod's security agents have examined the background of all present employes and job applicants to make certain they qualify under the Eisenhower administration's new loyalty and security standards.

McLeod, former aide to Republican Sen. Bridges (NH) and friend of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), is reported satisfied his investigations have been thorough and fair.

Report Ready

A frequent target of Democratic criticism, McLeod is reported ready to give an accounting to the Democratic - controlled 84th Congress in the event it demands an investigation of his security activities. He is reported resolved to stay on the job despite any new criticism which may be leveled at him.

Meanwhile it was learned that a special committee named by Secretary of State Dulles to survey the foreign service has renewed its recommendation that he transfer from McLeod to the undersecretary for administration the duties of inspecting foreign service installations.

And noting that the undersecretary's post expires Dec. 31, it urged Dulles to find a "properly qualified man who can come prepared to stay" as his principal administrative assistant to take over those duties. The post now is filled temporarily by Charles Saltzman.

Administration Completes Loyalty Check In State Department

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration has virtually completed a sweeping new loyalty and security check of the State Department's 10,600 employees.

Informed officials reported that 90 per cent of the total, about 9,500, have been cleared and found to be good security risks.

Investigations of the remaining 10 per cent are nearly over with prospects their cases will be completed by the end of the year.

Far-Flung Review

R. W. Scott McLeod, the department's controversial security chief, has directed the far-flung review into the loyalty and security of all diplomats and Civil Service employes.

For the past 18 months, McLeod's security agents have examined the background of all present employes and job applicants to make certain they qualify under the Eisenhower administration's new loyalty and security standards.

McLeod, former aide to Republican Sen. Bridges (NH) and friend of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), is reported satisfied his investigations have been thorough and fair.

Report Ready

A frequent target of Democratic criticism, McLeod is reported ready to give an accounting to the Democratic - controlled 84th Congress in the event it demands an investigation of his security activities. He is reported resolved to stay on the job despite any new criticism which may be leveled at him.

Meanwhile it was learned that a special committee named by Secretary of State Dulles to survey the foreign service has renewed its recommendation that he transfer from McLeod to the undersecretary for administration the duties of inspecting foreign service installations.

And noting that the undersecretary's post expires Dec. 31, it urged Dulles to find a "properly qualified man who can come prepared to stay" as his principal administrative assistant to take over those duties. The post now is filled temporarily by Charles Saltzman.

Lodge Refutes Report He Will Go To White House As Adviser

UNITED NATIONS (INS)—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge expressed a firm desire to stay at U. N. for the Eisenhower administration in refuting reports he will soon go to Washington as top White House adviser.

Lodge told the U. N. Correspondents' Association at a luncheon in his honor that he has no knowledge of Mr. Eisenhower's intention to transfer him to the official White House family and said he hoped the President had no such intention.

The recurrent rumors of Lodge's impending assignment to the White House were coupled with varying reports that he will be succeeded by John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky), defeated in the recent election by former Vice President Alben Barkley. Another candidate mentioned for the U. N. post has been Harold Stassen, director of foreign operations.

The luncheon preceded a showing to U. N. delegates of a filmed U.S. exhibit of the peaceful uses of atomic energy. The exhibit was intended to help push approval in U. N. of President Eisenhower's atoms-for-peace plan. The political committee canceled its afternoon session to leave the 60 delegates free to attend the exhibit.

Lodge also made the following points in his luncheon address:

1. The U. S. continues to favor revision of the U.N. charter to eliminate use of the veto on the admission of new member states. Russia abuse of the privilege has stymied U.N. in its efforts to admit such nations as Italy, Austria and Japan.

2. The U.S. in presenting the Eisenhower "atoms-for-peace" blueprint is seeking maximum ratifications of the plan by member governments and for this reason is opposing efforts to "fence it in" with too many provisions.

3. The American government would favor Geneva as the site for the proposed international nuclear conference envisioned in the atoms-for-peace program.

4. The world situation has improved and "encouraging" progress has been made toward peace and international security during the past year. He attributed this to the signing of the London-Paris agreements on West Germany and the Southeast Asian pact.

5. If the present U.N. assembly session enacts the atoms-for-peace blueprint it "may go down in history as the greatest" ever held.

In the political committee, the Philippines called on the U.S. and Russia to contribute the equivalent of one atomic bomb each to help launch a nuclear reactor project under U. N. Auspices.

Romulo told the 60-nation group:

"The Soviet Union and United States, which have been setting off so many atomic weapons, should be willing to contribute at least the equuivalent of one atomic weapon, say 220 pounds of fissionable material, which was the maximum size the first scientific report of the U.N. Atomic Energy Commission estimated as possibly needed for a single bomb.

"Such a reactor could be used to produce radio-isotopes; it could train international technicians; it could study routes to atomic power; it could spark efforts in national institutions by the brains it has brought together from many nations."

Romulo suggested that nations donate uranium, money or any "token contribution" they could make to build the reactor. He urged that the proposed international atomic agency be under control of the vetoless General Assembly.

Weaver Expenses Total $10,038

Phil Weaver of Falls City, First District congressman-elect, Wednesday reported spending $10,038 in his campaign.

Of this sum, $6,180 was contributed by others, including $2,000 from the National Republican congressional committee and $2,550 from the state central committee.

The Democratic state central committee reported receipts of $3,404 and $2,329 during the campaign.

State treasurer-elect Ralph Hill of Hebron reported spending $624.

Legislative candidates reporting included Cobe Venner, Lincoln, $1,271; Edward Baburek, Omaha, $680.

Heifer Hoofs It —Slug Ends Trip

A little bull might go a long way, but a junior sized heifer went farther Wednesday morning.

The heifer broke loose from the American Stores processing plant at 320 N. Det. Frank Robbins and a rifle slug caught up with the heifer about two miles west of Lincoln on Hwy. 6.

The Nine Lincoln Doctors Remaining In WWI 'Last Man Club' Meet Today

Lincoln's Last Man Club will hold its 36th annual Armistice Day observance Thursday.

Nine Lincoln physicians remaining of the original 15 who served overseas in World War I will carry out their traditional observances adopted by the founders of the club in 1918 at Allerey Sur Saone, France.

The survivors will lay a wreath at Wyuka cemetery at 11 a.m. on the grave of the late Dr. J. M. Mayhew, first of the group to die. It will symbolize remembrance of all six of the deceased members.

The survivors will lunch together at noon at the Cornhusker Hotel, spend the afternoon together and return to the Cornhusker at 6 p.m. for their annual formal dinner. Dr. E. W. Rowe, WWI major, will be the 1954 host.

Meantime, wives of the veterans, living and deceased will be entertained by Mrs. A. D. Munger and Mrs. George Covey at the latter's home.

Deceased members of the club are: Major J. M. Mayhew, Lt. Miles J. Breuer, Lt. Roscoe L. Smith, Capt. Torrence C. Moyer, Lt. Fred W. Webster and Lt. Stanley Zemer.

Surviving members are: Major E. W. Rowe, Lt. Col. H. W. Orr, Capt. J. J. Hompes, Capt. A. D. Munger, Capt. George Walker, Capt. C. C. Hickman, Lt. Harry E. Flansburg, Lt. J. E. M. Thomson and Lt. George W. Covey.

First meeting of the Last Man Club at Allerey Sur Saone was attended by its charter members, Drs. Harry E. Flansburg, Geo. W. Covey and J. E. M. Thomson. The others became members during the ensuing year.

500 Officers To Attend Police Meet

Nearly 500 law officers from Nebraska will convene at the Lincoln Hotel Thursday morning for the third annual conference of the Police Officers' Association of Nebraska.

Highlight topics of discussion and instruction will hinge around new laws effecting law enforcement in the state, especially those dealing with laws of arrest. Other topics will deal with the juvenile problem and traffic problems as they are being solved throughout the United States today.

George Bowers, director of field service at the Northwestern University Traffic Institute, will speak on the essentials of a traffic supervision program at both morning and afternoon sessions on Thursday.

Criminal investigation will get the once over by R. W. "Doc" Nebergall, director of the bureau of criminal investigation at Des Moines, Ia. W. H. Williams, special agent in charge of the FBI at Omaha, will go into the essentials of the proper use of firearms.

Williams' talk will be followed with a special demonstration in firearms at the Lincoln Air Base.

The evening banquet will feature as guest speaker Gov.-elect Victor E. Anderson.

On Friday, Capt. Harold Ostler of the Omaha Police Department will take up juvenile problem on the morning program.

Dr. James Reinhardt, professor of criminology at the University of Nebraska, will talk on "A Criminologist's Views of Crime."

Election of officers and business meetings will precede adjournment Friday afternoon.

Police Chief Joe Cook of Fairbury is president of the Association. Police Chief Joe Carroll of Lincoln is secretary-treasurer.

Engineer Gets Professional Recognition For Himself By Individual Performance

"Professional recognition is something that an engineer earns for himself by individual performance," members of Sigma Tau, national honorary engineering fraternity, were told Wednesday in Lincoln.

Morris H. Cook, vice president of Bell Telephone Laboratories, New York City, addressed the nation-wide conclave at the Stuart Theater honoring the group's 50th anniversary.

"Professional recognition," he said, "is not public or formal and certainly cannot be insured by any easy device or organizational short cut. When it comes, it comes as a result of attainment of objectives and not because recognition itself has been the goal."

A highlight of Thursday's session will be the dedication of a Pyramid, constructed northeast of Ferguson Hall on the University campus, at 11 a.m.

Bob Peterson, Lincoln senior engineer student, will present the limestone and granite structure to the College of Engineering and Architecture. Dean Emeritus O. J. Ferguson will accept it.

The Founders banquet at 6:30 p.m. at the University Club will honor the seven living founders, including Verne Hedge of Lincoln and Russel L. Harris of Omaha. Prior to the banquet, 16 University of Nebraska students will be initiated into the fraternity, which was founded in 1904 on the University campus.

Harold Feis, 56, Dies In Wapato

Harold Feis, 56, Wapato, Wash., formerly of Lincoln, died Tuesday following a heart attack.

He had lived in Nebraska all his life until he went to Washington three years ago. Services and burial will be at Wapato.

Surviving are his wife, Ella; a daughter, Mrs. Fayne Dragoo; sons, Bud and Darrell, both of Wapato, and Leo, in the Navy in Japan; four grandchildren; a brother, Jake Feis of Blue Hill, Neb., and sisters, Mrs. Freda Kile of Bladen, Neb., Mrs. Albert Grams of Campbell, Neb., and Mrs. Paul Taylor and Mrs. Ray Pettet, both of Lincoln.

Farmer Killed

TEMPLETON, Ia. (AP)—Walter A. Hansen, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hansen, tenant farmers near here, was killed and his father injured seriously in a two-truck collision four miles west of Templeton Wednesday.

They were riding in a pickup truck which crashed with a loaded gravel truck at a gravel road intersection.

End Of State Control Board May Be Asked

State Sen. George Syas of Omaha, whose legislation last session resulted in closing the Milford Home for Unwed Mothers, may ask for an end to the Board of Control.

Syas said if he finds enough support for such a proposal, then he may offer a bill calling for a vote in 1956 on abolishing the board.

Abolishment of the Board, however, could only be accomplished by a constitutional amendment put up for vote during a general election.

The senator, who is attending the meeting of the Legislative Council this week, recalled he got his head "chopped off" on his proposal to close the Milford Trade School. The proposal was an allied proposal to the closing of the Unwed Mothers Home.

The Board, which has supervision of 17 state institutions including correctional institutions and mental hospitals, also directs the state assistance program.

The Board has been under fire periodically in recent years, with attention turned toward it again last week end by the report of a citizens committee to the governor that the Penitentiary is "open to real criticism."

The Board is making arrangements to meet next week with the committee to discuss the foundation for the criticism. Thomas Dredla, vice-chairman, said he is sending letters inviting members of the committees reporting on mental health and penal institutions to the meeting.

New Platte Crossing On Dec. 2 Letting List

A new crossing over the Platte River south of Fremont is on the State Highway Department's letting list for Dec. 2.

The Fremont project includes 1.6 miles of paving, two bridges, and a detour.

It is on the U.S. 77 approach to Fremont from the south.

Other projects listed for bidding Dec. 2 raise the total to $2,500,000.

Besides the Fremont job, the list includes:

Hall County—1.8 miles concrete pavement and asphaltic concrete resurfacing on U.S. 30 in Grand Island.

Dawes—8.3 miles grading, bituminous and asphaltic concrete, Neb. No. 19 Chadron to Chadron State Park.

Otoe—8 mile, grading and pavement, between No. 2 and U.S. 75-75 west of Nebraska City.

Saunders—4 miles, gravel, Malmo to U.S. 30A.

Nance—Gravel, culverts and bridge north of Palmer.

Custer—6.7 miles, grading, culverts, bridges, and gravel, U.S. 183 south of Sargent.

Scotts Bluff—Grading and bridge, No. 86 Gering-Melbeta.

Dundy—6.7 miles, grading and bituminous, No. 61, Benkelman-Enders.

Colfax and Dodge—10.7 miles, bituminous, No. 91, Leigh to No. 15 and on secondary highways between Howells, Dodge and Clarkson and No. 91.

Of the total estimated cost of the Dec. 2 projects, $1,250,000 would be federal funds, $100,000 would be city and county money, and the remainder, state funds.

One Contract For Beattie Work Sought

The Wilson Construction Co., has proposed to the Board of Education an extension of contract to include construction of the second addition to Merle Beattie School.

Wilson is now working on the first Beattie addition, a six-classroom, two-story unit to the south of the existing building. This first addition will cost about $110,000.

Wilson has proposed to do the second addition, six classrooms and a kindergarten, for from $120,000 to $125,000, using the same unit prices for material as he quoted in his first addition bid. This will save the District from $15,000 to $20,000, the contractor affirmed, and will allow for completion of the second unit in time for the start of classes in September of 1955.

Merle Beattie has been hard pressed for room since its doors were opened this year. The first addition, to be ready for the beginning of mid-year classes, is expected to be filled again by September of 1955.

The extension of the Wilson contract hinges on the outcome of a meeting of the Board Thursday with contractors who have done school construction work in the past. The Board will attempt, through discussion with the contractors, to work out a policy to cover such proposed extensions.

Butler Praised By Colleagues

WASHINGTON (AP)—The late Sen. Hugh Butler (R-Neb) was praised by his Senate colleagues for his integrity, sincerity, loyalty and great devotion to his country.

The eulogies came as the Senate held memorial services for three members who died in recent months, Butler, McCarran (D-Nev) and Hunt (D-Nev).

Sen. Bridges (R-NH), president pro-tem of the Senate, and Sen. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, were among the first to pay tribute to Butler.

Bridges described Butler as "a self-made man" and told of his early work in helping to build railroad lines in the west.

"His word was his bond, always to be believed," Johnson said. "I always had deep respect and affection for him. He was a man of strong loyalty."

Sen. Hruska (R-Neb), who was elected a week ago to succeed Butler, told of Butler's gifts of money to Doane College in Nebraska, including $150,000 donation to establish a trust fund in memory of his wife.

Sen. Hazel Able (R-Neb) also spoke of Butler's aid to young people through his gifts.

Hruska and Mrs. Abel were sworn in Monday. Their remarks Tuesday were their first senate speeches.

Youth's Plea Guilty To Check Forgery

Anderson changed his earlier plea to a charge of forging a $37.50 check on Aug. 21 on a Lincoln bank by attaching the name of "C. R. Easterday."

Judgee Harry Spencer deferred sentencing of the defendant pending an investigation by the adult probation officer.

Anderson, who had been in Lincoln only a few months, gave his local address as 2235 S.

New Platte Crossing On Dec. 2 Letting List

A new crossing over the Platte River south of Fremont is on the State Highway Department's letting list for Dec. 2.

The Fremont project includes 1.6 miles of paving, two bridges, and a detour.

It is on the U.S. 77 approach to Fremont from the south.

Other projects listed for bidding Dec. 2 raise the total to $2,500,000.

Besides the Fremont job, the list includes:

Hall County—1.8 miles concrete pavement and asphaltic concrete resurfacing on U.S. 30 in Grand Island.

Dawes—8.3 miles grading, bituminous and asphaltic concrete, Neb. No. 19 Chadron to Chadron State Park.

Otoe—.8 mile, grading and pavement, between No. 2 and U.S. 73-75 west of Nebraska City.

Saunders—4 miles, gravel, Malmo to U.S. 30A.

Nance—Gravel, culverts and bridge north of Palmer.

Custer—6.7 miles, grading, culverts, bridges, and gravel, U.S. 183 south of Sargent.

Scotts Bluff—Grading and bridge, No. 86 Gering-Melbeta.

Dundy—6.7 miles, grading and bituminous, No. 61, Benkelman-Enders.

Colfax and Dodge—10.7 miles, bituminous, No. 91, Leigh to No. 15 and on secondary highways between Howells, Dodge and Clarkson and No. 91.

Of the total estimated cost of the Dec. 2 projects, $1,250,000 would be federal funds, $100,000 would be city and county money, and the remainder, state funds.

Butler Praised By Colleagues

WASHINGTON (AP)—The late Sen. Hugh Butler (R-Neb) was praised by his Senate colleagues for his integrity, sincerity, loyalty and great devotion to his country.

The eulogies came as the Senate held memorial services for three members who died in recent months, Butler, McCarran (D-Nev) and Hunt (D-Nev).

Sen. Bridges (R-NH), president pro-tem of the Senate, and Sen. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, were among the first to pay tribute to Butler.

Bridges described Butler as "a self-made man" and told of his early work in helping to build railroad lines in the west.

"His word was his bond, always to be believed," Johnson said. "I always had deep respect and affection for him. He was a man of strong loyalty."

Sen. Hruska (R-Neb), who was elected a week ago to succeed Butler, told of Butler's gifts of money to Doane College in Nebraska, including $150,000 donation to establish a trust fund in memory of his wife.

Sen. Hazel Able (R-Neb) also spoke of Butler's aid to young people through his gifts.

Hruska and Mrs. Abel were sworn in Monday. Their remarks Tuesday were their first senate speeches.

One Contract For Beattie Work Sought

The Wilson Construction Co., has proposed to the Board of Education an extension of contract to include construction of the second addition to Merle Beattie School.

Wilson is now working on the first Beattie addition, a six-classroom, two-story unit to the south of the existing building. This first addition will cost about $110,000.

Wilson has proposed to do the second addition, six classrooms and a kindergarten, for from $120,000 to $125,000, using the same unit prices for material as he quoted in his first addition bid. This will save the District from $15,000 to $20,000, the contractor affirmed, and will allow for completion of the second unit in time for the start of classes in September of 1955.

Merle Beattie has been hard pressed for room since its doors were opened this year. The first addition, to be ready for the beginning of mid-year classes, is expected to be filled again by September of 1955.

The extension of the Wilson contract hinges on the outcome of a meeting of the Board Thursday with contractors who have done school construction work in the past. The Board will attempt, through discussion with the contractors, to work out a policy to cover such proposed extensions.

Youth's Plea Guilty To Check Forgery

Donald Anderson, 20, from Indianapolis, Ind., whose case was set for trial during the current Lancaster District Court jury session, has pleaded guilty to a check forgery charge.

Anderson changed his earlier plea to a charge of forging a $37.50 check on Aug. 21 on a Lincoln bank by attaching the name of "C. R. Easterday."

Judgee Harry Spencer deferred sentencing of the defendant pending an investigation by the adult probation officer.

Anderson, who had been in Lincoln only a few months, gave his local address as 2235 S.

Lockhart A 'Good Boy,' Chaplain Says

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A navy chaplain who interviewed a 21-year-old sailor charged with murder in the death of his 17-year-old wife and 2-month-old son says the serviceman is a "good boy, well liked and respected by everyone on the ship who knew him."

And, said Chaplain Truman D. Twaitt, the sailor - Harry Roland Lockhart - says "he can't remember anything since about the time he went to bed Thursday night after driving for 2½ days from Nebraska after his mother's funeral."

Twaitt, chaplain aboard Lockhart's ship, the USS Cadmus, visited Lockhart at the city jail here Monday.

Lockhart, an electricians mate from North Platte, Neb., was found nude, dazed and incoherent, holed up in his small apartment with the bodies of his wife and baby son. He had been in the room with the bodies for three days before all were discovered Saturday night.

Irving Bowden, son of the owner of the apartment, gained entrance to the Lockhart's second-floor apartment and found Lockhart sitting dazed and apparently demented. On a double bed lay the body of Mrs. Lockhart, the lower part of her face covered with blood. The body of the child lay in a crib next to the bed. Traces of gas were detected in the apartment.

Meanwhile, Virginia's chief medical examiner, Dr. G. T. Mann, said he had not completed an analysis of the contents of the stomach and blood of Mrs. Lockhart.

Lockhart had asked Police Justice Savory E. Amato for permission to attend the funeral of his wife and child in New York.

But his prospects appear dim. Amato told Lockhart the matter rested with the police division.

A preliminary hearing in the cases has been set for Nov. 23 and Lockhart's bond set at $10,000.

In Arlington, Va., George C. Dalby, Virginia department commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, told a reporter he had been informed that legal counsel had been provided Lockhart.

Dalby said the Virginia VFW has no plans for any action in connection with the case and was interested only in seeing that Lockhart had counsel.

MRS. J. A. CHARNEY, Los Angeles, Calif., says: "My doctor prescribes St. Joseph Aspirin For Children. I always look for the name. It has my complete trust."

'Sinners' Find Lincoln Tough Place To Be

Take the word of the Police Department that it doesn't pay to be a "Sinner" in the Capital City.

There are three Sinners to prove the point.

The first was Elizabeth Sinner of 1012 Claremont whose green plastic lawn hose was cut into pieces, with a 12-foot section still missing and apparently stolen.

Then there was Mrs. W. E. Sinner of 829 No. 30th whose car was vandalized with heavy damage resulting.

And finally, there was Ted Sinner of 1308 No. 26th who reported to police the loss of a $75 electric cement mixer, barrel type. Ted said the machine was missing from a home construction site at 4137 So. 20th.

W. C. Sinner is a brother-in-law of Elizabeth Sinner.

Columbus Will Host Disaster Conference

COLUMBUS, Neb. (AP)—A disaster institute will be held here Nov. 15-19, the Red Cross area office at St. Louis, Mo., has announced.

Thirteen Red Cross chapters have been invited to send representatives.

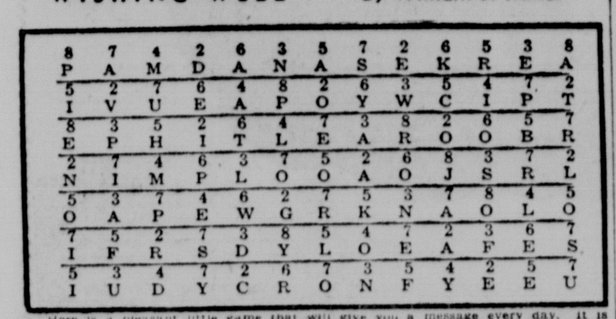
Yesterday's Answer



Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Now that the early November votes have been protested and verified, we are going to brief you on one of the main beefs of the campaign.

Whether you voted in a square, an oblong or a circle, this issue still came out catty-cornered.

☆ ☆ ☆

We shall divide it into two quizzations. What was Dixon-Yates? And if so, how did Dixon get away from Mason?

☆ ☆ ☆

Will the deep South get in deeper by singing, "I Wish I Was In Dixon-Yates"? Or will it permit the status quo to bury its own under-the-counter deals?

There's a two-million smacker slander suit running around loose down thataways. Everybody's wondering who's that important?

Lockhart A 'Good Boy,' Chaplain Says

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A navy chaplain who interviewed a 21-year-old sailor charged with murder in the death of his 17-year-old wife and 2-month-old son says the serviceman is a "good boy, well liked and respected by everyone on the ship who knew him."

And, said Chaplain Truman D. Twaitt, the sailor - Harry Roland Lockhart - says "he can't remember anything since about the time he went to bed Thursday night after driving for 2½ days from Nebraska after his mother's funeral."

Twaitt, chaplain aboard Lockhart's ship, the USS Cadmus, visited Lockhart at the city jail here Monday.

Lockhart, an electricians mate from North Platte, Neb., was found nude, dazed and incoherent, holed up in his small apartment with the bodies of his wife and baby son. He had been in the room with the bodies for three days before all were discovered Saturday night.

Irving Bowden, son of the owner of the apartment, gained entrance to the Lockhart's second-floor apartment and found Lockhart sitting dazed and apparently demented. On a double bed lay the body of Mrs. Lockhart, the lower part of her face covered with blood. The body of the child lay in a crib next to the bed. Traces of gas were detected in the apartment.

Meanwhile, Virginia's chief medical examiner, Dr. G. T. Mann, said he had not completed an analysis of the contents of the stomach and blood of Mrs. Lockhart.

Lockhart had asked Police Justice Savory E. Amato for permission to attend the funeral of his wife and child in New York.

But his prospects appear dim. Amato told Lockhart the matter rested with the police division.

A preliminary hearing in the cases has been set for Nov. 23 and Lockhart's bond set at $10,000.

In Arlington, Va., George C. Dalby, Virginia department commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, told a reporter he had been informed that legal counsel had been provided Lockhart.

Dalby said the Virginia VFW has no plans for any action in connection with the case and was interested only in seeing that Lockhart had counsel.

'Sinners' Find Lincoln Tough Place To Be

Take the word of the Police Department that it doesn't pay to be a "Sinner" in the Capital City.

There are three Sinners to prove the point

The first was Elizabeth Sinner of 1012 Claremont whose green plastic lawn hose was cut into pieces, with a 12-foot section still missing and apparently stolen.

Then there was Mrs. W. E. Sinner of 829 No. 30th whose car was vandalized with heavy damage resulting.

And finally, there was Ted Sinner of 1308 No. 26th who reported to police the loss of a $75 electric cement mixer, barrel type. Ted said the machine was missing from a home construction site at 4137 So. 20th.

W. C. Sinner is a brother-in-law of Elizabeth Sinner

Selling Fails To Halt Stock Gains

NEW YORK (INS)—The stock market continued its relentless drive to new 25-year highs Wednesday after an early spell of profit-taking had diverted it temporarily from its forward course.

Although many prominent issues were non-participants in Wednesday's rise, spending most of the time consolidating their recent gains, the bull side did not lack for important leadership with numerous advances of one to two points or more, noted along the line.

Meanwhile, the persistency of the post-election rise, which already has lifted the industrial price index some 22 points from last week's low point, continued to amaze so-called Wall Street experts who have been cautioning their clients for days that "the end was near."

Despite their wrong-guessing to date, these observers persisted in the belief that the present spectacular rise would lead eventually to a "relatively violent setback."

For all these warnings, selected issues pushed ahead vigorously.

Among the old-line industrials, Union Carbide ran up 2½ points at its best, and DuPont was up 2⅜. Gains of about the point each were also posted by U.S. Steel and International Harvester.

In the specialty category, Texas Gulf Sulphur took top honors with a spurt of 6½ points on news of a three-for-one stock split and a larger year-end extra cash dividend.

Favored oils were taken in hand for impressive gains, Texas Pacific Land Trust jumped 2½, Cities Service was up 1⅝, Texas Gulf producing up 1¾ and Texas Corp. was up 1.

There were also some fancy steppers in the Rail sector. Among them were Union Pacific up 2½ points in the final hour, Atlantic Coast line up 1¾, Gains averaging a point were recorded by Southern Pacific, Kansas City Southern, Southern Railway, Santa Fe, Missouri Pacific preferred, Seaboard, and Denver Rio Grande.

Laggardly industrials with losses of a point or more included Minnesota Mining, Goodyear, General Foods, Montgomery Ward, Royal Dutch, and United Aircraft.

BAERING DOWN ON THE NEWS By Arthur 'Bugs' Baer

(Distributed by International News Service)

Now that the early November votes have been protested and verified, we are going to brief you on one of the main beefs of the campaign.

☆ ☆ ☆

Whether you voted in a square, an oblong or a circle, this issue still came out catty-cornered.

☆ ☆ ☆

We shall divide it into two quizzations. What was Dixon-Yates? And if so, how did Dixon get away from Mason?

☆ ☆ ☆

Will the deep South get in deeper by singing, "I Wish I Was in Dixon-Yates"? Or will it permit the status quo to bury its own under-the-counter deals?

☆ ☆ ☆

There's a two-million smacker slander suit running around loose down thataways. Everybody's wondering who's that important?

You've got to compound the interest by going back to the TVA in 1933. Since then there has been a battle between public and private power.

Said bonds were authorized to be issued, by said city pursuant to a charter amendment approved by the voters of said city at an election held in and for said city on June 7, 1954, for the purpose of constructing additions to, extensions of, and improvements or betterments to the storm sewer system of said city. Said bonds will be general obligations of the city payable from advalorem taxes levied upon all taxable property in the city without limitation as to rate or amount. The assessed valuation of taxable property in the city for the current year as equalized and determined is $137,814,695. One interest rate for all of said bonds of the same maturity shall bear interest at the same rate and no bid will be considered for less than par or bearing interest at a greater rate than three (3½) per cent per annum. In determining the best bid, the interest cost to the city will be computed by determining the interest from November 1, 1954 to absolute maturity of the bonds at the rate or rates specified by the bidder, after deducting any premium offered.

No specified form of bid is required, but each bid shall definitely state the dollars of premium, if any, and the calculation of the net interest cost expressed as a per centage.

Bids will be publicly opened in the Council Chamber in the City Hall of said city of Lincoln, Nebraska, at 10:00 o'clock A.M. Central Standard Time, on Monday November 15, 1954, and the award will be made to the successful bidder as soon thereafter as possible.

Said bonds will be delivered with the unqualified approving opinion of Chapman and Cutler, Attorneys, Chicago, Illinois, and said opinion will be paid for by the said city; the printed bonds to be supplied by the successful bidder, and all bids must be so conditioned. Each bid must be accompanied by a cashier's or certified check drawn on a state or national bank and made payable to Frank J. Miller, City Treasurer, in the sum of $24,000.00 as a guarantee of good faith and for security for the performance of such bid and as liquidated damages, in case the successful bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds.

All proposals shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope, marked on the outside, "PROPOSAL FOR BONDS", and addressed to Theo H. Berg, City Clerk, at the City Hall in the city of Lincoln, Nebraska.

The city of Lincoln reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any defect in bids.

Selling Fails To Halt Stock Gains

NEW YORK (INS)—The stock market continued its relentless drive to new 25-year highs Wednesday after an early spell of profit-taking had diverted it temporarily from its forward course.

Although many prominent issues were non-participants in Wednesday's rise, spending most of the time consolidating their recent gains, the bull side did not lack for important leadership with numerous advances of one to two points or more, noted along the line.

Meanwhile, the persistency of the post-election rise, which already has lifted the industrial price index some 22 points from last week's low point, continued to amaze so-called Wall Street experts who have been confirming their clients for days that "the end was near."

Despite their wrong-guessing to date, these observers persisted in the belief that the present spectacular upsurge would lead eventually to a "relatively violent setback."

For all these warnings, selected issues pushed ahead vigorously.

Among the old-line industrials, Union Carbide ran up 2½ points at its best, and DuPont was up 2¾. Gains of about a point each were also posted by U.S. Steel and International Harvester.

In the specialty category, Texas Gulf Sulphur took top honors with a spurt of 6½ points on news of a three-for-one stock split and a larger year-end extra cash dividend.

Favored oils were taken in hand for impressive gains, Texas Pacific Land Trust jumped 2½, Cities Service was up 1¾, Texas Gulf producing up 1⅜ and Texas Corp. was up 1.

There were also some fancy steppers in the Rail sector. Among them were Union Pacific up 2½, Illinois Central up 2 and Atlantic Coast line up 1⅜. Gains averaging a point were recorded by Southern Pacific, Kansas City Southern, Southern Railway, Santa Fe, Missouri Pacific preferred, Seaboard, and Denver Rio Grande.

Leagerdly industrials with losses of a point or more included Minnesota Mining, Goodyear, General Foods, Montgomery Ward, Royal Dutch, and United Aircraft.

Pen Inmate Says Prison 'Compares Favorably'

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

The Nebraska Penitentiary compares very favorably with the state of Washington reformatory and penitentiary in treatment of prisoners, Henry N. McCandless, Seattle, Wash., told the State Pardon Board at its meeting Wednesday.

McCandless was appealing to the board for return of his "good time" lost as a result of being confined to the "hole" for theft of narcotics from the prison hospital and other offenses.

The "good time" amounted to 6 years, 5 months and 2 days on his 20-year sentence from Platte County on 2nd degree murder charges. It was restored by the board. He was sentenced in 1945 for slaying a fellow carnival worker.

McCandless, under questioning by Attorney General C. S. Beck, said his experience in prisons both in Washington and Nebraska showed that rules have to be obeyed both inside and outside of prison or you have to pay the penalty.

The prison records show that McCandless after spending 30 days in the "hole" reformed and has been a model prisoner since. He insisted he has never been unjustly treated by prison officials.

Following the theft of the narcotics from the prison hospital, medicines of that type have been removed to a vault in the administrative offices.

Paroles were granted to five other Penitentiary applicants and seven Reformatory inmates. They are:

Penitentiary

James L. Fullerton, 51 Hay Springs, 20 years, incest, Cherry county, 1947.

Marvin J. Ballard, 34, Burwell, one to two years, breaking and entering and parole violation, Cheyenne county, 1953.

Arthur H. Anderson, 37, Lincoln, ten years, robbery, Douglas county, 1950.

Bernard N. McHugh 28, Phoenix, Ariz., five years, burglary, Lancaster county, 1954.

George Egger., 36, Lexington, two to three years, insufficient funds check and violation bench parole, Scotts Bluff county, 1953.

Reformatory

Keith Belau, 18, Wauneta, one to three years, Chase county, for violation of bench parole, 1953.

Claud P. Worth, 41 Merna, one to two years, no account check and parole violation, Custer county, 1954.

Gerald Duffield, 23, Norden, one to three years, no fund checks, Hall county, 1953.

Arthur B. Edwards, 20, Vista, Calif., one to three years, forgery, Hamilton county 1953.

Gerald Campbell, 27, Lincoln, one to three years, burglary and violation bench parole, Lancaster county, 1953.

Leland Walters, 19, Dunbar, one to two years, grand Larceny, Otoe county, 1953.

Herbert L. Karre, 25, Dickens one to three years, breaking and entering, Perkins county, 1953.

3 Mentioned For Unicam Speaker Post

Three names have cropped up most frequently this week in discussions about speakership possibilities for the 1955 Nebraska legislature.

They are Dwight W. Burney, Hartington; O. H. Person, Wahoo, and Harry L. Pizer, North Platte.

Omahans Out

Sen. Charles Tvrdik of Omaha was speaker at the 1953 session. Because of that, no other Omahan is likely to receive serious consideration in the coming session. There is reuctance to give the job to an Omahan two terms running. Otherwise Sen. Karl Vogel of Omaha might have been considered a possible candidate.

The next most important key post in the legislature is the chairmanship of the budget committee. which Arthur Carmody of Trenton is relinquishing after two sessions because he did not seek re-election. Sen. O. H. Liebers of Lincoln has been mentioned as a likely successor.

Sen. K. W. Peterson of Sargent also is mentioned. Both he and Liebers have been budget committee members for two sessions.

Sen. Lester Anderson of Aurora is interested in the chairmanship of the legislative council. Sen. Pizer now heads that group.

Slightly more than a third of the legislature's membership will be new in 1955 because of voluntary retirements or defeats at this year's elections.

Redistricting Likely Cause Of Turnover

Redistricting is probably the reason why a larger than usual number of county superintendents in Nebraska were defeated in their tries for re-election.

That is the opinion of State Supt. Freeman Decker, who said a turnover of about 25 per cent in last week's elections brought in at least 25 new superintendents.

Voters in some counties, Decker said, blamed their superintendents for dissolving school districts in accordance with state law, which requires it if the district is without pupils for a year.

But just as many superintendents were defeated because they weren't interested in redistricting as because they were, Decker said.

Usually there are no more than 15 new superintendents in any one year, he said, and those who run for re-election seldom have been defeated in the past.

But this year more incumbents than usual had competition in the elections, with a number of write-in candidates winning in the primaries.

Pen Inmate Says Prison 'Compares Favorably'

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

The Nebraska Penitentiary compares very favorably with the state of Washington reformatory and penitentiary in treatment of prisoners, Henry N. McCandless, Seattle, Wash., told the State Pardon Board at its meeting Wednesday.

McCandless was appealing to the board for return of his "good time" lost as a result of being confined to the "hole" for theft of narcotics from the prison hospital and other offenses.

The "good time" amounted to 6 years, 5 months and 2 days on his 20-year sentence from Platte County on 2nd degree murder charges. It was restored by the board. He was sentenced in 1945 for slaying a fellow carnival worker.

McCandless, under questioning by Attorney General C. S. Beck, said his experience in prisons both in Washington and Nebraska showed that rules have to be obeyed both inside and outside of prison or you have to pay the penalty.

The prison records show that McCandless after spending 30 days in the "hole" reformed and has been a model prisoner since. He insisted he has never been unjustly treated by prison officials.

Following the theft of the narcotics from the prison hospital, medicines of that type have been removed to a vault in the administrative offices.

Paroles were granted to five other Penitentiary applicants and seven Reformatory inmates. They are:

Penitentiary

James L. Fullerton, 51, Bay Springs, 20 years, incest, Cherry county, 1947.
Marvin J. Ballard, 34, Burwell, one to two years, breaking and entering and parole violation, Cheyenne county, 1953.
Arthur H. Anderson, 37, Lincoln, ten years, robbery, Douglas county, 1950.
Bernard N. McHugh 28, Phoenix, Ariz., five years, burglary, Lancaster county, 1954.
George Exner, 36, Lexington, two to three years, insufficient funds check and violation bench parole, Scotts Bluff county, 1953.

Reformatory

Keith Belau, 18, Wauneta, one to three years, Chase county, for violation of bench parole, 1953.
Claud P. Worth, 41, Mena, one to two years, no account check and parole violation, Custer county, 1954.
Gerald Duffield, 23, Norden, one to three years, no fund checks, Hall county, 1953.
Arthur B. Edwards, 20, Vista, Calif., one to three years, forgery, Hamilton county 1953.
Gerald Campbell, 27, Lincoln, one to three years, burglary and violation bench parole, Lancaster county, 1953.
Leland Walters, 19, Dunbar, one to two years, grand Larceny, Otoe county, 1953.
Herbert L. Karre, 25, Dickens, one to three years, breaking and entering, Perkins county, 1953.

3 Mentioned For Unicam Speaker Post

Three names have cropped up most frequently this week in discussions about speakership possibilities for the 1955 Nebraska legislature.

They are Dwight W. Burney, Hartington; O. H. Person, Wahoo, and Harry L. Pizer, North Platte.

Omahans Out

Sen. Charles Tvrdik of Omaha was speaker at the 1953 session. Because of that, no other Omahan is likely to receive serious consideration in the coming session. There is reluctance to give the job to an Omahan two terms running. Otherwise Sen. Karl Vogel of Omaha might have been considered a possible candidate.

The next most important key post in the legislature is the chairmanship of the budget committee. which Arthur Carmody of Trenton is relinquishing after two sessions because he did not seek re-election. Sen. O. H. Liebers of Lincoln has been mentioned as a likely successor.

Sen. K. W. Peterson of Sargent also is mentioned. Both he and Liebers have been budget committee members for two sessions.

Sen. Lester Anderson of Aurora is interested in the chairmanship of the legislative council. Sen. Pizer now heads that group.

Slightly more than a third of the legislature's membership will be new in 1955 because of voluntary retirements or defeats at this year's elections.

Redistricting Likely Cause Of Turnover

Redistricting is probably the reason why a larger than usual number of county superintendents in Nebraska were defeated in their tries for re-election.

That is the opinion of State Supt. Freeman Decker, who said a turnover of about 25 per cent in last week's elections brought in at least 25 new superintendents.

Voters in some counties, Decker said, blamed their superintendents for dissolving school districts in accordance with state law, which requires it if the district is without pupils for a year.

But just as many superintendents were defeated because they weren't interested in redistricting as because they were, Decker said.

Usually there are no more than 15 new superintendents in any one year, he said, and those who run for re-election seldom have been defeated in the past.

But this year more incumbents than usual had competition in the elections, with a number of write-in candidates winning in the primaries.
